

The Bible Society Report Is Full Of Information

Spread of Organizations' Activities in Canada Is Outlined.

"The Bible in the mother tongue is the rightful heritage of all men." Around this principle the current Popular Report of the British and Foreign Bible Society centres. Seldom has any report of any society contained more useful information in regard to its activities, linked as it is with an historical survey of the progress of Bible translation in the English tongue, and the power this Book has had when translated into the mother tongue of many peoples.

The titles of the chapters are indicative of the contents of the report: "The Priceless Heritage of the Bible"; "Sharing the Heritage with the British Commonwealth"; "Sharing the Heritage with the Whole World"; "The Blessing of the Heritage"; "The Heritage in the Mother Tongue"; "The Cost." The booklet is well illustrated and beautifully printed and produced, the frontispiece representing the last moments in the life of the Venerable Bede. A section, short of necessity, is devoted to Canada and the spread of Bible Society activities in the Dominion. Each chapter is prefaced by quotations from leading representatives of the various churches, and some very apt quotations from poets and writers, ancient and modern, as diverse as Aristotle, George Herbert and V. Sackville West.

The cost of this world wide task of publishing and circulating translations of the Scriptures is emphasized, and the need or increased support clearly indicated. In this respect the report concludes with a sentence from the late Sir Henry Jones, "How they are to be envied who, having the ability to do this kind of thing, have also the heart to do it."

This second report from the gifted pen of Rev. John Patten justifies the favor with which his last year's report, "Tell the World" was received by the general public, and one can rise from reading it without feeling how great has been the influence of the Bible on the British race and all its institutions; how dangerous it will be if that race misuses or neglects that heritage; and how urgent is the call to make this Book the heritage of "all kindreds of peoples and tongues."

TRAGEDY CUTS SHORT CAREER

MARY BLACKFORD, eighteen-year-old blonde, whose chances of success in motion pictures seemed above the average, was injured in an automobile accident recently and now is paralyzed from the neck down, with all hope for her recovery gone. Miss Blackford is a native of Philadelphia and went to Hollywood with her mother last year.

Youth of New Brunswick Must Prepare to Carry On

New Organizations Offer Opportunity to Study the Problems of the Province and Discuss Government Action.

The call is sounded. The youth of the nations are mobilizing in an effort to save civilization. In all parts of the world young people are taking a more serious interest in life and all that it means to them and future generations. When the British Empire was in peril there was a call for young men to join the fighting forces and how that call was answered is a matter of history. Now all over the Empire there is the call for young men to interest themselves in the affairs of their country in order that they may help to bring about a revival of industry and the development of those things which make life worth-while and bring happiness and contentment to all the people.

This movement for interesting young people in public affairs has come to Canada and is taking form in New Brunswick in the Tilley Clubs, which are being or-

Montreal Gets Aid Of Tax Experts

Horace L. Brittain, Who Advised Saint John, Is One of Board.

The city of Montreal has secured the services of four taxation experts—Thomas Bradshaw and Horace L. Brittain, of Toronto; Oscar Morin, of Quebec, and Lorenzo Belanger, of Montreal, to analyze Montreal's taxation system. It will be remembered that the services of Mr. Brittain were secured by Saint John some few years ago. He made a survey of our taxation system and brought in many recommendations in that document known as the Brittain Report. It cost the city much money but the report was never acted upon although there were many recommendations that should have been implemented. Montreal will no doubt heed the expert advice of these gentlemen.

CAPITOL THEATRE HAS 3 NEW HITS COMING

.. FARCE, ROMANCE and SPECTACLE ..

THURSDAY-FRIDAY-SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK WILL FIND JOE E. BROWN THE HERO OF A SIX-DAY BICYCLE RACE. This Warner Bros. sporting comedy is another of the homely star's knockout sensational stories. The intensely exciting nature of the bike grind, coupled with Joe's hick wise-cracking and his big-mouthed yells, will supply plenty of amusement for old and young.

ROBERT MONTGOMERY AND MAUREEN O'SULLIVAN MAKE AN ESPECIALLY ATTRACTIVE and entirely novel combination of star talent in "HIDEOUT," which comes to our theatre MONDAY, TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY of NEXT WEEK. It is simply the charming romance of a good-looking city slicker gone rural. To find handsome Bob loitering down on the farm to become ensnared by the village charmer is certainly a new twist and an entertaining one.

'CLEOPATRA' IS CECIL B. DEMILLE'S PRODUCTION ON A TYPICALLY EXTRAVAGANT DEMILLE SCALE. This should be sufficient advance announcement for those people who have seen some of the great director's masterpieces of years gone by. CLAUDETTE COLBERT, WARREN WILLIAM, and the new handsome English star, HENRY WILCOXON play leads in this super art feature. "Cleopatra" will astound lovers of spectacular and hold story lovers in wrapt attention.
