

Governor of this Province, and inserted in the St. John Weekly Chronicle of the 23rd of February last.

Much of the time of the Court and Jury has been occupied by a discussion, as to the receipt of evidence which was tendered on the trial, and in the consideration of points of law. The result has been, that on the first day, no farther advance was made than to close the prosecution, and open the defence, which was done by Mr. HAZEN in a neat speech to the Jury. Yesterday after the Court had assembled and one witness was examined, Mr. J. A. STREET for the defendant tendered in evidence, the Despatch of Lord John Russell, and the Circular Memorandum of the Lieut Governor with reference to that Despatch; but which after about three hours' discussion were rejected by the Court. Mr. STREET then went to the Jury, and addressed them in a speech that occupied nearly three hours more; when the Court adjourned, it being nearly night.

This morning the Solicitor General we believe, will close the case on the part of the Crown; after which of course the Judge will deliver his charge; and the Jury will probably quit the box about two o'clock.

We have had but one opinion of the publication in question, and which we stated at the time it made its appearance. But whatever there will be an end to those malevolent and personal attacks, that have hitherto disgraced some of the Public Journals of the country. No person appreciates the liberty of the Press more highly than ourselves, and few in this quarter of the globe have suffered more severely in maintaining its independence; but there is a wide distinction between its liberty and licentiousness;—the one is a blessing—the other a curse.

At present the government of these Provinces, are being conducted on liberal and enlightened principles; and the wishes of the many are to be regarded by Her Majesty's Representatives, rather than the designs of the few. The bulk of the people as was to have been expected, are delighted with a change which restores all parties to the possession of equal rights and privileges; and opens up the path of advancement and usefulness, to men of industry and intelligence, of whatever rank or denomination. To contend against such a state of things therefore, is perfectly futile; and to maintain any longer a system of antipathy, is not becoming either a loyal subject or well-wisher of his country.

SPREAD THE PLOUGH.
We are constantly endeavoring to impress upon our readers the advantages that attend agricultural pursuits; and therefore feel much pleasure in witnessing the successful results of such pursuits; one of which is exhibited in an advertisement in this number of about a ton of cheese, the produce of a single dairy on the River St. John, and which in quality is not inferior to much of that which is imported.

Among the passengers in the Caledonia steamer, which left Halifax for Liverpool on the 19th inst. was the Hon. S. CUNARD, the enterprising Proprietor of that splendid vessel. We were under the impression that he returned to England immediately after his arrival in Boston, and were not undeceived, until we noticed his arrival at Prince Edward Island, in a paper that recently fell into our hands; and in all probability before this paragraph shall have been perused by our readers, he will have reached Great Britain, having completed the mighty enterprise that has connected as it were the two hemispheres, and sensibly diminished time and space.

The second October mail must have arrived at Halifax by Saturday last; consequently it may be expected here on Monday or Tuesday. The intelligence will probably be of importance.

Montreal, Oct. 20.
However much we may have differed in opinion from our contemporary of the Nova Scotian, on points of Colonial government, and however much we may have had occasion to disapprove of some parts of his public conduct, as well as that of his party towards Sir Colin Campbell, the late Lieut. Governor of Nova Scotia, it is with sincere pleasure, we have perused an article in a late number of his Newspaper, vindicating those who had been opposed to the Administration of Sir Colin, from any personal or vindictive feelings towards his Excellency. The tone of feeling and strain of expression in which these sentiments are avowed, are truly honorable to the head and heart of our contemporary. It is on principles like these that political opposition, of whatever nature, and however irksome, ought always to be carried on. The moment public opinion is permitted to degenerate into private or personal resentment, there is an end at once of the charities of social life, and the happiness derived from friendly and domestic intercourse. Never let the bitter contentions and keen discussions of the forum be transferred to our firesides; and never let public strife be permitted to terminate in private enmity. Bearing this in mind, let us do full justice to the mainly sentiments avowed by our contemporary of the Nova Scotian on the departure of Sir Colin Campbell, as expressive of his own feelings, as well as that of the opposition party, with whom he acted.

MARRIED.
On the 23rd inst. by the Rev. Dr. Birkmyre, Mr. Thomas Temple, to Miss Susannah Howe, both of the Parish of Southampton.
On the 29th inst. by the same, Mr. Alexander Anderson, to Mrs. Maria Saunders, widow, both of the Parish of Fredericton.

DIED.
At Fredericton, on the 28th inst. George P. Segee, in the 37th year of his age. His kind and obliging disposition endeared him to a numerous circle of relatives and friends, by whom his sudden death will be sincerely regretted.

THE SUBSCRIBER
WISHES to inform the Public that he has just fitted up a number of CARRIAGES
DOUBLE and SINGLE in complete order, and which will be ready at the shortest notice, for persons in pursuit of either business or pleasure.
He further wishes to intimate, that in future he will not keep any accounts with persons hiring his HORSES or CARRIAGES, except such persons as are among his particular customers and noted for good pay when called on. As it is a fact well known that HORSES cannot be supported without the expenditure of money, Mr. S. will therefore expect cash down from those who may hire his, from this time forward. He hopes that his friends will not think hard of him for this arrangement, as he cannot pursue any other course with safety; and it is one which is adopted in every other place.
