AN ELOCUTIONIST COMING.

There was a grand recital given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid in the Methodist Church, Collingwood, on Tuesday evening to a large and enthusiastic audience. Effie Elaine Hext, the well known Elocutionist, was the principal entertainer. She has been reciting through Canada of late with great success and can count Collingwood among the towns of her possession. Never was an audience here better satisfied with an entertainment of like nature. Her manne of execution gave the audienae a new and soulful insight into the meaning of the authors. Miss Hext's voice work is grand, her face sweet and expressive, and her gestures perfection. Hearty rounds of applause followed each rendition, and Miss Hext had to respond to four encores. The most striking teature of the evening was the statuesque posing of Miss Hext, by which she expressed many human emotions in an attractive Greek gown. Posings have been given before in Collingwood, but all who saw Miss Hext declare her without an equal in this line. Miss Hext was well assisted by local alent and the Choir and the Ladies Aid made a big success out of it. Miss Hext will always be greeted with crowded nouses in Collingwood. She will recite n School room of Presbyterian church here on June 19th.

FOOT PADS.

Two nights ago at the hour of two in the morning, officers Scott and Thomp were attracted by a noise at the rear of W. H. Faulkner's building. On investigating, they found it to be the shutters on Dr. Purdy's house. Returning to Main street they noticed three men coming up WANTED AT ONCE. - A smart | Main street. Kings County for (5) five of the best other two. They however took to their heels and were soon lost in the darkness. The Commercial man said they had followed him some distance up Main street and one had obstructed his passage while the other demanded money, the traveller told them he would give them some if they would come up to the light up the street. They were going there when the police happily put in an appearance, thus saving the stranger from being robbed. The two men in question are Ned Armstrong and Joe Comeau, the latter was arrested next morning while intoxicated and is now in the cells. Armstrong as yet has not been secured.

Founders with whom the representatives have come in contact speak well of the results they are now getting with this brand, especially in making stove plates. Quebec is, as noted some time ago, looked after by W. A. MacLennan, 407 Board of Trade, and Ontario, by Frank P. ACCIDENT CAUSED BY BICYCLE.

Last evening as Mr. and Mrs. Peter McSweeney were driving on the Mountain Road, near Mr. Winter's farm, the horse became frightened at a bicycle which was coming rapidly down hill carrying a young lady dressed in white. The horse quickly turned, tipping the wagon and throwing out Mrs. McSweeney, who alighted on her left shoulder. It was not known to our informant whether the shoulder was broken or not, but quite serious injuries were susnow in the cells for drunkenness, and her
