James Cairns, who was present, after having performed one of his long missionary tours, was invited to take his seat in the Court.

An application from Bocabec signed by Robert Purves, Elder, and supported by Mr. Walter McFarland, Commissioner from the congregation, praying that the Lord's Supper might be administered in that congregation by one of the ministers of the Presbytery, was complied with. Arrangements were made accordingly, the services being apportioned between Mr. Turnbull, Mr. Millen, and Dr. Cairns. Mr. T. to dispense the Lord's Supper on Sabbath the 17th day of June inst.

A Report on the Financial condition of the Congregations of St. Stephen, St. James, Harvey, and Prince William was given in and approved. So far as it related to the year or portion of the year ending Nov. 1854, it was encouraging and on the whole satisfactory both as to the manner in which congregational business was transacted, and as to the actual results. The income of Congregations for the year ending May 1855, had been injuriously affected by the pecuniary depression of the times, but a period of the year in which some improvement might be expected, was being approached. The Committee were instructed to continue their labours, and the Clerk of Presbytery to communicate to each of the Congregations the judgment of the Presbytery

The history of this congregation is somewhat peculiar, and requires to be noticed in order to understand its present position. An of St. Stephen and the Presbytery of St. Stephen and the Presbytery nnecdote is told, which not only exhibits the of St. Stephen and the Presbytery of Truro, origin of the congregation, but also gives us some idea of the manner in which Dr. Keir labored, and was so successful in fostering tion were wanting in order to the full investigation of the whole case and that the supplementary information be sought for midthis Island. About 40 years ago the Doctor went first to preach there, when he found a view. So soon as the case has been finally
