WELL MAYBE

A parson was summoned for driving his car dangerously. "Now," said the magistrate, "you say you were going at only 18 miles an hour, but the policeman declares you were proceeding at 40. I don't like to doubt either of you. Can you think why he declares you were going at that rate? Is there a grudge he owes you?" "No," replied the clergyman. "I can't think of anything, unless it is that I married him three years ago."

A train can't pull over, so observe the law—"STOP."

SMILES

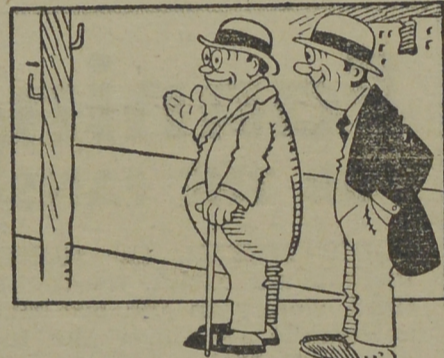

"Why don't you learn to punctuate?"
 "The idea. Why I put more comas and dashes in what I write than anyone else I know of."

WE WONDER

Chicago is now so clear of bandits that the United States Flag Association has presented the State's Attorney for the county with its gold medal "for meritorious law enforcement." Shall we see the next Hollywood star presented with a testimonial for living with her husband for 18 months

NEW BELIEF

A repayment claim had been made for $100, but the taxpayer had miscalculated the amount, for actually $150 was due to him. A cheque for this was sent, and this is how he acknowledged it: "Dear Sir—I am 69 years of age. I now believe in Santa Claus."

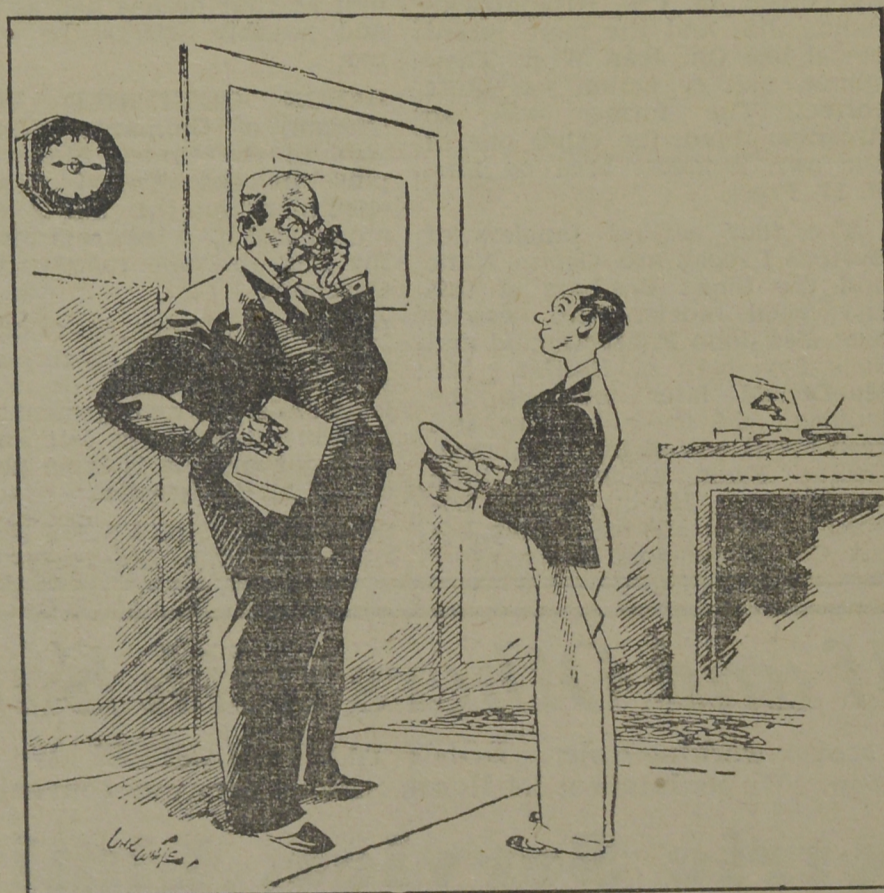

"Easy is the descent to hell."
 "And it is like some of our city streets, it's a one-way street."

WHY THE HURRY

Telephone subscriber — "I've been dialing 'Operator' for four minutes. Suppose my house had been on fire?"
 Operator—"Is it?"
 Subscriber—"No."
 Operator—"Then what are you bothering about?"

DUE WARNING

Timid Little Referee—"Now the last thing I wish is any unpleasantness."
 Burly Hockey Player—"Any more last wishes?"

"I'm travelling ————" "Well, don't let me stop you!"
 —Sydney Bulletin.

JUST AMONG US GIRLS

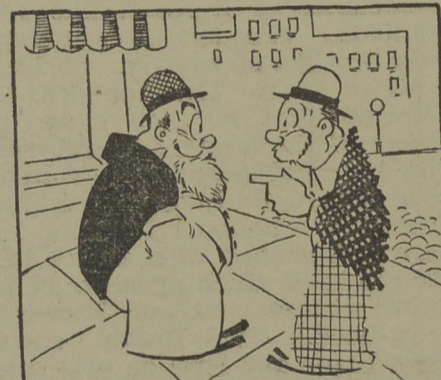

What a boy likes best, next to himself, is a pretty girl.

TOO BAD!

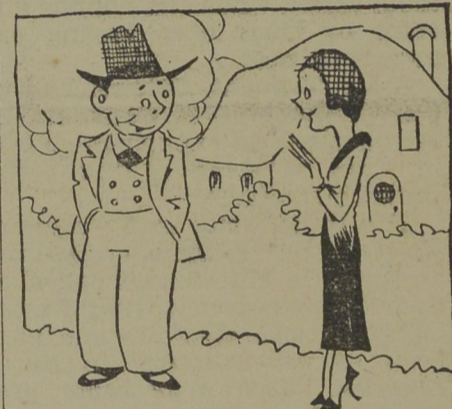

Author—"I'm convinced that the publishers have a conspiracy against me."
 Friend—"What makes you think so?"
 Author—"Ten of them have refused the same story."

QUITE RIGHT

Teacher—"How many make a dozen?"
 Class—"Twelve."
 "How many make a million?"
 "Very few."

"So you are to meet your wife here? Have you long to wait?"
 "Only until she arrives."

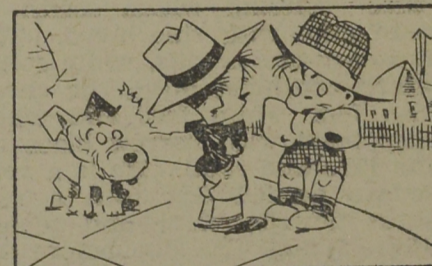

He: You must be one of those girls who take plenty of exercise, judging from the fine color you have.
 She: No. I have a quicker way; that method is too slow.

ALL IN THE FAMILY

The Gardener (tendering his resignation)—"No, sir, it's the missus I can't abide. She's got into the habit of talking ter me jest like wot she does ter you. She fergets I can leave when I wants ter."

BAD BOTH WAYS

Old George of the antique shop was nothing if not a pessimist. "Well, George," remarked a friend, "how's business?" "Terrible!" was the reply. "things are expensive people can't afford them, and if they are not expensive people don't want them."

"My pa has a wooden leg."
 "That's nothin' tall. My sis' has a cedar chest."

LEARNING THE LANGUAGE

Green—"You must be keen on the talkies, old boy, to go twice a week."
 Howarth—"It's not that exactly. You see, if I don't go regularly I can't understand what my kids are saying."

It is against the law for children under 16 years of age to drive an auto or truck.

QUITE A STUNT

A Scotsman and an Irishman tied in a shooting competition. The first award was a silver cup, the second $25, and both wanted the money. They went to shoot off for the prize. Each fired ten shots and then the Scot rose with beaming face. "That's done you," he said. "I've put all my shots into the bank."
 "I thought ye would," chortled the Irishman, "so I put all mine on your target. The cup's yours and ye'll oblige the company by filling it."

REWARD

Persistent Tramp (successful at last)—"Thanks, lady. Is there anything I can do by way of return?"
 Housewife (shortly)—"Yes—don't."

POLITENESS

Little Betty had been allowed to stay up to supper one night on the strict understanding that she should behave very well and not ask for anything on the table. When dessert came all the guests were attended to, but she was overlooked. She sat despondingly for a time, and then was struck by a bright idea. She exclaimed in a loud voice, "Who wants a clean plate?"

"Why do you walk around by Percy's office every day?"
 "I jilted him last week."
 "What of that?"
 "And he's trying to forget me!"
