Rev. G. B. Trafton is still laid up with a sore eye, and has not been able to occupy his pulpit for a few weeks. Rev. M. S. Blaisdell and family are visiting relatives at Fort Fairfield. Rev. A. F. Rev. T. W. Moses is holding meetings at Head of Millstream. He reports good interest in the meetings. Some have taken a stand for the Mas-

OUR MISSIONARIES.

Before another issue of the Highway is published Dr. and Mrs. Sanders and family will be nearly a thousand miles on their journey to far off Africa. In our preparation our minds have been turned to the financial side of their journey and equipment, and no doubt some have asked honestly, does it pay to make so large an outlay of money? and no doubt some have concluded that it don't pay, but as a rule that class of people don't invest much in missionary enterprises at home or abroad. Those who have given toward the amount required believe it in her sewing. to be a good investment or they would not have given toward it, and they will surely be blessed according to the measure of their faith, and their gift was either according to their faith, or according to their estimate of their ability. And those who have witnheld their own money and discouraged others about giving have suffered a loss themselves, and robbed others of a blessing, and at the great day when the reckoning is made of the results of the enterprise, it will surely be said to such, "You have neither part nor lot in this matter." It is better to make a mistake in trying to advance the kingdom of God than by holding back the work. It has cost what seems to us to be, a large amount of money, but it has been cheerfully given, and we sincerely trust that we will not be sorry for the investment, but that God will bless the work abundantly in the foreign field. But our part of the work don't end here, the foreign and home Missionary work must be systematically carried on, and every member should be a regular contributor to the funds and in prayer always being mindful that it is God's great work we are endeavoring to carry on, and God will surely bless those who try to do something for him.

to spend Christmas at Moncton.

The church at Gray's Mills reports that although they are without a pastor the regular Tuesday evening prayer meeting and paryer meetings on Sunday as well as the Sunday school are being sustained. They also have a cottage prayer meeting on Friday evenings held at the home of Sister Maud Reed, Long Reach.

A number of pastor Clark's church and congregation from Port Maitland, drove down in teams and spent the evening of Tuesday, 5th inst., at the parsonage. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed. The company leaving about 10 o.clock, not forgetting to remember their pastor in a substantial manner.

LADIES BEULAH FUND.

Total to date $502.00 We wish to thank all the sisters who have assisted us in this work, and also wish to tell you that we desire to raise $248.00 at least for this fund before next Alliance. Now at Christmas when making out your list of friends to whom you expect to give presents, don't forget "Beulah Camp Ground." We wish that some of our friends who are able would give us a Christmas Gift, sufficient to make this "Fund" $1000.—and also fill up the squares in the diagram. There are enough who have means to do so if they would. Why not help in this good work.—(Ed) Send all contributions to us and as fast as they are received they will be acknowledged in "The Highway."
