Grampus have been employed during the last season on the coast of Africa, for the purpose of cloves, Mustard, Ginger, Starch, Salt-purpose of preventing such portions of that trade as was said to be prosecuted under the American flag. After cruising off those parts of the coast most usually resorted to by slavers, until the commencement of the rainy season, these vessels returned to the United States for supplies, and have since been despatched on a similar service. From the reports of the commanding officers, it appears that the trade is principally carried on under Portuguese colors; and they express the opinion that the apprehension of their presence on the slave coast has, in a great degree, arrested the prostitution of the American flag to this inhuman purpose.
