ANTS AND THEIR WAYS.

A man who knows all about ants says that no one has ever seen a quarrel between any two of them that lived in the same nest. If a great many children were put together in one big house, do you think that could be said of them? Some of the ants guard the home. Some feed the babies. Some make roads and new rooms, while others go out to get food. Each one seems to do its little duty without fuss or fretting.

Once an ant found a big fly that was dead. The ant pulled and pulled at it, but could not carry it off. After twenty minutes of hard work, it went to the nest and came back with twelve other ants to help it. How did it let them know about the fly?

There are big ants and little ants, white, black, and red ants—a thousand kinds in all. One kind has servants to wait on them and feed them. They have become so lazy that they had rather die than take the trouble to feed themselves. Other ants keep cows! You have often seen these cows, but you did not know they were cows, because they have no horns and long tail. They are the little green bugs that spoil our rose-bushes in the summer. The ants are very fond of their milk, which is what we call honeydew.—K. S. W., in the Examiner.

WAILS FROM THE TOOMBS.

Elmira Beatty, or Nolan, was arrested Saturday and will be up before our Stipendiary this morning under the following charges: for being drunk and disorderly on Telegraph street, and breaking windows in houses on the same street, also with stealing a dress from David Weyman.

Corey Steeves who was arrested on Saturday charged with stealing goods from the stall of M. C. Babin & Co., was allowed to go as Mr. Babin declined to prosecute.

Alice Crossman has been reported for being disorderly and using bad language on Main street. Margaret Bailey a chum of the former has been charge with the same offence.

Mrs. Donnelly, who runs a house of ill-repute on Telegraph street, and who was brought into prominence in the recent Buck-Steadman shooting affray, has been reported for harboring girls for immoral purposes.

Warrants will be issued against a one-legged man by the name of Steadman for selling liquor to Elmira Beatty, also against Doll Dryden, who is charged with living with a Mrs. McDonald on Telegraph street. Dryden formerly lived here but has been in Boston for some years past and returned a few weeks ago.

DEATH OF MRS. JACK.

The death occurred Saturday forenoon of Mrs. Jack, widow of the Hon. William Jack, Q. C., after only a few days illness Mrs. Jack was stricken with apoplexy on Monday last, and gradually sank until Saturday, when death relieved her. News of her death will be heard with sincere regret by a large circle of friends, for the deceased lady had many estimable qualities which endeared her to all. She was born in Queenstown, Ireland, and was a daughter of Captain Joseph Kenah. Her mother, who was an aunt of the present Chief Justice, was a daughter of Isaac Allen, one of the first judges of this province. She leaves a family of two sons and seven daughters. The sons are Dr. I. Allen Jack, and Mr. W. A. Jack. Three of her daughters are married, viz., Mrs. Thomas Walker, Mrs. McKenzie, and Mrs. W. Warwick Street.

MONCTON SHOULD FEEL PLEASED

Moncton should undoubtedly feel proud of the fact that in the recent camp all honors were carried off by members of organization from this city. Out of 971 men who shot at target practise, Sergt James Clark of Moncton took first place, making 68 points and carrying off the company prize of $6 and the Battalion prize of $4. The 74th Batt. being the best drilled in the field, and No's. 2 and 4 companies of Moncton, were allowed to be the best drilled in the battalion and the 74th Batt. Band was accorded first place in their line, superceding the other bands in the camp and was pronounced to be the best band that have ever visited camp.

DEATH OF MR. AARON JONES.

Sunday afternoon at four o'clock, an aged land mark in the person of Mr. Aaron Jones was removed from the midst of the Moncton public. The deceased gentleman died at the advanced age of 88 years and six months, and death was due to the effects of la grippe and the infirmities of old age. The funeral will leave the residence of Mr. Ralph Steeves, lower Main street, to-morrow afternoon, and the remains will be conveyed to Salisbury, where interment will take place.

BLOODY AFFRAY.

PEACEFUL PICNIC PARTY ATTACKED.

Three of the Assailants Killed—Twenty Other Persons Will Die.

BOSTON, July 8.—A special from English, Indiana, says reports of a riot at Siberia, Perry county, are coming in by telephone and carriers from the scene of the encounter. Dr. Wm. Lomax, of White Sulphur Well, has telephoned that three men are dead, four fatally hurt and fifty seriously injured, many of whom will probably die.

Siberia is but a hamlet of a few dozen straggling houses and a Roman Catholic church, the congregation of which is composed of Germans. On Thursday almost the entire population attended a picnic, and all went smoothly until several gangs of disturbers appeared on the scene. The intruders became bolder and soon precipitated a fight, which in a few moments assumed the proportions of a desperate riot. Clubs, chairs and beer bottles were brought into play and the picnic was transformed into a scene of struggling, cursing men and screaming women.

It soon became apparent to the attacking party that they would be annihilated if the fight was continued, and after their leader was struck down they began to retreat. They ran through the woods to where their horses were tethered and escaped, leaving three of their number on the ground for dead.

Cots and litters were improvised and the dead and wounded were removed to the church in the village, and all the physicians in the neighborhood called upon.

Dr. Lomax states that he saw 54 injured, and believes that several of them will die. He says the fight began at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and continued for an hour.

A telephone message from White Sulphur Well says that at least 20 of the injured will die.

THE CHINAMAN'S RELIANCE.

A Chinaman would be greatly puzzled if he should find himself without a bamboo. His house is built of bamboo, thatched with bamboo leaves. The windows are the tender twigs made into a lattice-work. His pails are made of bamboo joints. The bamboo is used to drill holes in the ground for water or gas or oil, and then the hollow bamboo serves for a pipe to bring water, oil, or gas to the surface. The story is told that at the World's Fair at Chicago the Japanese thought the iron waterpipe that furnished them with water was so ugly that they covered the pipe with shining pieces of bamboo.

The bamboo furnishes the Chinaman with food. The young tips are boiled like asparagus. Bamboo tips are cooked with honey, and bamboo grains are baked, and when a Chinaman takes a cold he drinks a tea made of bamboo leaves. You see how very important bamboo is to the Chinaman. Of course it is made into furniture and trlles, and enters into the making of sedan-chairs. It would seem as if a Chinaman could not have a house, or live in it after it was built, if he did not have bamboo.

MR. TARTE SEES THE POINT.

MONCTON, July 5.—A change is certainly coming over Mr. Tarte, for the member for L'Islet writes as follows: "There is not in the whole Canadian parliament a man of any standing who is not aware that it is impossible in the present state of thing to force Manitoba to submit to an educational law adopted by the federal power. Such law can be enacted. It will not be enforced. It cannot be enforced if Manitoba resists, and unfortunately there can be no doubt as to that resistance."

PAUL WEBB KILLED AT LAST.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—A special from Coeur D'Alene, Idaho, says Capt. Paul Webb, the swimmer, lost his life near there yesterday in an attempt to ride down a three hundred foot chute to lake Coner D'Alene in his barrel. The barrel left the chute and struck the ground and his spinal column was broken.

"MOVE UP FRONT PLEASE."

An Irish street car conductor called out shrilly to the passengers standing in the aisles.

"Will thim in front plaze to move up so that them behind can take the place of them in front and lave room for thim who are nayther behind nor in front?"

A PRIEST ROBBED AND ASSAULTED

(SPECIAL TO THE LEADER.)

MONTEAL, July 8.—At Acton, forty-three miles east, on the Grand Trunk road, Wednesday night, two burglars broke into the parish priest's house.

Vicar Abbe Dutilly seized a gun and went down and met them.

He had a desperate struggle and overcame one of the villains, when the other hit him a blow rendering the priest unconscious.

Before this occurred the priest had tried to shoot one of the men, but the cartridge failed to explode.

When Abbe Dutilly regained consciousness on Thursday morning the tramps were gone.

He was then scarcely able to summon relief from the neighbors.

JACK DEMPSEY'S VIEWS.

(SPECIAL TO THE LEADER.)

MONTEAL, July 8.—Jack Dempsey, the nonpariel, passed through Montreal to-day on his way to Portland, Ore. Dempsey, who is scarcely able to speak with the gathering in his throat, is wasted to a shadow and says it is doubtful if he will ever come east again. He still retains his interest in the ring and considers Corbett and Fitzsimmons to have equal chances in the big fight.

NEW TYPE-SETTING MACHINE.

IT WILL DO THE WORK OF THIRTY-SIX COMPOSITORS.

LONDON, July 4.—Invitations have been issued to newspaper men to witness a trial of a new type-setting machine, which will compose 50,000 letters an hour—a task equal to the labor of thirty-six compositors. The machine is the invention of the Rev. Father Colondoll, a Sicilian. The difference in speed as compared with existing machines lies in the fact that, instead of the letters being made to fall separately into the composing stick, entire words can be composed in an instant, by the simultaneous application of the fingers on both hands. It is in appearance like a harp, whose cords are replaced by metallic tubes, adhering to each other in four series. All these tubes communicate with a keyboard, divided into twenty-one small squares, covered with electrical knots. In the squares consonants are not repeated, but the vowels are triplicated in a very ingenious way, which permits the composition of most syllables with a single finger in touching two knobs at the same time, as be, bi, bo, bu.

REVIEW AND SHAMFIGHT.

SPRINGHILL MINES, N. S., July 8.—The 93rd Cumberland battalion, under command of Lt.-Col. Harrison, which has been undergoing twelve days' drill at Parrsboro, broke up camp this morning.

Yesterday a grand review and sham fight took place on the drill grounds and was witnessed by an immense gathering of spectators. A large number arrived by special train in the morning and together with those from Parrsboro and vicinity made a total of over one thousand people.

The different evolutions were performed in a very creditable manner.

One of the militiamen had his face burned in the sham fight by the discharge of a comrade's rifle.

CANADA'S REVENUE LAST YEAR.

OTTAWA, July 5.—Revenue and expenditure statement for the fiscal year just closed was issued to-day. The total revenue for the twelve months was $33,119,485, and expenditure $31,228,872, leaving a nominal surplus of $1,890,612. It should be mentioned, however, that this does not represent the actual surplus of the year, as the accounts will not be finally closed for about two months yet. The expenditure on capital account shows a reduction of over $1,000,000 this year compared with 1894. The decrease of debt last month was $573,000.

LOST THEIR LIVES.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 8.—Reports reaching here say that six lives have been lost by the sinking of the steamer Lady Leesay.

The boat had made a landing and was backing out when she struck a hidden obstruction and sank almost immediately in fourteen feet of water. In sinking she careened to the starboard side and a number of persons jumped overboard all of whom were rescued except six. The boat is breaking in two and will be a total loss. She was worth about $30,000 and said to be insured.

The Canadian parliament at Ottawa voted on woman suffrage recently, and nearly half the members voted in favor of it. It is coming and nothing can stop it.
