Forty-four Days Later from London.

This arrival brings no intelligence of a change a 1840, although strentiously resisted, was agreed to in the House of Commons by a vote of 182 to the whole Metropolis.

Accounts of the recent hostilities in China had reached England. The Hampshire Tele-graph states that a great naval armament is to stroy it, and then proceed northward to Pekin, presided at the wedding-breakfast. and compel the Emperor to submission.

In the House of Commons, February 14, Sir Robert Peel questioned Lord John Russell as to the authenticity of Sir John Harvey's (ancient) memorandum, which made such a stir in our papers not long ago. Lord John said he had dary question. Lord John said he had no information to communicate.

The "privilege" affair of Stockdale and Hanward, (printers to the House,) has taken quite a ted to prison for not levying on Hansard's print-

-Frost, Williams and Jones. There was a difference of opinion among the Judges on a technical objection raised by the prisoner's counsel. do not contain the opening speech.

On a direct vote of want of confidence in ministers, moved by Sir John Buller, the vote was, noes 303; ayes 281. Ministerial majori-

Rost, 33 to 305. Col. Sibthorps moved £30,000 -carried, 262 to 153.

the Governor to break the ice to enable the and patriotic feeling. steamer to leave the port .- Semaphore.

reply to Mr. Packington, said he expected a British Colonies; and should the present Bill veriegn, and therefore in accordance with the draft of a Bill for the union of the two Canadas, from the Governor General of Canada in the course of this month, as it was to leave New York on the 1st of February. As soon as the government had considered the Bill, he should form the government had considered the Bill, he should the present Bill on the green that I have not wholly failed account of the large grants of land, that have been made, or are held by persons residing here or who have quitted the Prosons residing her sons residing here or who have quitted the Frovince. And when the enormity of the evil stated that he had given orders that returns in shall have been thus made manifest; we think describe enough, and as it is his intention to bring confidence and satisfaction. To say that I am his present business to a close, the whole will be tions in Canada, should be laid on the table. - in the continuance of such an abuse possess, to probation and good will, is to use language Sir G. Arthur had resigned his office of gover- medy of the grievance. nor of Upper Canada.

HER MAJESTY'S MARRIAGE. Gotha.

by the Great Officers of the Household, re- tion. ceived the Prince and his illustrious relatives. The Lord Chancellor came to the Palace at five o'clock; and a Court having been formed, the Prince took the oaths of allegi-High Court of Chancery. A Supplemement report of the debate in our next week's supple- a certain extent, such a disgraceful result: although a certain extent a certain ex to the Gazette had announced, that his Roy- ment. al Highness was appointed a Field-Marshal Metropolis disregarded the pelting showers. As early as six o'clock, the Mall and avenues to the Palace were througed, and numerous

By the arrival of the Great Western at New York—after a passage of sixteen days from Bristol,—London and Liverpool papers to the 19th ult. Havre to the 17th, and Bristol to the 20th, all inclusive have been received at the office of the control of the due to the 19th ult. Havre to the 17th, and Bristol to the 20th, all inclusive have been received at the office of the control of the town, and that part of Carleton street, which separates the barracks, for two vacant lots held by the Ordnance Department, was taken up in committee of the whole House. The lots have a mortal aversion to conciliation and kindness.

Yesterday the Bill for exchanging the front of the town, and that part of Carleton street, which separates the barracks, for two vacant lots held by the Ordnance Department, was taken up in committee of the whole House. The fitted up so as to afford room for between

The procession having returned to the state-room of St. James's Palace, the attesta-

THE SENTINEL.

SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1840.

not received officially a copy of it. Sir Robert By the arrival of the Great Western at New dier, and the interest of government to make asked whether any thing had occurred rendering necessary a communication from the government to make York, we are put in possession of London the exchange. The lots occupied for barracks and purposes connected with them, and extending necessary a communication from the government to make York, we are put in possession of London the exchange. The lots occupied for barracks and purposes connected with them, and extending necessary a communication from the government to make York, we are put in possession of London the exchange. The lots occupied for barracks and purposes connected with them, and extending necessary a communication from the government to make York, we are put in possession of London the exchange. ment to the House, on the subject of the boun- the account previously received of the de- ing from this Office to Jackson's Hotel, would struction of several Chinese war junks, at- sell for twenty or twenty-five thousand pounds! tended with considerable loss of life; and men- and with the water privilege which would then tion further successes in the East, where a forserious aspect. The sheriffs have been commitried, by about 1100 troops under General lic spirit might accomplish the object. ing office, and Mr. Howend, Stockdale's attor- Willshire. We have made selections from ney, has been committed to Newgate by order our papers as far as our limits would permit; and among the extracts, feel assured with a Communitiee from the Assembly, waited quested to attend. The Chartist prisoners of Newport have had the most gratifying will be, the account of upon the Lieut. Governor with the Joint Resolutheir sentences commuted from death to trans- Her Majes.y's union with the object of her tions of both Houses; to which His Excellency portation. Only three of them were convicted choice; a more detailed account of which was pleased to make the following dignified and

Parliament was in session, but our papers

LEGISLATIVE PROCEEDINGS. The House of Assembly on Wednesday again The allowance voted by Parliament to Prince for taxing granted wild land, which is suffered of the most excellent men and ablest Statesmen Albert is £30,000 per annual. Ministers proposed £50,000. Mr. Hume moved £20,000— to lie dormant, to the great injury of the industrious settler, and retarding the advancement of its advantages as respects the interests of His to lie dormant, to the great injury of the industrious settler, and retarding the advancement of its advantages as respects the interests of His advantages as respects the interests of His Board of Directors of this Bank, Messrs. C. M'PHERSON and GEORGE A. MUNRO have liberal terms and payments made easy.

The principles for it His Maiestv's most willing and gracious been this day appointed by the Board as Directors. of the Bill were almost unanimously admitted on a former day; and we reported in Wednes-CONSTANTINOPLE, Jany. 27 .- The great day's Supplement, the debate which then took mews of the day is a treaty of quadruple alliance between Russia, England, Austria, and Prussia, remained to be settled: the general principles Province, appeared to be calculated to disarm who have come to an understanding to guarantee the integrity of the Ottoman empire. The Porte has received official advice of the conclusion of this alliance. The news brought to M. de Boutenieff by the steamer from Odessa must have been of great importance, inasmuch as the have been of great importance, inasmuch as the we have no fear of the ultimate fate of a Bill, have devoted myself zealously, and I will add on WEDNESDAY evening next the 18th instant, garrison of the last-named city was called out by which is called for alike by a sense of justice laboriously, to the duties of my station, and at seven o'clock.

page, that a Commission has been appointed in my anxious desire to adminster its Government Lord J. Russell, on the 11th of February, in ing land, is to be introduced throughout the formity with the commands of my Gracious Soeference to the number of religious denomina- it will require more nerve than those interested deeply sensible of these repeated marks of ap- Sold off without Reserve. The noble lord added that he was not aware that offer any open and effectual opposition to a re-

Having already reported the general debate, we shall not again publish it. The following observations however, which were made by Mr Monday was dedicated to the important ce- Connell we have introduced here, having heard remony which united the Queen of these him indistinctly on the former day. He stated tial advisers, assailed through the print in quesrealms to Prince Albert of Saxe Coburg and that the Bill then before the Committee was tion, by calumnies so bitter, so malignant, so one of which he highly approved, and which personally abusive, so atrociously and scanda-Prince Albert arrived at Buckingham Pa- went to impose a tax on all wild and unimprov. lously false, as to excite my utmost indignation Prince Albert arrived at Buckingham Palace about half-past-four on Saturday after-noon, in one of the Queen's carriages, escorted by a party of Light Dragoons. He was accompanied by his father the Duke of Saxe Coburg, his brother Prince Ernest, Viscount Torrington, Colonel Grey, Mr. Seymour, Count Kolowrath, Baron Alvensleben, and three other German gentleman. sleben, and three other German gentleman.

As the Prince and his party rode under the

As the Prince and his party rode under the Committee, upon every hundred acres, he would manly a character I must continue incredulous, until such proof shall have been produced as marble arch of Buckingham Palace, they like to see the tax ten shillings at least, for it until such proof shall have been produced as were loudly cheered by a considerable num- would be a just and honest bill; such a bill as may satisfy the minds of a Jury of the Country. ber of spectators. The Queen, accompathis House ought to pass; and he was convincnied by the Duchess of Kent, and attended ed it would, although it met with some opposi-

On Thursday the House went into consideraand was warmly contested during the day; and lic Journalists fails in the present instance; who crouded to the Western parts of the expression upon the subject; but think with the their behalf. restrictions the Bill contains it will give satisfaction. cortege. The Duchess of Sutherland, Lord we hope this distinction will have the effect of need fear the result. Albemarle, and others members of the inducing gentlemen thus situated, to resign an

Officers of State, and members of the House- we look upon the measure, as calculated to pro- the border discoulties and recommending that con-pas and altar presented a splended appear- Bill was supported by Messrs. Wilmot, Fisher This arrival brings no intelligence of a change of ministers in England, which has been so confidently predicted: but the opposition have comfidently predicted: but the opposition have comfidently predicted at a second public meeting as and End; and opposed by Messrs. Allan, Taymenced the war most vigorously, and it may be menced. It was precisely that of the Church been submitted at a second public meeting, as rection of the following sentence—"This Sir, fessional Services or otherwise, are requested to questioned whether I ord Melbourne and his colleague will be able to sustain themselves.

The first great attack was made on the 15th Cartesian and the single names of "Albert" and because there was a petition numerously signed against it, and as it would interfere with the Prince answered firmly, "I will."

The first great attack was made on the 15th the Prince answered firmly, "I will."

The first great attack was made on the 15th the Prince answered firmly, "I will."

The first great attack was made on the 15th the Prince answered firmly, "I will."

The first great attack was made on the 15th the Prince answered firmly, "I will."

The first great attack was made on the 15th the Prince answered firmly, "I will."

The first great attack was made on the 15th the Prince answered firmly, "I will."

The first great attack was made on the 15th the Prince answered firmly, "I will."

The first great attack was made on the 15th the Prince answered firmly, "I will." signed against it, and as it would interfere with try is quite as well without them." of February, when a call for the estimate of the At the moment when the ring was placed the privilege at present possessed by people on probable income of the consolidated fund for on the Queen's finger a signal was made, the river. It was finally agreed to postpone the considertion of it till the next session of the As-

We were much pleased with an observation made by Mr. Partelow, who stated that he considered a barracks in the heart of the town as a graph states that a great naval armament is to be sent immediately from Portsmouth, to take on board 16,000 native troops in India, to lay the city of Canton under contribution, or destroy it and then proceed northward to Pekin presided at the wearding processed northward to Pekin presided at the wearding processed northward to Pekin presided at the wearding processed at the armonic tion of the marriage was signed by all presided a barracks in the heart of the town as a great cause of complaint: and who expressed his willingness to aid the inhabitants of this the last summer a supply of new type for the purpose.—And farther, that the rate of charge will be assimulated to that at St. John, and we strongly and then proceed northward to Pekin presided a president to make immediate payment to purpose.—And farther, that the rate of charge will be assimulated to that at St. John, and we the contribution, or destinating their claims forthwith for adjustment, and all presided ample assistance, and procured during the last summer a supply of new type for the last summer a supply of new type for the last summer as the removal of them out of the town. Notwithstanding all that has been said, we befreve it York. could be done; and the reason it was not accomplished when formerly attempted, was we have good authority for saying, because Sir Howard Douglas opposed it.

be possessed by the town, and a street running along near the river would increase the value to double that sum. A little enterprise and pub-explanatory reply:

On Wednesday last the Legislative Council,

Gentlemen.—I came among you charged by our Gracious Sovereign to announce to the inhabitants of this loyal Province, the Royal decision upon a proposition which had been laid by them at His Majesty's feet, and with respect went into committee, on Mr. Fisher's Bill to which, to use the emphatic language of one

The circumstances therefore under which I have used my best endeavours to convince the It will be seen from an article on the last Legislature and the People of this Province of which very inadequately conveys the intensity of the feelings under which I now address you

With reference to the immediate cause of your present Address I would observe, that from an early period after my arrival in this Province, I found myself, my measures, and my confiden-

Government House, March 11, 1840. It will be seen from the conclusion of His Excellency's reply, that a prosecution will be comnenced against the printer and publisher of the libel alluded to. By some persons it is thought tion of a Bill in committee, for the payment of that the tendency of such a course, may adthe members of the Legislative Council, Mr. vance the pecuniary interests of those who thus ance and supremacy, and which the Lord Chancellor directed to be encolled in the lord to the most important measures intro-Chancellor directed to be enrolled in the duced during the session. We shall publish the add bad feeling in this country, to produce to we have strong doubts upon the subject. Be The Bill was introduced by Mr. Partelow, sides, the principle that usually applies to Pub-The morning of Monday opened inauspi- as we have already intimated the division was they having almost invariably been brought to ciously as respects the weather. It rained equal. We are not prepared to state what is the justice, for attacks upon the government, by heavily; but the multitudes of pedestrians general feeling, having never heard any such which the popular feeling has been excited in

In the present instance however, the whole enor of the character of the print in question, It seems that a Bill for a similar purpose was and the objects of the various attacks it has from stands and benches were erected, in defiance of the Police, in the Green Park. About eight o'clock, a large body of Police arrived, and were stationed along the line from Buckingham Palace to the interior of St. James' ingham Palace to the interior of St. James' But the measure alluded to is divested of any ob- or distant parts of it, we fear still maintain an Chapel. A clear space down the centre of jection that would arise in that way, as those injurious and tyrannical ascendancy. If the the Mall was preserved by a body of Life members are not to receive pay who hold any Guards and Dragoous, for the passage of the salary or office of the yearly value of £200; and no friend of good order or freedom of discussion

Albemande, and others members of the Household, arrived about eleven o'clock. The court-yard was soon filled with Royal and other carriages; and the weather having cleared up, the scene was very brilliant. It was hadf-past eleven when Prince Albert descended the grand staircase of Buckingham. Palace to enter his carriage. On both sides of the staircase and the hall were ranged lacked to the staircase and the hall were ranged lacked the staircase and the hall were ranged lacked the staircase and the hall were ranged. On both sides of the staircase and the hall were ranged lacked the staircase and the hall were ranged the old.

The interior of the Chapel Royal had been duce a beneficial result; and think it will be so ciliatory tone of conduct near the lines, which is most desirable, even in the event of hostilities. These tories have a mortal aversion to concilia-

To Correspondents.

In reply to a Friend of Emigrants, we would BLEE, Attornies and Barristers at Law, will

As we find some misapprehension and misrepresentation prevails, we wish to state that we are at all times prepared to execute any Printing which may be sent to this office without gainst the Estate of HANNAH CRUMWELL, Printing which may be sent to this office, -either Printing which may be sent to this office,—either late of Burton, deceased, are required to hand in Book Work or mere Job Printing; having obtained their claims forthwith for adjustment, and all

ROYAL MARRIAGE

At St. James' Palace, on Monday the 10th of February, by His Grace the Archbishop of By the arrival of the Great Western at New dier, and the interest of government to make BERT of Saxe Coburg and Gotha, Field Marshall of the United Kingdom, to Her Majesty Victoria, Queen of the British realms. God bless the pair!

At Fredericton on Thursday the 12th instant, after a long and afflicting illness, Louisa, only daughter of David Curnier, aged 6 years 11 months and 19 days. Funeral this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, where friends and relations, are re-

Yesterday after a lingering illness Mrs. Williams, relict of the late B. S. Williams, aged 71 at McGundy Stream, with years. Possessing a good hope through grace,

CENTRAL BANK OF NEW BEUNSWICH. VER SMITH, having withdrawn from the Board of Directors of this Bank, Messrs. C. Leased in small parts, or the whole, on the most been this day appointed by the Board as Directors

SAML. W. BABBIT Cashier.

in their stead.

Chairman of Committee of Management. Fredericton Branch, March 11, 1840.

GREAT SASGAINS! consisting of

Dry Goods, GROCERIES, PROVISIONS, SADDLERY & his present business to a close, the whole will be Fredericton, Dec. 26, 1839

J. WILLOX. Fredericton, March 14, 1840.

TO LET. ART of the House in Regent Street, adjoining Mr. Andrew Blair ing Mr. Andrew Blair

WILLIAM SEWELL, Jr. P. S .- The above House is For Sale. Fredericton, March 13, 1840.

FOR SALE.

MORSES,

with double Harness to Sit. The above are the property of a gentleman who intends to return shortly to Europe, and will be rather than risk their sacrifice at Public Auction. Sold either by private contract or public auction.

The attention of the public is respectfully introduced by vited to his Stock which can be examined at any Officers' Barracks at Fredericton, from 10 to 12 time. o'clock daily. For further particulars apply to Fredericton, March 13, 1840.

GEO. J. DIBBLEE,

Surviving Partner.

FOR SALD OR LUASE. For One or a Term of Years. The whole or a part of the following Property.

THE Valuable SAW and GRIST MILL at Lake George, with a DWELLING HOUSE Lake George, with a DWELLING HOUSE BARN, &c. together with the LAND formerly owned by J. Morris, containing 550 acres, of AST evening the CAPE of a Cloak, trimmed ed with Siberian fur. Whoever may have found the same, and will leave it at Mr. Wil-

MOTEON. A LL PERSONS having demands against the late Firm of Messrs. BERTON & DIB-

ROTICE.

iam Barker's, will be suitably rewarded.

which about 25 acres are under mowing ground, well fenced, and the residue well covered with TIMBER and LOGS. Also. The Irvine and Donnelly lot, so called, of which 40 acres are cleared, and can readily be made a Good FARM, the residue of these lots containing 400 acres are plentifully covered with TIMBER and LOGSthere is a lease also of 8000 acres of LANDon the borders of Lake George, all of which afford ample supply of Logs for this Mill.

Also for Sale or Lease, the new SAW MILL

300 acres LAND called the West Lot. years. Possessing a good hope through grace, she left the world without regret, and doubtless is now where the many are at rest! Funeral to-morrow from her late residence opposite the Metho'list Chapel at 1 o'clock.

Metho'list Chapel at 1 o'clock. about 40 acres under Grass, well fenced, with a good DWELLING HOUSE and BARN, in ESSRS. THOMAS PICKARD and OLI- dated with a comfortable residence—the whole

Apply to MARK NEEDHAM.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

MARK NEEDHAM.

ALSO ON SALE. THE MARSH FARM, about 9 miles from Fredericton on the post road to Woodstock, containing 540 acres, about 90 of which are under Grass cultivation, with a good Two Story Dwelling HOUSE, BARN and several Out Houses. day the 23d March, at the Store of the The property is valuable and so well known, it Subscriber, the whole of his present STOCK, needs not a particular description, the price and terms liberal, and as the owner intends to sell it a good bargain may be expected.

Apply to MARK NEEDHAM

THE STEAS BEATER WAY AVING obtained License to sell at Public Vendue, offers his services to the public as an Auction and Commission Merchant; any And possession given the 1st day of May next. Goods left with him for sale will receive prompt POTICE.

PHE Subscriber wishing to close his present business and seeing no better method of converting his Stock into Cash to liquidate his debts, will offer the whole at public sale in lots to suit as they may require, or such articles as they may accustomed to go in single or double Harness, at the present time wish. Any person wishing with double Harness to fit.

THOMAS HATHEWAY. JAMES HOGG. 11 o'clock, and be continued on the Saturday of each week until the whole is sold.

JUST RECEIVED VICTORIA HOUSE.

A NEW AND FASHIONABLE ASSORTMENT OF WINTER DRY GOODS.

Now is the time to buy Goods cheap.

HE Subscriber in returning his sincere thanks to the Ladies and Gentlemen of Fredericton and the surrounding country for the very liberal patronage he has received since he commenced business, and wishes most respectfully to call their attention to one of the largest and most fashionable Stocks of WINTER DRY GOODS, ever before offered for sale in Fredericton. Among which are the following :-

60 pieces Blue, Black. Brown, Olive, Adelaide and Invisible Green Broad CLOTHS, do. Buckskins, Doeskins, Pickwick and Cassimeres. 25 do. Beaver and Pilot CLOTHS.

30 do. Mouselle, Valentia and Rich embrodered SATIN VESTINGS.
120 pairs superior Rose and Whitney BLANKETS.
100 pieces Red, White, Green and Yellow FLANNELS.

55 do. Saxony, Indiana and Orleans CLOTH.

260 Challi, Mousline de Laine, Mantua Cambric and Rosslyn Plaid DRESSES.

30 pieces fine Worsted and Woolen Plaid for CLOAKING.
9 do. Plain and Figured and Habit Cloth. Plain and Figured GRO DE NAPS and DUCAPE. Black and coloured Silk VELVETS, Figured Poplins.
Rob Roy SHAWLS and HANDKERCHIEFS in great varieties.

Rich filled Centre Lama and Crape SHAWLS.

Plain and rich embroidered Genoa Velvet SHAWLS and CAPES in great variety.

Indiana, Chineal, Lama, Thibit, Wool, Rockspun, Linen and Cambrick HANDKERCHIEFS.

Ladies Zephyr, Crape, Silk and Gauze HANDKERCHIEFS.

Gentlemen's Black and Coloured Silk HANDKERCHIEFS and Fancy STOCKS.

TABLE CLOTHS, Linen Diaper, Irish Linen and Linen LAWNS.

Jaconet, Checker, Book, Swiss and Mull MUSLIN and BOBSINETS.

350 pieces PRINTED CALICO.

do Grey and White COTTONS. 60 do Plain and Twilled REGATTAS. A large assortment of HOSIERY and GLOVES, with a variery of other articles too nu-

We observe the attention of the House of markets for Cash, will enable him to sell 10 per cent below his usual low prices. JAMES DOHERTY.