

The War.

...thought that a war would arise in defence of the right, an iron tyranny now should bend or cease, glory of manhood stand on his ancient height, Nor Britain's one sole God be the millionaire: No more shall commerce be all in all, and Peace.

And as months run on and rumour of battle grows, It is time, it is time, O passionate heart, said I, For I cleaved to a cause that I felt to be pure and true.

Let it go or stay, so I wake to the higher aims Of a land that has lost for a little her lust of gold, And love of a peace that was full of wrongs and shames.

For those that are crush'd in the clash of jarring claims, Yet God's just doom shall be wreak'd on a giant liar, And many a darkness into the light shall leap, And slink in the sudden making of splendid names.

PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT.

Parliament was on Tuesday prorogued by royal commission. The Commissioners were—the Lord Chancellor, the Duke of Argyll, the Earl of Harrowby, the Earl of Grenville, and Lord Stanley of Alderley.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—We are commanded by her Majesty to release you from further attendance in Parliament, and at the same time to express the warm acknowledgments of her Majesty for the zeal and assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the discharge of your public duties during a long and laborious session.

Her Majesty has seen with great satisfaction, that while you have occupied yourselves in providing means for the vigorous prosecution of the war, you have given your attention to many measures of great public utility. Her Majesty is convinced that you will share her satisfaction in finding that the progress of events has tended to cement more firmly that union which has so happily been established between her Government and that of her ally the Emperor of the French; and her Majesty trusts that an alliance founded on a sense of the general interests of Europe, and consolidated by good faith, will long survive the events which have given rise to it, and will contribute to the permanent well-being and prosperity of the two great nations whom it has linked in the bonds of honourable friendship.

The accession of the King of Sardinia to the treaty between her Majesty, the Emperor of the French, and the Sultan, has given additional importance and strength to that alliance, and the efficient force which his Sardinian Majesty has sent to the seat of war, to co-operate with the allied armies, will not fail to maintain the high reputation by which the army of Sardinia has ever been distinguished.

Her Majesty has commanded us to thank you for having enabled her to avail herself, as far as has been found to be required, of those patriotic offers of extended service which she has received from the militia of the united Kingdom, and for the means of reinforcing her brave army in the Crimea by an enlistment of volunteers from abroad.

Her Majesty acknowledges with satisfaction the measures which you have adopted for giving effect to the convention by which, in conjunction with her ally the Emperor of the French, she has made arrangements for assisting the Sultan to provide the means which are necessary to enable him to maintain in efficiency the Turkish army, which has so gallantly withstood the assaults of its enemies.

Her Majesty, in giving her assent to the bill which you presented to her for the local management of the metropolis, trusts that the arrangements provided by that measure will lead to many improvements conducive to the convenience and health of this great city.

assist the day of their great natural resources, and promote the contentment and happiness of their inhabitants.

Her Majesty commands us to say that she has been deeply gratified by the zeal for the success of her Majesty's arms, and by the sympathy for her soldiers and sailors, manifested throughout her Indian and colonial empire; and her Majesty acknowledges with great satisfaction the generous contributions which her subjects in India, and the Legislature and the inhabitants of the colonies, have sent for the relief of the sufferers by the casualties of war.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons, Her Majesty commands us to convey to you her cordial thanks for the readiness and zeal with which you provided the necessary supplies for carrying on the war in which her Majesty is engaged.

Her Majesty laments the burdens and sacrifices which it has become necessary to impose upon her faithful people, but she acknowledges the wisdom with which you have alleviated the weight of those burdens by the mixed arrangements which you have made for providing those supplies.

My Lords and Gentlemen.—Her Majesty has commanded us to say, that she has seen with sincere regret that the endeavours which in conjunction with her ally, the Emperor of the French, she made at the recent conferences at Vienna to bring the war to a conclusion on conditions consistent with the honour of the allies and with the future security of Europe, have proved ineffectual. But, those endeavours having failed, no other course is left to her Majesty but to prosecute the war with all possible vigour; and her Majesty, relying upon the support of her Parliament, upon the manly spirit and patriotism of her army and navy, whose patience under suffering and whose power of endurance her Majesty has witnessed with admiration, upon the steadfast fidelity of her allies, and above all upon the justice of her cause, humbly puts her trust in the Almighty Disposer of Events for such an issue of the great contest in which she is engaged as may secure to Europe the blessings of a firm and lasting peace.

On your return to your several countries you will have duties to perform little less important than those which belong to your attendance in Parliament. Her Majesty trusts that your powerful influence will be exerted for the welfare and happiness of her people, the promotion of which is the object of her Majesty's constant care, and the anxious desire of her heart.

Then a commission for proroguing the Parliament was read. After which the LORD CHANCELLOR said, "My Lords and Gentlemen, "By virtue of her Majesty's commission, under the great seal, to us and other Lords directed, and now read, we do in her Majesty's name, and in obedience to her commands, prorogue this Parliament to Tuesday, the 23rd day of October next.

The Royal Commissioners then left the house, and the proceedings of the session terminated.

SPAIN AND THE POPE. The Pope pronounced two allocutions, on the 26th ultimo, the one against Spain, the other against Sardinia. Both show the weakness of this feeblest of potentates, who owes his political existence and support to the bayonets and battalions of Austria and France. Spain, as we have seen, has wounded the Pope in a most susceptible point by the recent law on the subject of Church property. It was in vain that the immaculate Queen Isabella endeavoured to propitiate the Pope by the gift of a costly diadem. Pio Nono returned the compliment by presenting the Queen with the canonized bones of a saint extemporized for the occasion; and the parties were quits. The Pope has not the less urgently pressed the claims of the priesthood. Having failed in his purpose, he has withdrawn his representative from Madrid; and in his allocution he declares the laws recently enacted by the Cortes, with respect to Church property "null and void." He has still more serious quarrels with Piedmont, where the Government has laid his hands upon the conventual establishments, and turned the monks and nuns adrift. The proceedings of the Sardinian Government in this matter have new denunciations in his allocutions also null and of no effect, declaring that all who have supported them have "incurred the major excommunication," adding, however with equal ambiguity and presumption, that he is mindful that he "occupies the place of Him who in wrath remembers mercy," and he therefore only prays that the "degenerate children of the Holy Church in Sardinia" may be brought to a better state of feeling. In Switzerland, likewise, the wrath of the Pontiff has been provoked by the conduct of the faithful. He "suffers indescribably at the deplorable state to which our holy religion is reduced in Switzerland," especially in the Romish Cantons. In so far as Spain is concerned, the Government, if they have the will, are certainly divested by the public creditor of the power of restoring the property claimed for the Church by the Pope. Sardinia, on the other hand, is in a fair way for being independent of Rome altogether. It argues not a little for the self-reliance of that vigorous Italian State, when it can afford to despise the "major excommunication," which, if the Pope had his own way, would release the Piedmontese from their allegiance to their Sovereign.

The recent rumor of Russia having been trafficking with the Carlist party in Spain, in the hope of stirring up an insurrection, and distracting the attention of the Allies, proves to have been well-founded. That the attempt has come to nothing for the present, only shows that Russia is destitute of the pecuniary means necessary to give it effect. It appears from published documents that the adherents of the cause of Don Carlos were on terms with the Emperor of Russia to establish a monarchy upon the throne of Spain. The Czar would of course be too thankful for another King Bomba in Madrid, seeing that the King of Naples and the King of Spain, if they could not befriend Russia by reason of their weakness, might at least annoy the Allies by their power of working mischief. "One thing is certain; the moment which saw a Carlist ascending the throne of Spain, would also witness the doom of Cuba, England, and France can go on very well without Spain, or in spite of her. Spain will be twice before she incurs the displeasure of the Western Powers.—Scottish Guardian.

Revelenta Arabica Food. OF all discoveries, none has conferred greater benefit upon mankind than that made by Du Barry some years back. We allude to a plant grown upon that gentleman's estates in America, called Du Barry's Revelenta Arabica. Its superiority over Pills and other medicines in subduing disease and keeping off the ailments manifested in a marked degree in the metropolis, where the public health has latterly acquired a tone it never attained before; this, besides a great falling off in disease, there is a decrease in deaths of from 10 to 15 per centum, whilst the months from parties of unquestionable respectability have attested that it surpasses all other medicines of every description in the effectual removal of indigestion (dyspepsia), constipation, and diarrhoea, nervousness, biliousness, liver complaint, flatulency, distension, palpitation of the heart, nervous headache, deafness, noise in the head and ears, pains in almost every part of the system, inflammation and ulceration of the stomach, acute rheumatism, erysipelas, eruptions of the skin, impetigo, consumption, dropsy, haemorrhage, heartburn, nausea and sickness during pregnancy, after eating or at sea, low spirits, spasms, cramps, spleen, general debility, paralysis, asthma, cough, inquietude, sleeplessness, involuntary blushing, tremors, dislike to society, unfitted for study, loss of memory, delusions, vertigo, groundless fears, indigestion, melancholy, thoughts of self-destruction, and many other complaints. It is, moreover, admitted by those who have used it to be the best food for infants and invalids generally, as it never turns acid on the weakest stomach, but imparts a healthy relish for lunch and dinner, and restores the faculty of digestion and muscular and nervous energy to the most enfeebled. For the benefit of our readers a synopsis of a few of 50,000 testimonials received by Mr. Du Barry's Revelenta Arabica Food, from the Right Hon. the Lord St. Vincent de Decies—"I have derived much benefit from Du Barry's Health-Restoring Food.—Stuart de Decies, Dromana, Cappoquin, county of Waterford." Case No. 180—"25 years' nervousness, constipation, indigestion, and debility, from which I had suffered great misery, and which no medicine could remove or relieve. I have been effectually cured by Du Barry's Health-Restoring Food in a very short time." W. R. Reeves, Pool, Antony, Tiverton." Case No. 461—"60 years' partial paralysis, affecting one half of my frame, and which had resisted all other remedies, has yielded to Du Barry's Health-Restoring Food, and I now consider myself a stranger to all complaints, excepting a hearty old age.—Wm. Hunt, barrister at-law, King's College, Cambridge." Case No. 1784—"Not expected to live six days longer, I was cured by Du Barry's admirable Health-Restoring Food.—Magdalena Purvis, Moffat, Scotland." Case No. 4,208—"Eight years' dyspepsia, nervousness, debility, with cramps, spasms, and nausea, for which my servant had consulted the advice of many, have been effectually removed by Du Barry's Health-Restoring Food in a very short time. I shall be very happy to answer any inquiries.—Rev. John W. Miller, Riddington Rectory, Norfolk." Case No. 1,609—"Three years' excessive nervousness with pains in my neck and left arm, and general debility, which rendered my life very miserable, has been radically removed by Du Barry's Health-Restoring Food.—Alex. Stuart, Archdeacon of Ross, Shilbourn." Case No. 2,704—"I consider you a blessing to society at large. It is not to be told all the benefit Du Barry's Health-Restoring Food has been to me, and my little boy cries for a saucer of it every morning.—Walter Keating, 2 Manning-place, Five Oaks, Jersey." Case No. 3,906—"Thirteen years' cough, indigestion, and general debility have been removed by Du Barry's excellent Health-Restoring Food.—James Patten, Athol-st., Perth." Case No. 81—"Twenty years' liver complaint, with disorders of the stomach, bowels, and nerves, has been perfectly cured by Du Barry's Health-Restoring Food.—Andrew Fraser, Haddington, East Lothian." Case No. 7—"Levin Colton, Esq., Middlesex—My wife, the Lady for which I am indebted to you, was six months advanced in pregnancy, and was suffering severely from indigestion and constipation, throwing up her meals shortly after eating them, having a great deal of heartburn, and being constantly obliged to resort to physic or to form you that your food produced immediate relief. She has never been sick since, had but little heartburn, and the functions are more regular. &c.—Thomas Woodhouse." Messrs. The Infallible Remedy! HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT. CRYSPELAS OF EIGHT YEARS DURATION CURED! Copy of a Letter from Geo. Sinclair, Esq., of Paris, Canada, dated the 18th July, 1854. To Professor Holloway, Sir—I feel a pleasure and a pride in bearing witness to the wonderful benefit I have derived by the use of your inestimable Ointment and Pills. For eight years I suffered unceasingly from attacks of erysipelas; large purple blotches came all over my body; in addition to the unpleasant feeling of itching and burning, which afflicted me both night and day, rendering life a misery to me, as well as to my family, so severe was the attack, I had several repeated relapses without deriving the least cessation of my misery. At last, I determined to try your Ointment and Pills; after taking them for a few weeks, a visible improvement took place, and I feel considerably better—in three months, by continuing your medicines, I was completely cured, and now enjoy the best of health. I repeat this statement, as it is well known here, hence there is no necessity for me to request secrecy. I am, Sir, yours respectfully, (Signed) GEO. SINCLAIR.

ULCERS IN THE LEG—REMARKABLE CURE! Copy of a Letter from Mr. Edward Tomkinson of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, dated the 4th May, 1854. To Professor Holloway, Sir—My sister, Miss Jane Tomkinson, suffered for a great number of years from a bad leg; in which there were several deeply seated and old wounds, defying the skill of some of the most eminent of the medical faculty, a variety of remedies were also used unsuccessfully; it seemed to me that there was not any thing capable of mitigating the agonies she endured. At length, she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills; and after using them for about five weeks, she was completely cured, after all other means had failed to afford her the slightest relief. I have no objection to these facts being published, if you feel disposed to make them known. I remain, Sir, your most obedient servant, EDWARD TOMKINSON.

A BAD BREAST CURED WHEN AT DEATH'S DOOR!! Copy of a Letter from Mr. Henry Mulden, of Three Rivers, Canada West, dated July 9th, 1854. To Professor Holloway, Sir—My wife suffered severely after the birth of our last child with a bad breast. There were several lumps in it, one as large as a hand; all the devices and stratagems I tried would not heal them, but assumed an aspect more frightful than before, and horrible to behold. As a last resource I tried your Ointment and Pills, which she persevered with for seven weeks, at the expiration of that time her breast was almost well; she was enabled to nurse her child, and we offer you our united thanks for the cure effected. (Signed) HENRY MULDEN.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases: Bad Legs, Corns (Soft), Rheumatism Scalds, Contracted & Sore Nipples, Bunions, Stiff Joints, Sore-throats, Bit of Mose, Elephantiasis, Skin-diseases, Gout, and Sand Flies, Scoury, Coco-bay, Glandular, Swellings, Chiege-foot, Lumbago, Chilblains, Ulcers, Wounds, C. h a p p e d Piles, Yaws

Classical, Mathematical and Philosophical Department OF THE Theological Seminary IN CONNECTION WITH THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF NOVA SCOTIA. Greek, Logic, Moral Philosophy, and Chemistry, Rev. Professor ROSS. Latin, Mathematics, Algebra, & Nat'l Philosophy, PROFESSOR McCULLOCH.

THE Committee of Superintendence have secured the services of Mr. THOMAS McCULLOCH as second Professor, and having completed their arrangements and tested the efficiency of the Institution, beg leave to submit to their friends and the public the following outline of the course of instruction which it affords:— First Year—Logic, Greek, Latin, & Mathematics Second Year—Moral Philosophy, Greek, Latin, and Mathematics. Third Year—Natural Philosophy, Greek, &c., &c. Fourth Year—Chemistry, Greek, &c., &c.

The Logic course embraces an analysis of the intellectual powers and their mode of operation, giving particular prominence to the nature and different kinds of evidence, of the principles, to the different modes of reasoning, and to fallacies, —Aesthetics, —Universal Grammar, —Composition, —and Elocution. In the MORAL PHILOSOPHY Class, the following subjects are discussed: The origin of Action and the nature of Power; the freedom of the Will; the Mechanical, Animal, and Rational principles of Action; the nature and standard of duty; the existence of the Deity; the immortality of the Soul; Duty, as indicated by the light of nature; Man in a state of nature; the origin and progress of the Arts and Sciences; Law; Government; and Political Economy. The course in NATURAL PHILOSOPHY treats of Matter, its properties, necessary and contingent; Motion, its laws; Acoustics; Mechanics; Hydrostatics; Pneumatics; Heat; Optics; Magnetism and Electricity, including Galvanism, Electro-Galvanism, Magneto-Electricity, and Electro-Biostatics. In the CHEMISTRY, after some preliminary remarks on Affinity and the laws of Combination, the course is divided into the following parts:—Part 1st. Inorganic Chemistry; Part 2nd. Organic Chemistry; Part 3rd. Application of Chemical principles to the purposes of life. In the PHILOSOPHICAL and CHEMICAL classes no particular text-books are employed. The Professors furnish the students with a syllabus of the course.

THE ELEMENTARY works used in the Classical Department are Bullion's Latin and Greek Grammar, Andrews' or Riddle's Latin Dictionary, and Liddell and Scott's Greek Lexicon.—The Classics read are, in Latin, Virgil, Horace, Cicero, Quintilian, and Tacitus; and in Greek, Diodorus' Collection of Grecian Majora. No particular text-books have been prescribed for MATHEMATICS or ALGEBRA. The treatises on these branches, contained in Chambers' Educational Course, are the works generally used. The qualifications for admission to the Seminary are, a competent acquaintance with the English language, Arithmetic, Geography, first three books of Euclid, Latin and Greek Grammars, first book in Latin, four books of Caesar, four books of Ovid, and Catullus's Conspiracy (or an amount of Latin equivalent thereto), first book in Greek, and fifty pages of the Majora.

The Seminary is open to all who desire instruction in any of the branches taught therein. From Students studying for the ministry in connection with any religious denomination no fees are exacted. For the purpose of encouraging education in the higher branches, the fees exacted from Students not studying for the ministry are reduced to the low sum of £2 per term of six months. The Library consists of upwards of 1000 volumes, and the Seminary is provided with apparatus and apparatus the Synod is making annual additions.

The next term will commence on the first Wednesday in March 1855, and close on the first Wednesday in September following. Introductory Lecture by Professor McCulloch. Applicants for admission must present the Board at the Seminary on the day previous to the commencement of the term. By order of the Board, JAMES WATSON, Secretary. Theological Seminary, West River, Pictou, Nov. 1, 1854.
