RADIO NEWS FLASHES

GUY LOMBARDO, THE FIRST popular dance band director to make American folk songs a regular part of his radio programs, believes that the dividing line between popular tunes and semi-classical songs is rapidly disappearing. "Every era," he says, "has its musical vogues. However, the common denominator of music most loved, irrespective of years, is sentiment. Sincerity of expression in this is doing much to erase the barrier of prejudice between the popular song of today and the established ballads of yesterday."

STUART CHURCHILL, tenor on "Musical Reveries," receives more requests to sing "Ave Maria" than any other number. He has sung it more often than any other on the air. Counting the times he performed it in theatres and on personal appearances, in addition to radio, Stuart estimates he has sung "Ave Maria" no less than 364 times in the past three years—or every third day.

ACCORDING TO WORD RECEIVED from Frankfort, Kentucky, Hal Kemp is no longer a Kentucky Colonel. But that won't prevent Phil Baker from calling Hal "Cunnel" Kemp during their "Great American Tourist" program, Baker claims that he really means "Kernel" Kemp, because they're all "nuts" anyhow.
