WOODSTOCK, N. B., JULY 31, 1909.

Beulah Camp Meeting, 1910.

A new idea has just struck us for a grand opening meeting for greater Beulah for 1910. We don't know of course how it will work but it is this; Plan to make it the greatest holiness meeting ever held in this northern country. Invite a large number of Evangelists and representatives of the holiness movement. No one worker to be paid, but a general fund be raised to defray traveling expenses, and entertainment of the Evangelists and workers who are invited to take part in the meeting. The meeting to be run during the whole month of July, and have it so planned that a good strong company of workers will be present all the time, as some of the Evangelists might only be able to spend two or three days with us, others a week. Confine the subjects to be preached on to the two great essentials of salvation, justification and entire sanctification by faith. In this way a grand freedom can be enjoyed and a great work accomplished. In addition to the above we suggest that the ministers and their wives of all denominations within one hundred miles of Beulah be invited to attend the camp meeting. Think it over, brethren, and write us your suggestions. If we receive sufficient encouragement the committee on camp meeting workers will take the matter up with the Alliance Executive and consider arrangements for the greatest holiness meeting ever held in the Maritime Provinces.
 Editor.

The Highway.

If all the friends of THE HIGHWAY would take just a little interest in getting new subscribers the subscription list might be doubled this year. Will you try it?

Not Mending But Ending.

Sanctification is not the mending of the old Adamic nature, for that can never be improved; it is under a ban and a curse. It can never be made pure. Its existence must be ended, not mended. The "old man" must be crucified with the affections and lusts, and the new nature given in regeneration cultivated and developed. The life freed from the last remains of sin basks in the sunlight of God and grows rapidly in the grace and knowledge of Jesus.—Sel.

Ministers and Churches.

Rev. E. W. Lester has moved from New Tuskent, N. S., to Mercer Settlement, Kings Co. N. B., and began his pastoral work on that circuit.

The Alliance voted free entertainment for all our ministers and their wives who attend Riverside Camp Meeting, and assist in the services, and work of the committees in conducting the meetings.

Rev. M. S. Trafton preached at Fort Fairfield on the 25th inst.

Rev. P. J. Trafton is holding a tent meeting at Mactaquac. Brother F. L. Mooers is assisting him as a singer. Good attendance.

Brother M. S. Blaisdell and wife went to the Meductic circuit on the 16th and have taken up the pastoral work.

Brother H. S. Dow began his pastoral duties on the Hartland, Lower Brighton and Victoria Corner circuit on the 18th inst.

Brother S. H. Clark has taken charge of the work at Beulah Camp Ground until Sep. 1st. Services are held Sunday in the morning and evening, and Sunday School in the afternoon. And one or more week evenings services are held.

The work on the new church at Fredericton is progressing well. We hope that our people and friends will send liberal contributions toward the expenses of the erection of this church to Rev. G. B. Trafton, Marysville N. B.

Rev. W. E. Smith, Methodist, of Ludlowville, N. Y., will preach in the Reformed Baptist church at Hartland Sunday evening, Aug. 1st. All of his old friends will be glad to see him and hear him.

Brother H. S. Dow will preach at Gordonsville, Sunday evening, Aug. 1st.

Rev. H. C. Sanders and family returned from Beulah today (31st). They will go to Riverside to attend the Camp Meeting. They expect to return to Africa about March or April next.

Brother F. T. Wright has resigned as pastor of the church at Perth, he is going to take a course in school.

The brethren in the Perth church are to organize a Praying Band.

We call your attention to Rev. G. B. Trafton's appeal for contributions toward the erection of Fredericton church. Send him what you can now and keep repeating it as often as you can.

We trust that every church will plan for an extended series of special meetings. If your men are to be away in the winter, plan for your meetings to take place before they go. Make this the best year.

Special Appeal.

To the brethren and sisters in the churches and to the friends of Holiness. I have been permitted to make an appeal, through the columns of the HIGHWAY, in behalf of the New Reformed Baptist church, that is being erected in the city of Fredericton. The building will be a brick structure 52x32, with vestry 20x16, on King St. West. It will be a very pretty little church when completed and will cost about thirty five hundred dollars ($3500) and we want you to help us raise at least two thousand dollars. Now if each one will help us what they can, it will lighten our burden, and you will be blest in so doing. It is the Lord's work. It is the Lord's building and our motto is "Holiness unto the Lord."

All monies for this purpose sent to my address, will be acknowledged through the HIGHWAY.

Yours truly,
 G. B. TRAFTON,
 Marysville,
 York Co, N. B.

Are you going to Riverside Camp Meeting?

Personals.

Miss Jennie Cosman daughter of Rev. H. H. Cosman, who is a graduate nurse, has gone to Santa Cruz, Cal., in charge of a patient, and expects to remain for several months.

Capt. Joseph Eldridge of Sanford N. S. is at Beals Me. He is engaged in business with Capt. C. H. Beal, and is a good helper in the church work at that place.

P. Lawson Cosman, formerly of St John, New Brunswick, who has had charge of the Free Baptist Church at Crystal, Maine, was ordained by that denomination on Sunday, June 20.

The ordination service was conducted by Rev. F. C. Whitcomb, assisted by several clergymen from surrounding pastorates.

Immediately after the service the ordinance of baptism was administered to three candidates by Rev. P. L. Cosman, this being the first time he had been privileged to perform this rite.

Mr. Cosman is remaining in charge of the church at Crystal and is receiving the hearty co-operation of the members in his work. The Sunday offerings, which were partly for mission work and to assist in building a new church at Crystal, amounted to $452.00. During the past year about sixteen members have been added to the church at Crystal by baptism, while about twice the number have identified themselves with the work by joining the church.—Daily Standard.

Revs C. J. Fowler, B. Carradine W. W., C. W. Ruth, C. F. Weigle were the preachers at Lincoln Neb. July 16-26. The meeting was undenominational.

Sister A. H. Trafton spent two weeks after Beulah Camp Meeting visiting relatives and friends in Woodstock. Sister Trafton is, and should be a very excellent christian woman, if preachers count. Her husband, two sons, a brother and a half brother are all preachers. And if given a fair chance her aged mother and sister Trafton herself could do pretty good work on the same line. Another son and several grand sons are yet to be heard from.

Sister Wm, Tedlie has been seriously ill, but we are glad to learn she is convalescent. Sister Mutch, a sister of Mrs Tedlie of Lowell, Mass., is visiting her son, Brother Charles Mutch at Woodstock.

Brother J. C. Smith of Bridgewater says he will not be able to assist in the management of the Riverside Camp Meeting this season. They are enlarging the "Free Baptist Church at Bridgewater and he is superintending the work.

Brother J. H. Seeley and wife will be at Riverside with zeal undiminished, also Brother F. H. Noble, we expect will be able to be with us more than in former years, as he has sold his farm to his son.

A Request.

We wish all to pray that Riverside Camp Meeting may by one of great blessing and power.

Also we wish to remind the brethren in the ministry that although Bro. Borden is to be the chief worker, the success of the meeting will be largely due to the cooperation of the brethren in the work.

And as provision has been made by the Alliance for free entertainment of our ministers and their wives who attend and assist in the meetings, and also to assist them in meeting their travelling expenses. We therefore hope that all the brethren who can, will be there, and come to take hold and assist in any way, to contribute towards the success of the meetings.

Your brother in work,
 H. C. A.

MARRIED.

A pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Crosby, East Brenton, when their youngest daughter, Miss Ella Beatrice, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Burton James Crosby of Brazil Lake, Rev. A. H. Trafton officiated. As Lohengrin's march was rendered by Miss Amy Crosby sister of the bride, the bridal party took their places under a floral arch on the lawn.

The bride looked charming in a gown of white, with veil fastened with roses, and carried bride roses and maiden hair ferns. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Ada Doane, who was gowned in pale green and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Percy Hamilton. After the ceremony refreshments were served. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents, consisting of china, glass, silver, linen and $25 in cash. They will reside in Wakefield, Mass.

At the home of the groom, June 28th, 1909, Cove St., Port Maitland, N. S., by Rev. A. H. Trafton, Miss Lillian Tedford of Yarmouth, to Mr. Frederick Sollows of Maitland, in presence of near relatives. After the ceremony refreshments were served which were much enjoyed, and we all went on our way wishing them many blessings.

A pretty wedding took place in New Tuskent, Digby Co., N. S., June 30, at the home of Mr. Levi Mullen, father of the bride, when Miss Lizzie Balle, was united in marriage to Mr. P. LeRoy Wagner, of Riverdale, by Rev. E. W. Lester.

On the 26th inst at the Reformed Baptist parsonage, Beals Maine, by the Rev. H. H. Cosman, Roland H Doty to Miss Blanch M. Kirby, both of Jonesport, Me.

From Gray's Mills Church

On Sunday, June 28, Rev. Miles Trafton and Bro. Howe, of St. John, visited our church. Bro. Trafton preached at 11 a. m. After the services sisters Margaret Bradley and Esther Picket received the rite of baptism at Brother Hamlin's Bradley's Shore, Rev. Miles Trafton performing the service.

In the evening Rev. Miles Trafton preached a very powerful sermon from Ruth 1st chapter, part of 16th verse and part of 17th verse "Whether thou goest I will go and where thou lodgest I will lodge. Thy people shall be my people and thy God my God. Where thou diest I will die and there will I be buried." After the services the following candidates received the Right Hand of fellowship and were received into the church. Bro. and Sister W. W. Patterson, Esther Picket, Dora Bradley, Elsie Sterrett, Margaret Bradley, Clara Henderson. Our Heavenly Father is wonderfully blessing our church and Sunday school. The Tuesday night prayer meeting was well attended and of a very spiritual nature. There is a great interest taken in the Sabbath School by the parents as well as the children.

Costly Prayers.

"I want you to spend fifteen minutes every day praying for foreign missions," said the pastor to some young people in his congregation. "But beware how you pray, for I warn you it is a very costly experiment." "Costly?" they ask in surprise. "Aye costly," he cried. When Carey began to pray for the conversion of the world, it cost him himself, and it cost those who prayed with him very much. Brainerd prayed for the dark-skinned savages, and, after two years of blessed work, it cost him his life. Two students in Mr. Moody's summer school began to pray the Lord of the harvest to send forth more servants into his harvest; and lo! it is going to cost America five thousand young men and women, who have, in answer to this, prayer, pledged themselves to the work. Be sure it is a dangerous thing to pray in earnest for this work; you will find that you cannot pray and withhold your labor, or pray and withhold your money; nay, that your very life will no longer be your own when your prayers begin to be answered."

A General Advance

We have noted for years, that when those who look upon outward circumstances, and our opposers begin to cry defeat! and disaster! for us. The Lord gives us a new lift, and inspires new faith to undertake for him in advance of the past. So this year, while some circumstances look to be difficult on account of lack of men, and some of our brethren partially disabled, yet we are taking advance ground. In the spiritual side of our work, we have placed a general home missionary in the field, whose work will be to look after pastorless and weak churches, if there are any, and to do evangelistic work, and to assist pastors and bring the claims of the HIGHWAY before the people.

He has already entered energetically upon this work, and is holding a tent meeting at Mactaquac, with other tent meetings to follow. Then special evangelistic work has been planned in several churches. Evangelist L. Milton Williams will (DO) be at Woodstock and probably other churches in Nov. and the first part of Dec. Evangelist W. H. Breach, of Illinois will assist several of our pastors beginning in September, so we are looking forward for the richest year of blessing ever enjoyed by us as a people. Another advance movement to be set in motion is the erection of a large up-to-date summer hotel at Beulah Camp ground and the completion of the many improvements planned by Bro. J. F. Bullock which will prepare Beulah for the greatest meeting in 1910 ever known in New Brunswick; with the opening of the hotel and continuing of the services from July 1st to September 1st. Other new work is under consideration.

"Riverside Camp meeting," is the event of absorbing interest just now, preparations are being made for a grand meeting. Rev. M. E. Borders, of the Malden Pentecostal Nazarene church is to be the chief speaker, he is a good worker and the people will like him. Rev. H. C. Archer will have charge of the services, competent committees have charge of the other departments. Bro. J. F. Bullock will preside at the organ, and will be assisted by a large chorus of singers. The Camp Meeting veterans, Brother and Sister Joseph Bullock will be there, most all of the Reformed Baptist ministers will be present. Riverside being surrounded by five or six villages assures us of a good regular attendance during the week and from two to three thousand people are always in attendance on Sunday. We don't need to make any great efforts to get a crowd, we always have all the people that can be comfortably cared for. There has never been a failure in having a good meeting, neither financially, nor spiritually since we came in possession of Riverside, although we have met many difficult circumstances. "No weapon that has been formed against us has prospered." "And what soever we have done has prospered."

So that success at Riverside is an assured fact, so long as we are true to scriptural holiness. The writer anticipates the best meeting ever held at this grand rallying place. Let all the people rejoice, and praise God, and come.

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

A large company of the friends and neighbours of Brother and Sister George Tedlie of, Lower Brighton, surprised them on Thursday, 22nd inst and took possession of their home for several hours. They spent the time in conversation and singing, music being furnished by the Misses Hovey, Downey and Tedlie, the company joining heartily in "Bless be the tie that binds." After refreshments were served Mr. and Mrs. Tedlie were again surprised when Mrs. Melvin Hovey, on behalf of those present, presented them with a very pretty Divan as a reminder of their 25th wedding anniversary which occurred on July 1st, 1884. Rev. J. N. Noble, who happened to be present, offered prayer and after singing the hymn, "God be with you till we meet again," the company dispersed feeling that a very pleasant evening had been enjoyed.
