How Dollars Are Made!

By Stopping the Little Leaks

And losses great fortunes are accumulated. A loss of a few dollars on a suit of clothing may seem a small thing to some men, but it is losses such as these that make many men poor. The man who, instead of dealing with us, goes elsewhere and gets poor, shabby goods and slipshod, careless work in the making-up of these goods, is likely to look poor and feel poor, too, before many years. Gentlemen, stop these little leaks by dealing only with our firm, and you will then be sure of having clothing that will look well, wear well and fit well.

Some of The Best Dressed People

You see on the street are wearing suits and overcoats that have been cleaned, dyed and pressed at J. G. Francis' Steam Dye Works, and made to look as good as new. You cannot tell whether the people are wearing new suits or those that have been done over at the Steam Dye Works.

The cost? Why it is only a mere trifle: You will be surprised how cheaply the work can be done.

AN OLD CRONE'S PROPHECY.

SHE PREDICTED, IT IS ALLEGED, THREE VIOLENT DEATHS THAT HAVE OCCURRED.

NEW YORK, June 11.—A writer in the Recorder asserts that the death of the Duke of Hamilton, which took place recently in Algiers, was due to a pistol shot, self-inflicted in a moment of intense physical agony, caused by gout, coupled with mental depression. The writer goes on to say that the Duke is the third of a memorable party of four who has died a violent death—and the surviving fourth is no other than the Prince of Wales. A few months before the young Prince Imperial of France started for South Africa, whence he never returned, he paid a visit of five days to the Duke of Hamilton, at Hamilton Palace, in Scotland, his fellow guests being Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria and the Prince of Wales. There, the story goes on, an old crone told the fortunes of the party, and to all four she predicted a violent death, and that, too, within a given period, giving a number of details both with regard to the past and the future of the princes and of the Duke. The party broke up the following day, laughing; at the prediction, yet, it is said, impressed by it. The fate of the Prince Imperial in Zululand and the death of Prince Rudolph of Austria at Meyerling are well known. Now, asserts the Recorder's contributor, the Duke of Hamilton lies dead with a bullet in his brain.

The story concludes: "This is the first time to my knowledge that this story of the Hamilton Palace visit, or rather of the meeting with the old woman above-mentioned, has ever been described in print. It is only known to a few of the Prince's most intimate friends and associates, none of whom has ever shown and disposition to talk about it; for in spite of being in every sense of the word fiat scilicet, the Prince of Wales is exceedingly superstitious."

AFTER AN ONTARIO MURDERER.

PETERBORO, June 13.—Detective Murray, of Toronto, has reached here to make arrests in connection with the alleged murder of David Scollie, who in February, 1864, was found in the ruins of the Grey homestead at Otonabee, headless, and the body buried to crisp. The Greys were keeping Scollie for the balance of his life and had taken over his farm. After the fire they went to the States. Now it is alleged that a woman near the place has confessed that Scollie was given a sleeping draught, beheaded, and the house set on fire to hide the crime. The case bids fair to become memorable in the criminal records of Ontario.

SMUGGLING AS PREVALENT AS EVER.

Messrs. O'Shaughnessy and Bonus, customs detectives, were in town recently. They arrived here Tuesday evening from Dorchester where they made a tour of inspection, also visiting Rockland and Memramcook. In conversation with Mr. Transcript representative here Mr. O'Shaughnessy said that it was the opinion of the people generally that smuggling was rapidly dying out but from his experience it is carried on as large a scale as fifty years ago. This fact, he said is not conceded for the reason that goods when sold are rarely ever suspected of having been smuggled.

GROVER CLEVELAND'S SERVICES.

Washington, June 10.—The Chinese minister here, in company with Acting Secretary of State Uhl, waited upon the president yesterday afternoon and presented him with a letter from the Emperor of China, thanking him in graceful terms, for the kindly offices exercised by the United States in behalf of the restoration of peace between China and Japan. The imperial communication was in the Chinese language and handsomely encased in royal yellow.

A FATHER SHOTS HIS SON DEAD.

LIONSHEAD, Ont., June 13.—At Dyer's bay, near here, last evening Jas. Graham, a farmer, mistaking his son's hat for a mark which the boy had gone to set up for him to shoot at, dense brush hiding his body from view, shot the boy through the head. Death resulted instantly.

NOVA SCOTIA FREEMASONS.

OFFICERS OF THE ROYAL ARCH GRAND CHAPTER.—GRAND LODGE PROCEEDINGS.

The meeting of the Grand Masonic Lodge of Nova Scotia is quite an event and creates much interest. The Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons met and completed their labors Tuesday. The address of the G. H. P. was full and exhaustive and showed the affairs of the order to be vigorous and healthy. The representation from the various chapters was very satisfactory, the provinces of Nova Scotia, P. E. Island and Newfoundland, over which the jurisdiction extends, being all represented. The new members of the grand council, together with the treasurer and secretary were elected and installed as follows:

Most Excellent Grand High Priest—S. W. Crabbs, P. E. I.
R. E. Grand Ring—Lewis E. Tremaine, Sydney.
R. E. Grand Scribe—A. W. Mahon, Halifax.

The appointed officers are from the various chapters throughout the jurisdiction. The following were some of the most prominent companions present: W. B. Alley, Truro, high priest; A. J. Willis, St. John's, Nfld., grand king; D. H. Campbell, Halifax, grand scribe; J. W. Ruhlman, Halifax, grand treasurer; Alexander Ross, Halifax, grand secretary; T. A. Cossman; A. J. McNutt, J. J. McKel, C. J. McDonald, James Dempster, Hon. William Ross, and E. T. Mahon, Halifax; S. W. Crabbe, Charlottetown; W. E. Leger, Truro; M. G. Marshall, Annapolis, and a large representation from the chapter of Sydney.

The masonic grand lodge opened at 10 a. m. A large attendance was present. The members marched in procession from the lodge-room to St. Andrew's church. A sermon was preached by Rev. D. McMillan. At the afternoon session routine business was transacted and reports presented. An "at home" took place in temperance hall.

A SENATORIAL SENSATION.

BESIGNATION OF SEVEN MEMBERS OF THE DIVORCE COMMITTEE.

OTTAWA, June 12.—The Senate furnished a sensation to-day in the resignation of seven out of the nine senators who composed the divorce committee. The committee had recommended the granting of a divorce in the case of L. O'Dell, of Quebec, which was thrown out by the senate. On tendering their resignation the seven senators who resigned signed a report setting forth their reasons for declining to serve.

The report was a reflection on the Roman Catholic members of the senate who, being opposed to the principle of divorce, were inclined to prejudice the case before the evidence was all heard. In the O'Dell case the husband who is applying for divorce is a Protestant, the wife of Catholic. The senators who resigned were Kerchoffer, Read, Loughhead, MacKindsey, McInnes, Primrose and Ferguson.

DOG AND HORSE IN A FIGHT.

BLOOMFIELD, June 11.—A fight took place between a horse and a bulldog. William H. Young, of Linden avenue, heard a noise in his stable about noon and found a bulldog owned by Louis King with his teeth imbedded in the horse's nose. The animal was pawing with his fore feet vainly endeavouring to trample on the dog. Mr. Young tried to make the dog let go by using a pitchfork, but he could not, and he shouted for help. An axe was procured, and the dog was knocked senseless by a blow. As soon as the dog dropped the horse sprang upon him with both fore feet, and shook the life out of him. Mr. Young and his assistants were obliged to resort to heroic measures again to make the horse loosen his hold on the dead dog. The axe was used to pry open the jaws of the horse. The horse's head was badly torn by the dog.

A RECREANT LOVER PUNISHED.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., June 13.—Justina Gailla avenged herself upon her lover Pasquall Muschto, on Seventh Avenue yesterday by cutting his throat. The girl is only sixteen and quite pretty. By-standers saw Muschto push the girl aside. She sprang upon him, encircling his neck with her left arm and drew a razor across his throat. Muschto fell to the pavement. The policeman took the girl to the station house and her victim was removed to Mount Vernon Hospital, where he will probably die. The girl said she was a native of Naples, and Muschto had ruined her under promise of marriage. She was committed to the county jail to await the result of the man's injuries.

TO CALL MINISTER TUPPER TO ACCOUNT.

MONTREAL, June 12.—The last has not been heard regarding the statement made by Sir Charles H. Tupper, minister of justice, in the commons, that there had been a miscarriage of justice in the St. Louis case which was interpreted here as a reflection on the judgment of Judge Desnoyers. The judge this morning wrote to the minister protesting against the statement. A petition is being signed to-day asking Hon. J. E. Robidoux, battonier of the bar, to call a meeting to protest against the statement of the minister of justice.

SHOT AT HIS WIFE AND SUICIDED.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Sigmund Schneider, 36 years of age, shot his wife in the forehead at 4 o'clock this morning, probably fatally injuring her. He then turned the revolver upon himself. Pressing the muzzle of the weapon to his right temple, he fired, blowing out his brain. He is said to have been the son of a wealthy miller in Silesia, Germany.

CORBETT-FITZSIMMONS.

ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE FOR THEIR COMING BATTLE.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Daniel Stewart reached Chicago Wednesday evening, from New York, whither he had been to arrange for the championship battle between Jim Corbett and Robert Fitzsimmons, and is now on his way to Dallas, Texas, to arrange for the building of a mammoth amphitheatre in which the men will settle the question of fistic superiority. "The Florida Athletic club has simply been transferred to Dallas," Stewart said.

"I met the parties in New York with a plain business proposition. I produced a copy of the Texas law, showing that there is no law in the state against bringing off a meeting between Corbett and Fitzsimmons. I told them if the Florida Athletic club was transferred to Dallas, I must be elected president and treasurer of the club. Vendig and a friend thought this over, and the result was that I was elected President-Treasurer of the Athletic club and the club is transferred to Dallas.

"I am now on my way to Dallas to begin the construction of the amphitheatre in which the fight will take place. It will be a mammoth structure built in Octagonal shape. There will be four entrances. The seating capacity will be forty thousand. There will be 250 boxes with ten chairs in each.

The prices for boxes has not been determined but the admission will be $10 with reserved seats $20. During the week in which the event will take place there will be a fair in Dallas. There will be excursion rates to all surrounding states.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

ELECTRICITY DOES DAMAGE TO THE MACKENZIE TOWER.

OTTAWA, June 13.—About 11 o'clock to-day when a thunder storm was passing over the city lightning struck the Mackenzie tower over the Western Departmental Block.

The lightning entered the window of the drawing room of the architect's office in the tower room situated on the fourth story. Two or three clerks were at work in the centre of the room. One of them was thrown below the table with the shock.

The others were struck with plaster from the roof but none of them are badly injured. The room was a wreck. The plaster was torn from the walls and the locks stripped off the doors.

The current travelled downwards to the basement of the building, where F. Breton, chief clerk of works was at his desk. He is still lying unconscious from the shock he sustained but it is expected he will recover.

NEGRO ASSAILANT LYNCHED.

THE SHERIFF OFFERED NO RESISTANCE AND THE MOB DID ITS WORK.

LUFKIN, Texas, June 13.—Will Johnson colored, who raped the little seven-year-old child of Robert Schaffner, was captured and taken to jail where the little victim identified Johnson as the guilty man. Within fifteen minutes 500 quiet and determined men were marching to the jail.

The sheriff made no resistance and the prisoner was taken to the public square where an improvised gallows had been erected. The sides of the square were packed with men and children. The trembling brute was seized and suspended in the air, where he remained many hours, the curious standing about gazing on the corpse.

PEOPLE STARVING.

DETROIT, Mich., June 13.—A special to the News from Midland, Mich., says: Twenty-four citizens of Hubbard, heads of families, marched into Midland this morning and besieged the county officials, demanding something to eat. Thirty Hubbard families are destitute of food. The people have no market for their wood and tan bark. Hubbard was settled three years ago by Germans from Detroit. The railroad is not running now and the settlers are desperate. The men were fed to-day and will be further supplied.
