How Dollars Are Made!

By Stopping the Little Leaks

And losses great fortunes are accumulated. A loss of a few dollars on a suit of clothing may seem a small thing to some men, but it is losses such as these that make many men poor. The man who, instead of dealing with us, goes elsewhere and gets poor, shabby goods and slipshod, careless work in the making-up of these goods, is likely to look poor and feel poor, too, before many years. Gentlemen, stop these little leaks by dealing only with our firm, and you will then be sure of having clothing that will look well, wear well and fit well.

Some of The Best Dressed People

You see on the street are wearing suits and overcoats that have been cleaned, dyed and pressed at J. G. Francis' Steam Dye Works, and made to look as good as new. You cannot tell whether the people are wearing new suits or those that have been done over at the Steam Dye Works.

The cost? Why it is only a mere trifle. You will be surprised how cheaply the work can be done.

LOST HIS LIFE IN THE HARBOR.

A fatal accident occurred on board the steamer Saturnina a little after two o'clock this afternoon. The steamer is lying in the stream opposite Reeds point loading deals. One of the crew, a Spaniard, named Jose Celo Rodriguez, a native of Corune, was standing on a scow at the stern of the steamer painting, when a lift of deal, which was being raised into the steamer, struck against the projecting iron plates on the side and rebounding with force struck the man, knocking him into the water. Another man was at work alongside of Rodriguez and he was struck and severely bruised on the head and arms. Rodriguez was not seen after he fell into the water, and it is supposed he was dead before he struck the water. Boats were immediately sent out to search for the body, but as there is a heavy current it is probable his body was swept out of the harbor. The captain of the steamer came ashore almost immediately and notified the Spanish consul of the affair. Rodriguez was about 35 years old.

THE DISESTABLISHMENT BILL.

LONDON, June 19.—The cabinet met at 11 o'clock to-day, Lord Rosebery presiding. The session lasted an hour and a half.

The House of Commons in the course of a debate on the Welsh Church disestablishment bill to-day accepted amendments offered by the opposition, placing church schools and public chapels under a representative body instead of wholly disendowing them as the bill originally proposed.

MR. JOB MCFARLANE OF DOVER SUES HIS WIFE FOR DIVORCE.

Tuesday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Sweeney served the necessary papers in a divorce suit, brought by Job McFarlane of Dover, against his wife charging her with adultery. Mrs. McFarlane's maiden name was Mary Bleakney of Coverdale. The charges with one exception are general. The co-respondant is a hack driver at one of the city hotels, and the family residence of the Bleakney family is Coverdale and two hotels are specified as places visited by the parties. It is understood that Mrs. McFarlane protests her innocence. Chandler & Robinson will appear for the petitioner.

SCOTT ACT IN KINGS COUNTY.

At the court held at Hampton, on Monday, before Squires Peers and McLaughlin, fines amounting to nearly $600 were imposed on violators of the Scott act. W. T. Scriber, of the Vendome Hotel, Hampton, was fined for two offences, Patrick Doherty, of Sussex, for two; Thos. Quirk, of Newtown, for one, and others for one. A number of the liquor sellers at Sussex, it is said, are going out of business, as they have to pay more money in fines than they can make.

A CASE FOR THE S. P. C. A.

Tuesday afternoon two young men belonging to the city, engaged a rig from the stable of Charles Kinnie, Lutz street, and returned about 8 o'clock in the evening with the wagon top, seats and spokes of the wheels broken, and everything in general in a dilapidated condition. The horse had been over driven, and apparently badly beaten. Mr. Kinnie it is understood will bring an action against the parties.

A CURIOSITY.

In Mr. Watson's handsome drug store Charlestown P. E. I. there is a live curiosity of the funny tribe. It was captured in one of the salt water ponds at the park. Persons learned in piscatorial lore pronounce the fish a gudgeon, and the remarkable part consists in the fact that from its gills is growing quite a bunch of grass, between one and two inches long. The fish is lively. How the eel grass got there is a mystery.

LAWSON SOARING HIGH.

Lawson writes from Amherst to "Rob Roy," of the Boston Post, that he will fight any man in St. John for any amount up to $500 a side who is not over 145 pounds. He adds that he will fight Jack Power, who claims the championship of the provinces, if he will agree to scale the middleweight limit—158 pounds.

CANCER ON THE LIP
CURED BY
AYER'S Sarsaparilla

"I consulted doctors who prescribed for me, but to no purpose. I suffered in agony seven long years. Finally, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In a week or two I noticed a decided improvement. Encouraged by this result, I persevered until in a month or so the sore began to heal, and, after using the Sarsaparilla for six months, the last trace of the cancer disappeared."

THE WINDSOR INSTITUTIONS.

WINDSOR, June 19.—The weather is beautiful today and the closing of the Girl's school is very largely attended. Among the visitors from New Brunswick are Judge and Mrs. Barker, Judge Hanington, John B. and Miss Forster, Mrs. J. W. Y. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Campbell, Archdeacon Brigstocke, Dean Partridge, W. F. Campbell and many others.

This morning the programme was principally musical. The piano solo of Miss Madeline Barker, and song by Miss Constance Chandler, were among numbers particularly well-rendered. English, French and German recitations were delivered admirably. Prizes were then presented by Bishop Courtney as follows:

Gold star—Alice Moel, Newfoundland. Silver star—Medeline Barker, St. John; Lilian Dodd, Charlottetown; Beatrice Parker, St. Andrews.

Bishop's gold medal—Annie Mahon. Silver medals—Ethel Robbins and Florence Bowen.

Proficiency in vocal music—Constance Chandler, Dorchester; for needlework, Madge Brown, Moncton; for French and pianoforte, Madeline Barker; for music, Blanche Hanington, Dorchester.

Other prize winners are: Misses Dodwell, Pearson, Weeks, Burstall, Parker (St. Andrews), Price, Poole, Davies, Robbins, Christie (St. John), Pack, Roy, Sumner (Moncton), Covert (Grand Manan), Gilpin, Nichols and Chapman.

A BOLD INDIAN.

An Indian with plenty of gall, after assaulting a couple of old men in Carleton Tuesday morning, walked into Mrs. John Campbell's house, picked the baby up from its cradle and took it into the parlor. Mrs. Campbell, who was out milking a cow, soon returned and, missing her baby from its cradle, became nearly frantic, when on looking into the parlor she observed the Indian with her offspring on his knee, dancing it up and down, much to the enjoyment of the youngster. She rushed out of the house and met Officers Amos and McConnell, who were looking for the intruder for assaulting the two men on Union street. The Indian was immediately ejected to the street and there arrested and locked up in a cell in the city hall. Such a bold intruder as this should be severely dealt with. When Officer McConnell was bringing the prisoner over from Carleton to the jail, his man began to resist, and handcuffs were brought into use.—Telegraph.

SUPPOSED TO HAVE COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Newspaper readers will recollect the interest created throughout the country seven or eight years ago by the tragic death of the wife of Major Howes, of Boston. The major and his wife were coming down the Tobique river in a canoe when they were fired at from the shore and Mrs. Howes was killed. Two men were tried for the shooting, and were convicted and sentenced to long terms in the penitentiary. One of these was a young fellow named Phillipin, of a Swiss-French family that had come to Canada and had not prospered. They finally settled on the Tobique. At the trial, notwithstanding the heinousness of the offence, much sympathy was felt for young Phillipin, particularly on account of the efforts made by his sister, a young woman to save him. There were two or three Phillipin girls. One of these is now supposed to have committed suicide. She was a servant in the house of Judge Mercier, Concord, Mass., and lately showed signs of religious insanity. A few days ago she was seen to go towards the river and has not been seen since. The river has been dragged, but her remains have not been found. Miss Phillipin was about 30 years old.

PROBATE MATTERS.

Mr. F. W. Emerson, Judge of Probates, held probat court at Dorchester on Monday and Tuesday, when the following matters came before him:

Final accounts were passed in the estate of the late Archibald Simpson, W. W. Wells appearing for administrator, Jas. Friel for heirs and A. W. Bennett for the creditors. This case occupied a good portion of the two days.

In the estate of Thomas Spence, late of the parish of Botsford, letters test: menta were granted to his widow. Estate valued at $800 real, and $400 personal. F. J. Sweeney, proctor.

In the estate of Charles W. Spaggi, who died in South America last spring, letters of administration were granted to his widow. Estate valued at $300 real, and $100 personal. W. W. Wells, proctor.

In the estate of Henry J. Scott, late of the parish of Botsford, letters of administration were granted to his widow and brother William. Estate valued at $600, real and $200 personal. W. W. Wells proctor.

FIRST OF JULY SPORTS.

The M. A. A. have arranged a first class programme of sports for Dominion day. All the events, excepting one, are open to all amateurs of the Maritime Provinces. Following is the list of sports and prizes:

PACKET SWAMPED.

AND CARGO LOST IN THE RIVER—DEATH AT BOSTON.

Southampton Packet, the towboat plying between Fredericton and Woodstock in season of low water, was swamped a short distance below Springhill on its way up river with twenty barrels of sugar, ten barrels of flour and several barrels of cement, plaster and oil, two thousand bricks and a quantity of tea, feed, etc. The packet got stuck on a raft of logs and the tug Fanchon, which happened to be near by, went to her assistance and was towing her up stream above the raft when the swell of the steamboat swept over the side of the old fashioned craft and swamped her, as stated, with all her cargo. The Southampton Packet was owned by A. C. Grant, of Northampton, Carleton county. Mr. Stairs, of Southampton, was captaining her this season.

Wm. J. Gaynor, traveler for Eben Miller & Co., received a despatch from Boston last night announcing the death of an unmarried sister at that place. The deceased was injured in an elevator accident the other day, and it is supposed her death resulted from that. The remains are expected to arrive here this afternoon.

MOOSE HEAD AND ANTLERS CAUSE TROUBLE.

WOODSTOCK, June 18.—Some time ago a man named Cox of Millville shot a handsome moose near Judson Hale's camp on the Tobique. A gentleman from New York offered a good price for the head and antlers. Consequently the head and antlers were duly prepared and shipped en route to New York. When they got as far as Woodstock the express agent here found that he could not forward them. The game laws of the state of Maine are somewhat prohibitory, and it is as hard for a dead moose's head to get across the border as for a bluesone who has not thirty-five dollars on his person. According to the provisions of the Maine game laws no live or dead moose, caribou or deer can pass the border in close season under any condition, and in the open season a defunct moose's or caribou's head must be accompanied by its owner. This particular moose's head has been travelling between Tobique, Millville and Woodstock for some time, but it tries in vain to get across the border. Now the New York man has a scheme. It is to take the moose's head up to Quebec, thence to Toronto and into New York by way of Rochester. Probably he will succeed, as the New York restrictions are not so Chinese as those of the state of Maine.

A GANG OF DESPERATE TRAMPS.

TRURO, June 18.—This afternoon the chief of police received a telephone message from Brookfield, informing him that five tramps had passed that place, going in the direction of Truro and that they were acting very saucily. They smashed the lock from the section men's tool house and when reconstituted with, turned on one of the section men, but got the worst of the scuffle. Chief of Police McKenzie got assistance and went out the Halifax road a few miles, where the gang was "net." Only one was captured, the others escaping into the woods. The one arrested was brought to Truro and locked up. He gave his name as Carter and said he belonged to Loch Broom, near Pictou. However, close questioning proved him to be lying. He further stated that it was the intention of the gang to come to Truro to-night and rob some place and if interfered with to fight their way out. The gang is undoubtedly the one mentioned in the Halifax Herald the other day as having left Halifax for the country districts.

TRURO, June 18.—Truro jail is full of tramps. Since 10 o'clock to-night the police have captured six, which, with the one arrested this afternoon, makes seven.

FIRE BURNS $225,000 WORTH.

GREENVILLE, Ohio, June 18.—Fire started last night in the rear of Mezzart's store. The flames quickly spread to adjoining buildings and soon the very heart of the business centre was ablaze. The wholesale store of Westerfield Bros. was destroyed, as were the Tribune office, Methodist and Episcopal churches, large livery stable of H. E. Davis, and the home of Mrs. William Sullivan. The fire was the work of incendiaries. In the excitement thieves looted the town. Estimated loss, $225,000; insurance $50,000.

"THE OLD NOBILITY" AND THE TURF.

LONDON, June 20.—This was opening day at Ascot—beautiful weather and immense crowds including many of nobility; Ranensbury won great Ascot handicap with Saneho Pannea second; Prince of Wales' colt Peninnen won Coventry stakes and his second carried off the gold vase and money prizes given by the Queen.

FIVE MILLS ARE CLOSED.

AMESBURY, Mass., June 16.—All five mills of the Hamilton corporation closed to-day, remaining help being obliged to go out on account of the weavers strike. This throws 700 hands out of employment, some 300 of whom are strikers.

BOSTON'S LATEST MURDER.

BOSTON, June 20.—Raffelle Cataldo, an Italian aged 22, was arrested early this morning for murdering Vite DeMonti and stabbing Dominique Parisi and two other Italians in North Square last night.
