FLIGHT

WHEN THE MUTINOUS CAPTAIN SWUNG HIS FIRST BLOW, TARZAN'S MIGHTY ARM SENT HIS SWORD CLATTERING TO THE DECK.

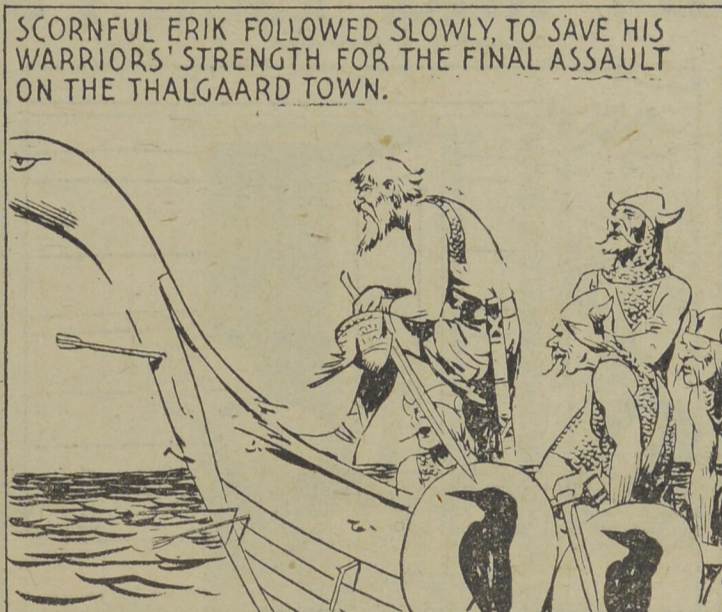

THE APE-MAN CALLED THEN TO THE DUMB-FOUNDED THROG: "IF THERE BE ANOTHER WHO QUESTIONS ME, LET HIM SPEAK!"

BUT NOW THE AWE-STROCK SOLDIERS BOWED TO HIS SUPREMACY, AND THE OARSMEN OBEYED HIS COMMAND TO RETREAT.

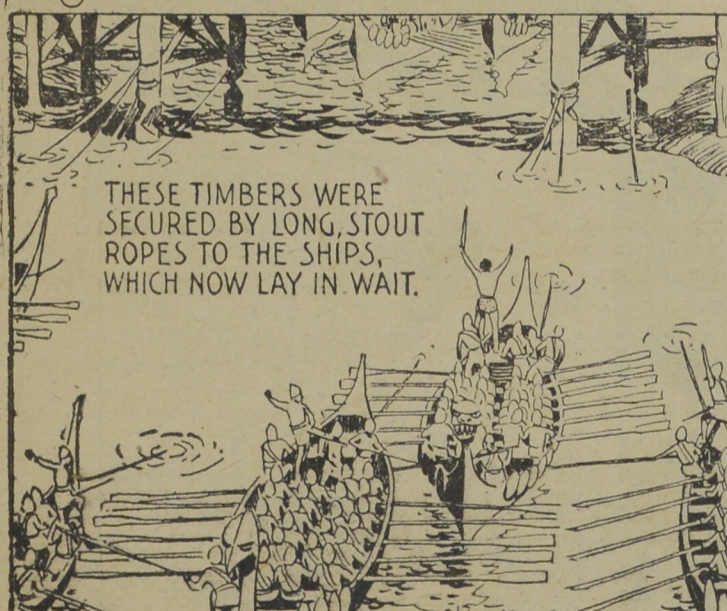

TARZAN'S VIKINGS FOUGHT VALIANTLY THROUGH ERIK'S FLEET AND FLED HOMEWARD IN SEEMING DISGRACE.

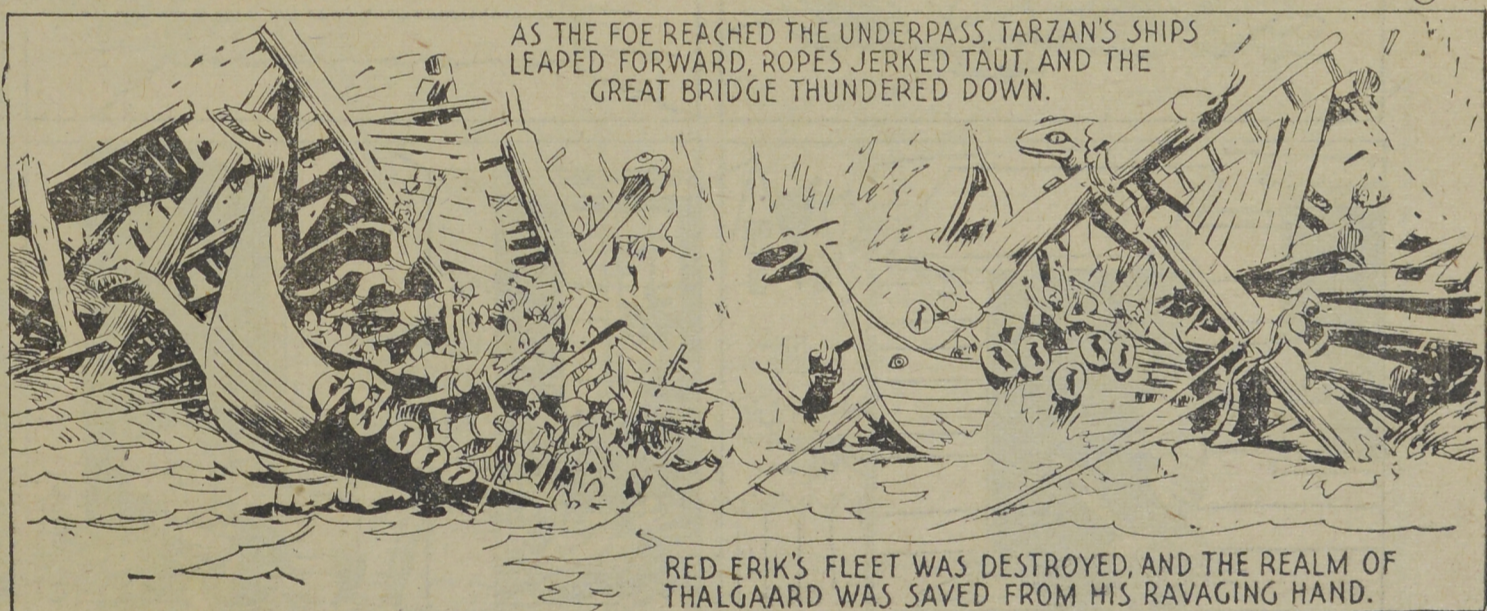

SCORNFUL ERIK FOLLOWED SLOWLY, TO SAVE HIS WARRIORS' STRENGTH FOR THE FINAL ASSAULT ON THE THALGAARD TOWN.

WHEN THE FUGITIVE FLOTILLA CAME TO THE BRIDGE, TARZAN ORDERED DEEP NOTCHES HEWN IN THE STANCHIONS.

THESE TIMBERS WERE SECURED BY LONG, STOUT ROPES TO THE SHIPS, WHICH NOW LAY IN WAIT.

AS THE Foe REACHED THE UNDERPASS, TARZAN'S SHIPS LEAPED FORWARD, ROPES JERKED TAUT, AND THE GREAT BRIDGE THUNDERED DOWN.

RED ERIK'S FLEET WAS DESTROYED, AND THE REALM OF THALGAARD WAS SAVED FROM HIS RAVAGING HAND.

LATER, IN THE TRIUMPHAL PROCESSION, BESIDE THE LITTER OF THE WOUNDED KING, MARCHED TARZAN, WHO HAD BEEN HIS PRISONER.

WEAKLY, KING RUVALD SPOKE TO HIM: "BY HEROIC VICTORY, YOU HAVE WON THE REWARD OF FREEDOM. MAY YOU SPEND IT WISELY."

TARZAN ANSWERED: "PERHAPS, SIRE, I SHALL SPEND IT TO BUY DEATH, FOR I GO NOW TO SEEK YOUR DAUGHTER SIGREDA AMONG THE CANNIBALS!"

NEXT WEEK: THE LION PEOPLE

CAPITOL THEATRE TICKETS GIVEN AWAY EVERY WEEK BY "THE BROADCASTER"

In different places in this issue of "The Maritime Broadcaster" will be found the names of five persons, residents of Saint John. For each of these five there are two tickets for the Capitol Theatre. All that is necessary is for the person named to come to the office of "The Maritime Broadcaster," 22 Canterbury Street, with the issue of "The Maritime Broadcaster" containing their names and claim the tickets. Five new names will appear in each issue of this paper. Look for YOUR Name—it may be in the next issue. Buy "The Maritime Broadcaster" each week, it is on sale every Thursday in Saint John, and look through it for the names. Should you be one of the fortunate ones who have received these Free Tickets keep on watching the paper as your name may appear again.
