On Saturday the various orders will decorate the graves of their brethren in Moncton Rural Cemetery. The 74th Batt. Band has been engaged for the occasion.

Among the gentlemen of the city who spent Sunday at Shediac was Owen Murdoch Lee, the laundryman, who says he is well pleased with Shediac as a summer resort.

On Friday about noon Mr. Hiram Read's barn caught fire from the compost which was ignited by spontaneous combustion, and if the fire had not been discovered by Mr. Edgar Dixon just when it was, both barns would have been burned. The compost has since been moved away from the barn.

On Tuesday a package of dynamite was found in Messrs. Hyde & Murray's wood and coal shed Truro. It is supposed the package was stolen and hid in the shed until some convenient time arrived for its use or removal. The package was wrapped in a late copy of the Halifax Herald.

The Kingston Military College is a very expensive luxury to the people of Canada, and some of the items we have to pay for are very peculiar. An opera glass, $9.25; Prince of Wales hunting belt, $8.52; emigrant's knife, $8.48; trout rod, twelve feet long with three joints, $5.96; a lawn tennis bat, $3.71. The college costs us $70,000. No wonder there is a deficit.

Some time ago the attention of the S. P. C. A. was called to a case of ill-treatment of a boy at Shediac. The matter was inquired into with the result that Saturday President Willet and secretary MacDougall went to Shediac, and demanded that the boy be given up, and the man who had him consented and also gave $25 to have the lad, whose name is Sherman, aged 18, sent to his former home near Bathurst. His parents are dead but he has friends at Janeville, near Bathurst.

A Salisbury correspondent writes: Rupert McMurray one of our most popular young men, who has been in the employ of H. C. Barnes & Co. for several years left for St. John this afternoon to take a position with one of the leading grocery firms of that city. Mr. McMurray will be much missed here, not only in business and social circles, but also as a musician. He was a leading member of the Methodist choir and solo cornet player in the Salisbury band. His brother members of the band serenaded him at the train on his departure, and they wish many other friends here wish him every success in his new home.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Florian LeBlanc who keeps a boarding house next Sumner Co.'s store, was found dead in bed yesterday morning at five o'clock. The deceased lady was noticeably in high spirits all Saturday and was around attending her various duties as usual, calling at the market in the evening and leaving an order for the following day. She retired at nine o'clock and at three Sunday morning was sleeping soundly. Her daughter Sarah, who occupied the same room, arose at five o'clock and found her mother cold in death. The deceased lady left the following family: A daughter Minnie, now residing in Cambridgeport, Edward and William in the barber business in this city, Thomas, proprietor of the Queen Hotel, Josephine, who resides with her uncle, T. B. LeBlanc, Duke street, and Silas, who was last heard of in Philadelphia, and has been notified by telegram. Mrs. White's husband left home some fifteen years ago and was last heard of in the U. S. The funeral will take place to-morrow morning. The age of the deceased was fifty-four.

THE FIRE ALARM.

A long felt want in connection with the fire alarm of this city is at last in a fair way to be filled in the direction of the keys for the alarm boxes. At present the keys are kept in certain houses near the boxes, but other location is known by but very few in the vicinity and consequently fires frequently obtain considerable headway while a person is looking for the key. To provide for this objectionable feature, Ald. Dunlap, chairman of the fire committee, has secured iron boxes, to be placed on the posts which hold the alarm boxes, and in which the keys will be kept. These key boxes are about 4 inches square, the front being of glass and all that is required when an alarm is to be sent in is to break the glass and take out the key, which is hanging inside. A very heavy fine will be imposed on any one who should break the glass for amusement or maliciously without cause.

Hewson for plaintiff and Geo. P. Thomas for defendant.

A VERY CLOSE CALL.

Ross and Fenton go with Donnelly and Girard next season. As this exceptionally clever team is a strong attraction, Donnelly and Girard will feature them, and have had a lot of printing especially for them. The other afternoon Charlie Ross was crossing Broadway, New York, and a cable car just grazed him. It was going full tilt, and the escape was a narrow one. Eddie Girard saw the occurrence, and those standing near him saw his face blanch and heard him mutter: "Great heavens! Nearly $4,000 of printing lost!"

Personal.

ORANGE SERMON.

The Orangemen of the lodges of this town turned out yesterday evening to the number of 100 and marched to the Free Baptist Church where Rev. Mr. Deware preached a very eloquent and powerful sermon on orangeism. The church was crowded. The Grand officers wore regalia.

A SAD SIGHT.

Among the passengers on the Quebec express for St. John Saturday an infant scarcely five years old, who from all appearances seemed to be as bright and happy as babies generally are. The little child was carried out of the station in the arms of a man, put in a coach and driven, it was learned, to the Lunatic Asylum. The young intellect was impaired and the child was sent to the asylum to finish its existence among idiots and lunatics. Patients of this age are fortunately very rare at the asylum.
