SECOND SECTION

The MARITIME

FEATURES: RADIO

BROADCASTER

The Maritimes' Feature Weekly

Vol. IV., No. 47

SAINT JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1934

40 PAGES-17 to 32

A LESSON IN HARD WORK

His Story is Quite Similar to that of Maritime

Farmers.

A word portrait of the New England farmer has been running in The Forum. This condensed picture is taken from the Reader's Digest. While the New England farmer is designated, it might well be taken as typical of

The noon hours of the early mid-summer day was hot. From the porch where we were sitting

we could see a rocky pasture, and hear the tinkle of a cowbell, the lazy grunt of pigs, and the cluck-cluck of a hen. I had come back to the hills of my ancestors, says

Lewis Sherburne, and was sitting

with one of their kind - he

sprawled out in his red-painted

chair, in overalls and blue shirt

open at the throat. I asked him to tell about farming in New England. Let him tell.

ways lived here. My great-grandfather was the first to come,

along with fiftten others who had bought 100-acre pieces just after

and even when they got it cleared

it was so full of rocks they used to say they had to hammer the heads of the sheep down between the rocks before they could get

at the grass. But they cleared

the land, and when I was a boy you could look clean up across the hill there—and it's more'n a mile -and see nothing but cleared fields, all fenced in with stone walls. Now, lots of those fields

"City folks can't understand our stone walls. They're forever asking me what fools ever built those walls through the woods. Well, they didn't. As I tell you, (Continued on Page 22, Col. 2)

have gone back to woods.

"This land here was all woods,

"Yes, I'm eighty-two. takes me back quite a ways. Al-

the Revolution.

any farmer.

MONEY LENDERS ARE LIVING The New England Farmer Speaks AT THE PUBLIC'S EXPENSE Of His Experiences of Long Years

Interest Makes It so that a Man is Paid Time Over Time for One Piece of Labor.

By J. M. ROBINSON

phrase "the truth must out" filled."
might be expressed as "that Apart from the Ten Commandwhich is right and just must pre- ments which have been considervail"?

then we have a basis for consid- show that it contains a complete eration of certain things which scheme for the government of a are obviously suppressing the people in all phases of religious, peoples of the whole world today social and economic life and that and are preventing that race of though given to the Hebrews men whose daily contacts are so many centuries ago could be apgreatly based on truth, fairness plied, today with equal effectiveand justice, that their honor has ness; but pass by the religious become a byword among the and the social and concentrate if achieving rapidly the great goal beyond question that is of paraof their destiny.

Much has been written, more ent days. in the Ten Commandments.

Till heaven and earth pass, one everything but many more on the jot or one tittle shall in no wise (Continued on Page 22, Col. 1)

Is it fair to suggest that the pass from the law till all be ful-

ed the most important part, what If this is a fair assumption is this Law? Consideration will "Nations," from achieving, and you will, on the economic, for mount importance in these pres-

has been said in commendation Our fathers lived truly by the of the fact that British law and sweat of their brow while we if British justice are founded on the we would, may live largely on Law of Moses and that the guide machine production which takes of British conduct may be found from labor the eternal grind of the Ten Commandments. former times. One man today True it is that some of these with the aid of modern equip-Commandments are, by the race ment can accomplish in a week at large, more honored in the more than his father could in a breach than in the observance, month. Abundance is ours if we nevertheless all are taken as the will but reach out and grasp it. rule and guide of life; the em- Not only abundance of goods and phasis placed on them in our materials but abundance of leis-Sunday School teaching is strik- ure in which the arts and education may be enjoyed and promot-It is a striking fact that Christ ed. Yet we are faced with the gave a full and most emphatic prospect of great wealth on the endorsement to the Mosaic Law in one hand and the most abject the Sermon on the Mount when poverty on the other; some, comhe said, "Verily I say unto you, paratively few in command of

WOMEN HAIL PROBE

WORKERS FOR PEACE APPROVE OF U.S.A. SENATORIAL MUNITIONS' INVESTIGATION

MISS JEANNETTE RANKIN AND HER PEACE AUTO; TOP RIGHT-MISS LOUISE WIER; BELOW, LEFT-MISS DOROTHY DETZER.

By FLORENCE SLOWN HYDE Central Press Correspondent

torial investigation of the munitions industry, now in full swing, authorizing the investigation. and the startling revelations that Miss Dorothy Detzer, executive are being brought to light, are secretary of the United States hailed by women peace workers branch of the league, took a about such an inquiry.

lobbied for the measure, it was the Women's International League for Peace, whose leaders Washington, D.C.—The sena- prevailed on Senator Gerald P who long had sought to bring prominent part in enlisting the interest of the young radical from Although many organizations North Dakota, who is chairman (Continued on page 23, Col.3,

Col. Fawcett Found?

Lost with his son in the wilds of the Matto Grasso jungles of Brazil. COL. P. H. FAWCETT, above, English explorer, is reported in touch with civilization through another explorer Angelo Truchi. Truchi has reported at Rio de Janeiro that he has been in touch with Fawcett, about whom much mystery has been wrapped since his disappearance in 1924.

LINKS HAPSBURGS WITH ITALY

PRINCESS MARIA

ARCHDUKE OTTO

The latest royal romance. It links Archduke Otto, heir presumptive to the Austrian throne, if and when a Hapsburg monarchy is restored, and Princess Maria, youngest daughter of King Victor and Queen Elena of Italy. Princess Maria, not yet twenty years of age, is dark-eyed and beautiful. Otto is considered handsome. The match may give him the support of Rome should he make a dash for Vienna. His mother, ex-Empress Zita, who met the Italian royal family in the conclave which approved the marriage, has long sought to place her son on the throne of his ancestors. long sought to place her son on the throne of his ancestors

Red Rose Tea "is good tea"

-Always worth a little more. than you pay