College To Air

Forman Brown quit college life where he acted as an instructor of rhetoric and a professor of English to join the Yale Puppeteers as actor and lyricist. From Hollywood, where he composed lyrics for motion pictures he has just returned east to make his radio debut. Each week now Brown is heard as the voice of the "March of Rhyme," a sophisticated and refreshing chronicle of the day's news, featured on the new "Club Columbia" series now broadcast over the WABC-Columbia network every Saturday from 9.00 to 9.30 p.m., A.S.T.
