

sel that relieved a vessel belonging to this port when in a distressed state at sea. Such feelings of reciprocity between two nations, (once enemies), must become doubly grateful to the generous mind. We sprang from the same common stock, speak the same language, and are alike the ennobled of liberal and good Government. May the tongue be paralyzed that would speak a wretched word between us.

During the fire of the Salute we regret to state, that two of the Artillery men employed at the guns, owing to the man stationed at the vent, neglecting to stop it in time, the gun went off while they were ramming home the cartridge, and blew off the arms of both the men employed at the ram rod. They were taken to the Hospital, and hopes are entertained of their eventual recovery.—St. John Herald.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

We have received a communication signed H. B. & C. D. which is too late for insertion. It will appear in our next.

MARRIED.

At Gagetown in March last, by the Rev. Mr. Clarke, Mr. JAMES HOLDING of Oranmore, to Miss ESTHER CHASE.

At Esport, on Monday evening last, Mr. John Ansley, of St. John, to Lucy A. S. youngest daughter of Aaron Hayden, Esq. of the former place.

At Calcutta on the 19th Nov. at the Old Church, by the venerable Archdeacon Dealey the Rev. G. Pickance, to Mary, second daughter of the late Archibald, Duff Esq. and sister to W. H. Duff, Esq. Attorney at Law.

DIED.

On Wednesday, so'night after a long and painful illness, which she bore with pious resignation by the will of her heavenly father, AMELIA, third daughter of the late James Muir Esq. of Ayr, Scotland, in the 18th year of her age.

Departed this life at Presque Isle on the 10th ult. William Nehemiah Hooper in the Sixty-sixth year of his age, Mr. Hooper formerly resided in Freeport Maine, but on leaving that place he removed to this Province and from thence to Aroostook River where he spent the last ten years of his life. Though his sufferings were severe for upwards of a year previous to his death, yet he was not heard to murmur or complain of the afflicting hand of Providence, during his illness he was led to pray earnestly for an evidence of his acceptance with God; nor did he plead in vain, the Lord was pleased to restore to him the joys of his salvation, which enabled him to say the "will of the Lord be done." He died leaving his surviving friends an evidence, that he had a home among the blest. The deceased has left a lonely widow and five children to mourn their loss. May the Lord sanctify this afflicting dispensation to the spiritual good of this bereaved family.

At Cornwallis, on the 26th ult. William Campbell Esq. in the 81st year of his age—an old respectable inhabitant of King's County.

At Shelburne, aged 74 years—the last of the family of the late Colonel Skinner, of that place.

At the Cove, (Yarmouth), on the 5th inst. Mr. Edward Crosby, senior, aged 96 years—a worthy and pious man.

THE FREDERICTON SENTINEL.

THE Subscriber is desirous of calling the attention of the Public, throughout the Province of New Brunswick, to THE SENTINEL, Newspaper, which is published weekly at Fredericton; and contains the monthly decisions of the Executive, with reference to Licences and applications for Land; the Militia Appointments, and the Debates in the House of Assembly. In addition to which, those that take place in the Legislative Council, will in future be published.

As the Steam Packets after the present month, will run regularly between England and Halifax, once every fortnight, by which means a regular and frequent supply of English papers may be received; it is intended to make copious selections from the London papers which will in this way be obtained.—In fact, it is proposed to make THE SENTINEL a transcript of the English Periodicals,—so far as a due attention to local affairs and occurrences in this part of the world will admit.

In conducting THE SENTINEL, the Subscriber is being actuated by no party motive or consideration: and is desirous of promoting the advancement of the country upon a permanent and secure basis; but he will always lean to the liberal side of politics, and will feel it his duty as a Public Journalist, to be the independent advocate of popular rights, and will aid in promoting those wholesome reforms, which circumstances may require.

The very general, and—for the time during which the Paper has been in existence,—the extensive circulation of THE SENTINEL, demands his warmest acknowledgements. But to enable him to follow out the plan of usefulness that he proposes, it is desirable that that circulation be increased, as the advertising patronage in Fredericton is necessarily very limited. These individuals therefore, who were friendly to the first instance; and others who are desirous of encouraging its continuance, are requested to use their endeavours to increase the number of subscribers; and the Public at large are invited to afford it their encouragement and support.

EDMUND WARD.

Editor of the Sentinel.
