

THE KING'S HIGHWAY.

present at the roll call. Allow me to testify that I believe I am walking in the light and have fellowship with the Son, and the blood cleanseth. Glory to God.

SISTER A. H. TRAFTON. Enclosed please find my offering. How I would love to be there. I know you will have a good time, a real shout in the camp. I am delighted with our little home, and the place we live in, and I think the people are lovely. They are very kind. You can sing my testimony. The first verse is: "When the roll is called up yonder," The Lord is very precious to my heart.

SISTER JOSHUA CRAWFORD. Your sister in Christ, saved and kept by power divine.

BRO. E. B. CRAWFORD. Please say my testimony is that I am living for Jesus every day and that I find sweet peace in trusting him. He saves, sanctifies and keeps me every day. Enclosed find offering. Wishing I might be with you, I remain your brother in Christ.

ANNIE L. TRAFTON. I regret that I cannot attend the church anniversary. I send my testimony that the Lord saves and keeps me and supplies all my needs. You will find enclosed a small thank offering. Praying that the Lord will give you a grand meeting. I remain your sister in Christ.

MRS. JENNIE ALLINGHAM. My testimony is that I am saved and kept by power divine. Jesus is very precious to me, and keeps me sweetly day by day.

MRS. ELI SHEA. I will bless the Lord at all times.

J. C. MAXON AND WIFE. send us best wishes and offering.

REV. A. L. BUBAR. To the Church at Woodstock, Eighteenth Anniversary.

Dear Brethren and Sisters gathered in Jesus' name, Greeting—I am with you in the great battle against the world, the flesh and the devil. Your anniversary recalls the memory of those blessed meetings in Woodstock in 1888 which resulted in the organization of the Reformed Baptist Church. The precious influence of those services is still felt in my soul. A few of the old warriors have been called from the battle field, yet God is still with us in the great battle against sin, and the old banner of "Holiness to the Lord" still waves in the breezes that sweep down from the hill tops of heaven. My testimony to you, beloved, is that Christ Jesus the Son of God is supreme in my heart. I am walking in the light and the blood cleanseth.

Yours in holy fellowship, A. L. BUBAR.

MRS. AMANDA BOYER. Dear Brother Baker—Enclosed you will find a small offering toward your church building. Your sister, saved and kept by the power of God.

SISTER W. J. BOYER, AGED 88 YEARS 9 MOS. Dear Brethren and Sisters in the Lord—I am trusting in the dear Lord and walking in the narrow way, and expect to be an over-comer and sit down with him in his kingdom to go no more out forever. I was sanctified wholly over 20 years ago, and I praise the dear Lord for his keeping power.

SISTER ELLA BRYDEN. Received the invitation to the Roll Call of the church. Sorry I cannot be present. My testimony is that I am saved and kept by the precious blood of Jesus. Glory to His name.

BROTHER J. C. HOWARD. I cannot be with you at the meeting. You have my prayers and I enclose this offering. It is small but it is from my heart. May God bless your efforts. My testimony is, that I am with you in the faith, saved through the blood of Christ. Pray for me. These testimonies will be concluded in next issue.

DONATIONS. We have been kindly remembered this year by churches and friends on this circuit. On Sept. 20th about fifty of our friends gathered at our home, Millville, and made us a donation of thirty dollars. And at Lower Hainesville on Oct. 28th the people met at the home of Bro. John Elliot and presented us with $26.00. We were also remembered by friends at Maple Ridge and treated in the same manner. We praise God and thank the donors. S. GREENLAW.

NOTICE. The Quarterly Meeting of district No. 2 will convene with the Lutz Mountain church on Dec. 4th, 1906. Your attention is also called to the resolution passed at our last meeting, stating that every church should send written reports and one delegate at least, and pay their expenses if necessary. Also to procure standard certificates. All are cordially invited. W. B. MADDISON, secretary.

MARRIED.

A quiet yet beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Dr. E. W. Davis, Elliott Row, St. John, on the evening of Oct. 31st, when their only daughter, Ethel F. was given in marriage to Hartley S. Wannamaker. The bride was given away by her father and Ethel Cosman, niece of the groom was flower girl. The bride wore white brocaded silk and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The wedding ceremony was solemnized by Rev. M. S. Trafton. Refreshments were served and the happy couple left in the midnight train for their future home in Charlottetown, P. E. I., having the best wishes of their many friends for their future happiness.

At Beals, Me., Oct. 30th, by the Rev. H. H. Cosman, Mr. John Peabody, to Miss Inez M. Beal, both of Jones Port, Me.

Nov. 5th, at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Orange Hall, by Rev. S. A. Baker, Mr. Asa Cole and Miss Minnie Chase, both of West Waterville, York Co., N. B.

Nov. 14th at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Orange Hall, Woodstock, N. B., by Rev. S. A. Baker, Mr. Frank Furlong and Miss Letitia M. Porter, both of Lower Woodstock.

DIED.

At their home in St. Stephen, N. B., on Thursday, Oct. 11th, after a very painful and serious illness of one year and four months, Roy E., aged 6 years, son of Conductor and Mrs. Robert Dow.

Through the long and weary hours, days, weeks and months of suffering, his mother was his almost constant companion and nurse as the father was absent on the train, except a few hours on three evenings of the week and on Sundays. Roy seemed at first to dread the thought of death, but as his mother talked to him about heaven being a better place than earth, all fear vanished and as the end drew near, he longed to go to his heavenly home. At one time as he half awakened out of sleep he said to his mother, "Let's go home, mama!" and she answered, "Yes, dear, we will go home." He replied, "Quick!" He had seemingly caught a glimpse of the glory land and longed to be at rest. In the first of his sickness he did not wish to hear music and singing, as it seemed to distress him, but near the close of life he said to his mother, "Mama, I want you to take me in your arms and rock me and sing, 'Little children who love their Redeemer.'" She did as requested and sweetly sang:—

Little children, little children, Who love their Redeemer, Are the jewels, precious jewels; His loved and His own.

Chorus, Like the stars of the morning, His bright crown adorning, They shall shine in their beauty, Bright gems for His crown.

Roy was a bright, loving and lovable child, and bore his long and severely painful illness with scarcely a murmur. His parents loved him dearly and all that could be done was done to secure the best medical skill of Montreal, Woodstock and St. Stephen to cure or give him relief. But it was not God's will, and he left earth for heaven to await the coming of those he loved on earth.

The funeral services at the house were conducted by Rev. W. C. Goucher, pastor of the Baptist church. The burial took place in Fredericton in the rural cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Dow have the hearty sympathy of their many friends in different parts of the province in their bereavement. W. B. W.

CORRESPONDENCE.

YARMOUTH, N. S., Nov. 6th, 1906. Dear Bro. Baker:—I thought I would send you a few words about our work in Yarmouth if you think it worthy of a space in the dear HIGHWAY.

Sunday Nov. 4th was a memorable day in the history of Yarmouth Holiness Mission. Rev. A. H. Trafton of Sandford kindly responded to a request to conduct baptismal service and administered the rite to eight happy candidates, there being four of one family, father, mother, son and daughter. As the friends gathered to witness the event, the sun burst through forbidding clouds as though smiling on the scene, and giving evidence of God's approval. It was an impressive occasion, the onlookers being quiet and attentive. Following the baptismal service was a preaching, testimony, and a communion service at the Mission Hall. Bro. Trafton interspersed his remarks with song and awakened notes of praise from the saints. Testimonies followed in quick succession. Thirty-two persons participated in the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

The morning and evening services were conducted by the writer, at both requests for prayers were made. One came to the Altar and prayed through to victory. "Hallelujah. The members are hopeful for the continuance of prosperity. Yours in His name, A. W. MORRELL.

NEW TUSKET, Digby Co., N. S., Nov. 9th, 1906.

Dear Highway.—Just a word to let you know of my whereabouts. Shortly after Alliance I visited New Tuskett as the brethren advised me to do. I stayed over five Sundays with the people. After much prayer we felt God would have us move here as there was an open field for work and souls hungry for full salvation. We were delayed in moving by the sickness and death of my brother whom I know God enabled me to lead into the fold. Praise Him for the privilege of preaching the Gospel.

We are now nicely settled in our new home and feel God is going to use us to his honor and glory. There will be much hard fighting here but God is able to give us the victory. Pray for us. Your brother in his service, E. W. LESTER.

KNOXFOUR, Car. Co., Nov. 6th, 1906.

Dear Highway.—Again I take pleasure in writing a few lines to your columns. The work here is still progressing under the guidance and direction of the Holy Spirit. Our meetings continue to be well attended and interest is good. We were made glad last Thursday night when on our arrival at prayer meeting we greeted many new faces of rather those who had not been attending the prayer meetings in the past, and before the meeting began we were made the richer of about $28.00 and as it was a very cold night more has come in since until it is over thirty dollars now. Then we proceeded with our meeting and it was glorious the spirit came down and it seemed like heaven itself. Oh praise the Lord, if men "would only praise the Lord for his wonderful work toward the children of men." Then Monday we met with another grand surprise when a number of the brethren met and helped me put up a barn for my horse. I feel like saying that these are only two ways of many, they show their intense interest in the cause. Royalton church is not dead as some have supposed, but full of faith and the Holy Ghost and we are praying and earnestly looking forward for a grand revival. Brethren pray with us. I remain yours saved and kept, P. L. COSMAN.

TO THE CHURCHES.

Because of the existence of a smallpox scare in Middle Southampton and vicinity, it is thought that it would not be prudent to hold the next quarterly meeting there, according to vote of last meeting. If there is any church that would like to have it, they will please make it known forthwith by writing the secretary, Brother Archer at Hartland, and specify a convenient date on or about first week in January. PRES.

I thank God that I was born a hungry babe. When I got blessed I wanted more. E. TAYLOR.

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. S. Greenlaw enjoyed a time of refreshing in the special meetings held at Lower Hainesville. Several were converted, backsliders reclaimed and the church much strengthened. Seven were baptized and four united with the church.

Rev'ds. W. B. Wiggins and Henry Smith have been rewarded in their work at St. Stephen by several being converted and a number requested prayers for full salvation. They began special meetings at Calais on the 13th to continue indefinitely. They will hold a meeting at St. Stephen Sunday afternoon 18th inst. Brother Smith says that Brother and Sister Wiggins are doing good work.

Rev. J. H. Coy preached at Lower Southampton on the 4th inst., and at Green Bush and Meductic on the 10th.

Rev. B. Colpitts is aglow with old time fire and is a great help to the pastor and people at Woodstock. His shouts of praise are spontaneous.

Rev'ds. M. S. and P. J. Trafton began a 10 day's meeting at Fort Fairfield, Me., on the 9th inst., we trust they may have another grand victory. The outside of the Fort Fairfield church is nearing completion.

Rev. G. B. Trafton visited his parents at Woodstock a few days last week. The work in the Marysville church is progressing well and the outpost work is very encouraging. Brother Trafton visited Geary several times during the latter part of the summer.

All will be glad to hear that Rev. C. S. Hilyard is thinking of resuming active work in the ministry again. He preached Sunday evening 11th inst. at Beals, Me. Bro. Cosman reports a good day and requests prayers for himself and the work. Let us all go forward for prayers for a special outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon us and our work for the coming months.

Licentiate E. W. Lester moved to New Tuskett N. S., not Westchester as we stated in the previous issue of the HIGHWAY.

Sunday the 4th inst., was a day of wonderful blessing at Woodstock. Notwithstanding every minister that we invited failed us, except Bro. Colpitts. But the Praying Bands rendered grand help. James Carr and Wm. Andrews of the Fort Fairfield Band and Handy Nevers, Ziba Orser, A. J. Ward, Charles Carr, F. Clark, James Rogers, A. Craig and F. Gardiner of the Hartland Band were present, beside the Woodstock Band numbering over 20 and Bro. J. H. Seelye and T. H. Manzer, and many others helped us much. It was a beautiful sight to see so many strong men filled with the Holy Spirit, of one accord in the work of the Lord.

Twenty-two members of the Woodstock church and Praying Band held a meeting at Bedell Settlement on Sunday evening, 18th inst. Brother S. Harley Clark led the meeting. It was an excellent meeting. Another appointment was made for the 25th.

A grand interest has been awakened at Grafton; five or six young men have professed conversion and several other young people have started on the christian journey, and the people have been much strengthened and encouraged. No special meetings have been held except a few cottage meetings. A union prayer meeting is held every Tuesday evening. The writer preaches there every other Sunday afternoon.

Pastor S. A. Baker will preach (D. V.) in the hall at Upper Woodstock, Sunday afternoon, 18th inst.

Rev. A. L. Bubar and wife are arousing a good missionary interest in their circuit.

Licentiate P. L. Cosman reports much kindness from the people on the Royalton circuit. The people are always interested in the pastor who is interested in his people.

Rev. S. Greenlaw has enjoyed several donation blessings. Good! We hope all our pastors will be blessed in like manner.

DEAR HIGHWAY.—I wish to express through your columns my heartfelt thanks to the kind people of Blaine, Maine, who met at the close of my pastorate Oct. 27, and after a social and very pleasant hour presented me with money and other necessary articles to the amount of thirty dollars. Yours truly, Z. M. MILLER.

PUBLIC MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Missionary Society of the Ref. Baptist church at North Head held their first public missionary meeting on Saturday evening, Nov. 3rd. A good congregation was present. The program committee had a good selection arranged, which was cheerfully carried out by the young people and others.

Meeting was called to order by Mrs. Bubar, the president, who was assisted by Mrs. Geo. Scott in carrying out the program. The program was as follows:—

Singing, by a choir of young people, "Happy Tidings."

Scripture reading and prayer.

Reading of minutes by the secretary.

Singing by the choir, "Rescue the Perishing."

Recitation, "Welcome," Alice Scovil.

Recitation, "Little Missionary," Carrie Tatton.

Recitation, "What will it Matter," Vera Murphy.

Singing, "Little Deeds," Miss Bertha Griffin's S. S. class.

Recitation, "What Johnny Gave," by Goldie Stanley.

Exercise, "Don't Read Them," Arnold Dalzell and Ralph Seott.

Recitation, "Little Light," by Laura Thomas.

Recitation, "The Dot Upon the I," by Irene Small.

Singing, "Happy Band," Miss Evelyn Scovil's S. S. class.

Recitation, "Little White Lie," Annie Forsythe.

Reading "A Brave Girl," Mabel Calder.

Recitation "A Starless Crown," Clara McLean.

A beautiful duet by Misses Florence Dalzell and Bertha Griffin.

Recitation "Nothing to do," by Lizzie Scovil.

Reading "Love in a Barrel, Reita Bubar.

Recitation "A Single Head of Wheat," Helen Griffin.

Chorus solo by Arnold Dalzell.

Recitation "Against a Thorne" Joy Thomas.

Recitation "Conceited Coin" by Helen Scott.

A little song by Nora and Myrtle Griffin called "It's not the house that makes the home."

Reading "The Master is Coming," Ina Tatton.

Exercise by Clifton Leaman and Harold McLearn. "The Missionary Lamb,"

Closed by singing "Stand for the Right."

A good offering was taken up for the missionary work.

We are glad to see that the interest in the missionary cause here is increasing. The sisters of the society are much encouraged. They have held weekly prayer-meetings on Wednesday afternoons regularly for the past two months and these meetings have been very helpful.

The Young Peoples' Mission Band hold their meetings every fortnight and they are quite active in contributing to the interest of the public meetings. Another public meeting will be held about Christmas time.

A. L. BUBAR.

P. S.—We believe there is a growing interest in the work of the church here. The brethren and sisters are very hopeful, but there is much to be done. A general revival all over the island is very much needed. Our own churches and people need a great awakening on the line of full salvation. We need it now. We pray God may soon send us an outpouring of His grace upon all our hearts.—

A. L. B.

MISSIONARY BOXES.

The following amounts have been received for the expenses of forwarding the boxes sent to our missionaries.

Woodstock church pre-paid freight from Woodstock to Durban, $14.00 W. L. Tracy for same, 1.35 Fort Fairfield church, 15.00 Mrs. H. Stoddard, 1.00 Mrs. S. A. Fowler, 2.00 W. L. Estabrook, 3.00 Mrs. F. L. Houghton, 1.00 Rev. H. H. Cosman, 1.00

The freight cost $2.25 per 100 lbs from Durban to our Mission Station, beside the duty and agents fees, so we will need considerable more money. We are forwarding the money as fast as it comes as the missionaries will need it as soon as the goods arrive. S. A. BAKER.
