that occurred when a chap tried to sell Fred Allen the idea of using his dog on the amateur hour. "This dog," explained the proud owner, "loves ice cream, and is very intelligent. When he wants vanilla ice cream he barks once, and when he wants chocolate ice cream he barks twice." "Tell me," said Allen, "what does he do when he wants a caramel-almond sundae?" "Oh," replied the owner, "then he whistles 'Moon Over Miami.'"

THEIR RADIO CRONIES ARE trying desperately to promote a golf match between comedian Bob Hope and baritone Phil Duesy. Duesy, as you may know, won the Westchester Golf Association's amateur-pro. tournament recently, while Hope is the proud possessor of the Old Flushing Country Club championship cup—perfect material for an exciting afternoon.

EUNICE HOWARD, HEARD on the "Forever Young" show Monday through Friday, spends her two "free" days over the week-end, writing music and adapting classic and semi-classic poetry for radio presentation. She recently portrayed the title role in "Pippa Passes," which she adapted herself, on the Radio Guild Hour.

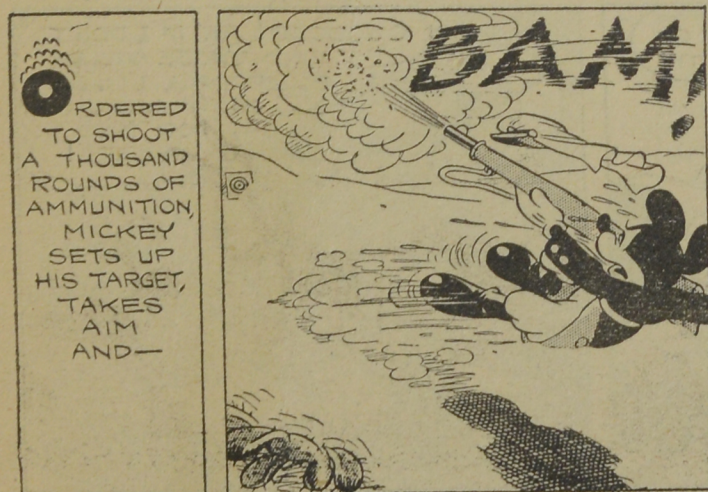

PHIL LORD, OF "GANG Busters" and "Three Minute Thrills" fame, is not only an outstanding sailor but goes in for authenticity in his knowledge of seagoing. Phil has an entire section of his copious library devoted to volumes on sailing, boating and even ship building.

VIRGINIA VERRILL, C B S contralto now playing an engagement at the Hotel New Yorker, has never gone anywhere or done anything without her mother, who acts as manager as well. But last week Mrs. Verrill took Virginia to the New Yorker and told her she would be on her own for a week. So Virginia had all her friends down and signed the checks. The members of Bob Crosby's orchestra were her guests for dinner. A party of movie executives Virginia knows from Hollywood went there for a supper party and Virginia was just about to take up that check, too, when Mrs. Verrill returned. By that time Virginia had spent her salary and owed the hotel a bill into the bargain. Mrs. Verrill has joined her permanently again.

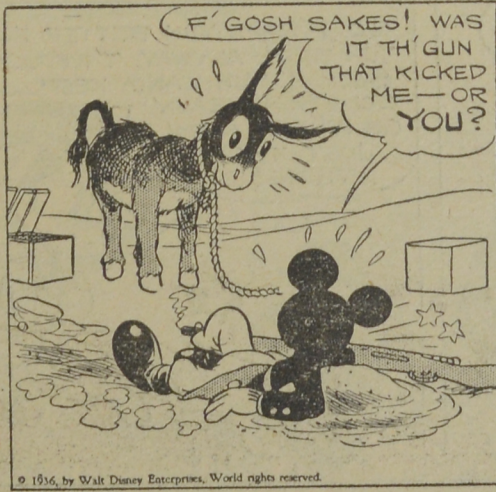

ASK KEN MURRAY WHAT his two favorite sports are, and the comedian will tell you polo and kbitzing. Though the star of "Laugh With Ken Murray" gets very little time for sports activities — what with movie shorts, material writing and broadcasting — he has never neglected his polo ponies and says he's in the championship class when it comes to watching Russ Morgan's bandmen play pinochle after rehearsals. PETER VAN STEDEN relates an amusing experience
