POINTS ON PERSONAL WORK.

I have always found it true that one who never does personal work has sin in his life.

The last thing the devil will let you do is personal work. He will let you attend prayer meetings, give lectures on the Bible give your tenth, and do almost anything else sooner than do personal work.

You are not a sane, healthy Christian unless you are doing it.

The last thing you give to God is your tongue.

You must live straight when you do personal work. That is too hard on some people.

When you stop winning souls you dry up as a Christain.

Go right at it, and don't be everlastingly "getting ready."

If you spread your feelings all over the country, somebody is sure to step on them.

—C. M. Alexander.

MISSIONARY.

The Victoria Corner missionary society is doing good work, they are talking of holding a missionary meeting at Waterville in the near future.

The Hartland Mission Band are preparing an excellent program for their public meeting, to be, held Monday evening April 2nd.

As there are only three months for work before the Alliance meets, all our churches should be putting forth special efforts in raising missionary money.

A good man is kinder to his enemies than a bad man is to his friends.

We may observe in this the difference between Christ and the tempter. Christ hath his fan in His hand, and He fanneth us; the devil has a sieve in his hand and he sifteth us. Now, a fan casteth out the worst and keepeth in the best; a sieve keepeth in the worst; and casteth out the best. So Christ and His trials purgeth chaff and corruption out of us, and nourisheth His graces in us. Contrariwise, the devil, what evil soever is in us, he confirmeth it; what faith or good thing soever, he weakeneth it.—Trapp.

to a great extent, and the feeling toward holiness is better now than ever before, and and though we did not see as much results as we would like to see we believe the word spoken, the seed sown, will yet bring fruit to the glory of God, as the scripture saith "one soweth and another reapeth." The word preached was with power, and much pleading. We had good attendance, and especially on the Sabbath. The second Sunday the love feast was a wonderful time of blessing, the Lord was truly in our midst prase his precious name. Brother Berry the united baptist minister was with us a few times, and seemed to enjoy the services.

We have settled down again to our cottage prayer meeting, and though our numbers are few, we always have enough to claims the promise and some new ones are with us since the meetings closed. God has some precious sanctified souls here in NORTON, praise the Lord for victory in my own soul, these days I am feasting with my Lord.

Your in his services.

GREEN BUSH, March 26.

Dear Brother Baker,—We have fixed the date for the quarterly meeting to be held in Green Bush on the last day of May. That will give the folks a chance to attend and return in time to get ready for Alliance; trusting we will have a good meeting,

I am yours in the Lord.

PAULPIETERSBURG, Natal,
South Africa, Feb. 12th, 1906.

Dear Highway,—Yesterday was a marked day, at our mission. The morning service was most impressive, the company of believers and unbelievers listening to the Word with close attention, which is characteristic of the natives.

Just before the afternoon service, Dr. and Mrs. Sanders led the company who marched (while singing to the tune of Come to Jesus. Nang' in Jesu! nang in Jesu!
