During the past summer, a number of im-migrants have arrived at the Port of St. John; and altho' labourers were much wanted in the country, and the means of advantageous settlement is every where to be found in the Province: yet owing to ignorance of the manner in which they should proceed, and of the guarter where they would most proof the quarter where they would most pro-bably obtain employment, they either remained at St. John till they were reduced to ab-solute want, or embarked for the United States; and thus a valuable class of settlers was lost to the country.

induce immigrants, immediately upon their arrival, to proceed without loss of time to the rural districts, where they can procure land and employment; the Lieut. Governor has authorised the establishment of an Immigrant Agency at Fredericton, where ready access can be had to the Crown Land and other Public Offices, and ample information as to the most eligible sites for location can be ob-tained. In this way not only will facilities be afforded for settlement to the industrioua imafforded' for settlement to the industrioua im-migrant, but persons having land to dispese of or lease, can by means of this channel of communication, bring it immediately into afforded⁷ for settlement to the industrioua imnotice.
