How Dollars Are Made!

By Stopping the Little Leaks

And losses great fortunes are accumulated. A loss of a few dollars on a suit of clothing may seem a small thing to some men, but it is losses such as these that make many men poor. The man who, instead of dealing with us, goes elsewhere and gets poor, shabby goods and slipshod, careless work in the making-up of these goods, is likely to look poor and feel poor, too, before many years. Gentlemen, stop these little leaks by dealing only with our firm, and you will then be sure of having clothing that will look well, wear well and fit well.

KILLED IN QUARREL.
LYNN, Mass., June 8.—John Hennessey, clerk in an all night lunch room, and Edward H. Belger, shoemaker, became involved in a quarrel early this morning in Hill's lunch room. Belger hit Hennessey with a catsup bottle over the left ear, making a very slight wound. The men continued the quarrel on the street and Hennessey returned and went to bed. About 7 this morning he was found dead. Belger was arrested.

Some of The Best Dressed People

You see on the street are wearing suits and overcoats that have been cleaned, dyed and pressed at J. G. Francis' Steam Dye Works, and made to look as good as new. You cannot tell whether the people are wearing new suits or those that have been done over at the Steam Dye Works.

The cost? Why it is only a mere trifle: You will be surprised how cheaply the work can be done.

SPORTING NEWS.

THE RING.
NEW YORK, June 8.—Mr. "Dan" Stewart, of Dallas, Tex., had a conference with Joe Venlig and William A. Brady, Corbett's manager, this evening at the Coleman House. After they separated, Mr. Stewart said to a reporter of the Associated Press: "I am now perfectly satisfied that the men mean business, and the fight will come off in Dallas on the last day of October next. All the details have been arranged satisfactorily to every one concerned, and nothing remains to close the matter except the posting of the guarantee of $5,000 from each of the principals. Mr. Brady has assured me that Corbett's money will be up by noon to-morrow, and I expect that Fitzsimmons, or his representative, will also be on time with a similar amount. The people whom I represent are solid business men, and there will be no possible chance of a slip up occurring."
Emanuel M. Friend, legal adviser of Fitzsimmons, said: "You can rest assured that the money to guarantee the appearance of Fitzsimmons in the ring will be in the hands of the stakeholders before many hours have elapsed."

THE WHEEL.
CONCORD, N. H., June 8.—In the Penacook road race of 12 miles yesterday the previous record was cut down by five minutes, C. Perfetti winning in 34 minutes and 18 seconds. His nearest competitors were A. C. Burnham, in 36 minutes 37 seconds, and W. M. Spine, in 37 minutes 45 seconds.

THE RIDING GALLERY.
All Saturday afternoon and evening up to a reasonably late hour the vicinity of the merry-go-round near the Transcript office, presented a scene well calculated to remind any person who has visited the neighboring republic's famous summer resorts of a day spent at those places. From an hour past noon until ten o'clock in the evening, the gallery was kept in motion with the exception of short stoppages to allow one crowd to be replaced by another, many taking a number of rides before alighting. The sport is exhilarating and pleasing to the senses, and is entirely free from danger. The machine is of modern improvement and the best ever used in the U. S. and Canada, being run by the celebrated ground cable system, strong and safe, thus avoiding any chance of it leaving the rails. The horses are of whitewood, set on eccentrics, which gives the usual galloping motion. Besides the horses there is a carriage, so that a pleasant drive may be enjoyed as well as the horse-back ride. A powerful military band organ adds the latest and most pleasing airs of the day to the enchantment of the scene. The whole apparatus is propelled by an 8 H. P. engine and boiler, in charge of Mr. Harding, an efficient and well known steam boat engineer. There is a seating capacity of 65. Children of tender years receive the most careful attention. Capt. McKinnon and Mr. George Murtart of Summerside, are partners in the concern, and those gentlemen are too well known to need any introduction to the public, who can rest assured that only gentlemen in the highest sense of the word are permitted in their employ and that no immoral language or improper conduct is tolerated. The Gallery was well patronized by the visiting crowd on Saturday. Mr. Mathews, conductor, whose duty it is to collect the fares, has made numberless friends by his pleasant and courteous manner.

DRIVER MCKENNA'S THRILLING EXPERIENCE.
Driver Thomas McKenna, the veteran engineer of the C. P. R., prevented what might have been a dreadful catastrophe. The train which he was driving a few nights ago was bowling along at a fair rate of speed, and on nearing a bridge Mr. McKenna noticed, as he thought, a few section men on the track. He blew the whistle, but the objects did not move, and on closer observation saw, to his horror, instead of section men, about six head of cattle on the bridge. He immediately blew for brakes, and the train was brought to a stand still. Some of the cattle had their feet wedged down between the stringers of the bridge, and it was with difficulty that they were driven off.

Had the engine crashed into the animals on the bridge it would have been derailed, and in all probability would have broken through the bridge and a loss of life would have followed. Thus a very serious accident was averted by Mr. McKenna's coolness.

A WOMAN AT THE BOTTOM OF IT.
A woman was in a hurry to board a Wabash avenue cable car. At the same time a one-legged man was in a hurry to leave the car. The woman collided with the man, knocked his crutch from under his arm and he fell upon the pavement. After the woman had made herself secure in the seat of the car she turned and made a profuse apology. The man was in no mood to accept it. He shook his crutch before her and cursed her. The woman's face grew crimson. The conductor enjoyed the occurrence. In doing so he stepped on a man's corn. The man toppled and fell against another man knocking off the latter's silk hat. In scrambling to catch it he fell off. He raved and swore, and the man who had knocked off the hat, being pugnacious, jumped from the car and there was a fight. The conductor was heard to mutter: "Always a woman."—Chicago Tribune.

MINISTER'S SAD FATE.
DIED FROM EXPOSURE AND STARVATION.
GUTHRIE, O. T., June 8.—John P. Smith, Baptist preacher who escaped from jail at Stillwater, ten days ago, has been found lying dead along the roadside in an adjoining county. He had been in poor health for a long time and stole meat to keep his wife and little children from starving. He was arrested and convicted of theft and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. Following his punishment too great he broke jail and met death from exposure and starvation.

Items of Interest.
Geo. Foss, of Oromocto, near Fredericton, caught four eagles, alive, in a trap one day last week. Two of them are on exhibition in Fredericton. Each measures ten feet from tip to tip.
Between thirty five and forty elevators are to be erected at points on the C. P. R. in Manitoba, and there are to be others erected along the Northern Pacific and Manitoba Northwestern, besides two in Winnipeg.

Emmanuel St. Louis, the Montreal bridge contractor, is to be prosecuted again on the charge of robbing the government of $170,000 in connection with the building of the bridge.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 8.—At Benton yesterday the charred remains of three persons were found in the embers of the freight wreck on the Iron Mountain Railroad. The victims were shut in a freight car and burned before assistance could reach them.

SHOT HIMSELF IN A PARLOR CAR.
SYRACUSE, June 8.—Thomas N. Fagin of 150 Orchard street, Rochester, took the Southwestern limited on the New York Central railroad at Rochester this morning.
As the train passed out of Lyons he entered the men's toilet room of the parlor car. Westmorland and locked himself in. Soon afterward two shots were heard.
Conductor Monohan and a brakeman burst in the door and found Fagin lying on the floor with a revolver wound in his forehead just above the right eye. A bullet hole in the car window showed where the other shot had gone.
Fagin was removed to St. Joseph's hospital in Syracuse where he died. He had been drinking heavily in the last week and had been arrested for assaulting a man in Rochester.

INHALED GAS FOR FUN.
COVINGTON, Ky., June 7.—A policeman found several boys, in a deep slumber, lying on the grass by the roadside. It required some work to awaken them. Each had a handkerchief spread over his mouth, and the policeman thought at first that he had run across a suicide club.
The boys finally said that they had climbed one of the city lamp posts and had turned on the gas until their handkerchiefs had been thoroughly saturated. Then they had climbed down and retired to the grass to lie down and have a good sleep. They described the sensation produced from inhaling the gas as delightful, producing a dreamy condition lasting for an hour. The practice has been going on among hundreds of boys for some time, and many of them are gas drunks.

JUSTICE OVERTAKES A FUGITIVE.
LAGRANGE, Mo., June 8.—The body of Col. Ed. Moore, of Canton, was found swinging from a tree on his land opposite that city yesterday morning. He was a fugitive from justice. Two weeks ago he went home intoxicated, and with a sword tried to kill his wife and children. A warrant was issued, but he fled. Col. Moore was, during the war, a staff officer, and at the battle of Shiloh General Grant paid him a glowing tribute for his bravery in delivering a message. He was a prominent member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and is known all over the country.

GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER.
SALEM, Mass., June 7.—The jury after nearly six hours deliberation yesterday brought in a verdict of guilty against Annie Maud Brewer, of Lynn charged with manslaughter in killing her lover, Gideon W. Lattimer, of Lynn, on December 30, 1894. Attorney Sisk, her counsel, took exception and applied for a new trial.
Lattimer was engaged to Miss Brewer and on the night of December 30th, called upon her at her home in order to break the engagement. A quarrel ensued and it was alleged that Miss Brewer followed Lattimer to the door and shot him. Lattimer died a few days later in the hospital.

YACHT RACE.
SHERNESS, Eng., June 7.—In a fresh northeaster, Mr. Howard Gould's 20-rater Niagara and two other yachts of the same class started at 12.30 p. m. to-day in a race. The course was from the Nore lightship around the East Buoy, the Ooze and the Mouse lightship, returning to the Nore lightship, twice around to complete the course. At 1.15 p. m. Niagara was leading with Luda second.

The Prince of Wales, Britannia and A. B. Walker's Ailsa, were to have started over the same course in a race for a prize offered for yachts of their class. But the Ailsa's mainsails split at the gaff and she was compelled to retire.

BOUND AND GAGGED.
A LADY SEIZED BY MASKED ROBBERS.

UTICA, N. Y., June 7.—Miss Sarah L. Goodier, aged 40 years, residing in the town of Litchfield, was bound and gagged by masked robbers.

The robbers awakened Miss Goodier at 11 o'clock while in bed and took her by the throat.

They demanded that she tell where her money was and upon her refusing, the men tore up the sheet on her bed and stuffed pieces of it in her mouth. Then they bound her hand and foot to the bed, after which the ruffians beat and bruised their victim in a horrible manner.

The robbers ransacked the entire house. Much that was valuable was taken. Miss Goodier is very wealthy. Gold and silver plate were taken, and all the money together with a note for $235 was also secured. There was no other person in the house.

Miss Goodier became unconscious and remained so for over four hours, when she managed to get her hands loose and crawled over to the house of her brother-in-law and gave the alarm.

The pieces of cloth were covered with blood, so roughly had they been forced into her mouth. She presented a shocking sight.

The men were all disguised, and Miss Goodier can give no description of them. The Sheriff has organized a searching posse.

CURED BY TAKING
AYER'S Sarsaparilla
"I was afflicted for eight years with Salt Rheum. During that time, I tried a great many medicines which were highly recommended, but none gave me relief. I was at last advised to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and before I had finished the fourth bottle, my hands were as free from eruptions as ever they were. My business, which is that of a cab-driver, requires me to be out in cold and wet weather, often without gloves, but the trouble has never returned."—THOMAS A. JOHNS, Stratford, Ont.
