This is the way one of the worthy successors of the Apostles begins his stave! I think he might have given the titles in full without those &c.'s that are so puzzling to paddies' brains, and to my own brains too. I can guess what they are though—"Panderer to the * * * of Babylon, Limb of the Man of Sin, Follower of the Beast, and Fond Admirer of the Mystery of Iniquity." These are far more significant than ever so many et ceteras. I hope * though; -" Panderer to the * * * of cant than ever so many et ceteras. I hope cross William will take the hint and insert them in full in the next Pastoral. If bashfulness won't let him I'll do it for him. But William's Pastoral is addressed to "Our dearly beloved brethren, the Acadians of the Archdiocess of Halifax." He reminds them of what was done to their fathers, the Acadians, nearly 100 years ago, when they were banished from Nova Scotia. Now I say at once what every body will admit, that it was a cruel and unnecessary deed to drive these harmless clodhoppers from their peaceful set-tlement. Nobody attempts to justify it. But cross Bill invents when he says that they were expelled on account of their attachment to Popery. I wish him to tell of one case where any questions were asked regarding the religion of the sufferer before he was banished or where the alternative was laid before him of his faith or his country. Every body knows that religion had nothing to do in the matter. The Acadians were expelled because they were "French," not because they were papists. The French were then regarded as | 916 9s 10 }. our "natural enemies," and every possible occasion was taken to harass them. This was unjust and cruel; still it is easily accounted for. It is simply a lie to say that the Acadians suffered for the "glorious faith" that now "flourishes in the hearts of nearly one-third of the people of Nova Scotia." Not a single instance is adduced to prove the assertion. I ber of arr. challenge him to prove it! I would like to know when he says that Paper and the says tha ant subject. I will, however, hazard one inquiry. The Free Church and the Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia, I believe, (or some of the Presbyterians), have publicly declared that they intend moving publicly in the cause of Temperance, and that in a political point of view, too. But the question is, how are they to do this? or how do they intend doing it? What do the Scriptures say?

The only way in which I can imagine they suffer for their religion is this: their Popery helps to make them vicious, and thus renders them obnoxious to the enactment against thieves, robbers, murderers, and all evil doers.
