How Dollars
Are Made!

By Stopping the Little Leaks
And losses great fortunes are accumulated. A loss of a few dollars on a suit of clothing may seem a small thing to some men, but it is losses such as these that make many men poor. The man who, instead of dealing with us, goes elsewhere and gets poor, shabby goods and slipshod, careless work in the making-up of these goods, is likely to look poor and feel poor, too, before many years. Gentlemen, stop these little leaks by dealing only with our firm, and you will then be sure of having clothing that will look well, wear well and fit well.

IN THE HAREM.

THE SLAVE IS SUBMISSIVE AND OBEDIENT TO HER LORD AND MASTER.

For the service of the harem, as at present constituted, slaves are indispensable, it being unlawful for a free Moslem woman to appear unveiled before any man not a near relative, while to a slave, who is the property of her master or mistress, no such restriction attaches so far as they are concerned. Since the abolition of the public slave market the private trade in slaves has become much more general and widely spread than it formerly was, and is carried on to a great extent by ladies of rank, some of whom are themselves emancipated slaves.

In addition to the negroes and other women of unattractive exterior, to whom the menial duties of the household are assigned, these lady dealers pay large sums for pretty children of from 4 to 10 years of age, who are carefully trained for the higher positions they will probably be called upon to occupy. Many Turks prefer, for various reasons, to marry women who have been brought up slaves. Marriage with a free woman is, indeed, a very expensive matter for a young bridegroom and his parents owing to the lavish outlay in presents and entertainments required by custom on such occasions. Consequently, if a father cannot afford to marry his son to a maiden of his own rank, he purchases for him a slave girl who has been educated in some great lady's harem and no expense is incurred beyond the purchase money.

A slave, having no position of her own, is submissive and obedient to her anxious to please her lord and master, has no troublesome pretensions of caprices and no interfering relatives to take her part against him. A free woman, on the other hand, is by no means always disposed to have, according to her own expression, "neither mouth nor tongue." She is fully aware of her rights and inclined to assert them, and the moral support afforded by her family gives her an assurance which the husband often finds extremely inconvenient. -Nineteenth Century.

A RECORD BREAKER.

A family of ten sturdy children, all under 3½ years of age, is attracting a good deal of attention in Wauchula, Fla. The mother of the children, Mrs. William Webb, first bore twins, then triplets, and on April 4 last she gave birth to quintuplets, four girls and one boy, all of whom are said to be thriving remarkably well. It is proposed to introduce a bill into the Florida Legislature for the relief of the parents of this large and little family, as they are very poor. CANCER ON THE LIP
CURED BY
AYER'S Sarsaparilla
"I consulted doctors who prescribed for me, but to no purpose. I suffered in agony seven long years. Finally, I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In a week or two I noticed a decided improvement. Encouraged by this result, I persevered, until in a month or so the sore began to heal, and after using the Sarsaparilla for six months, the last trace of the cancer disappeared."

A DESPERATE PLOT.

THREE HALIFAX TOWNS HELD AT TRURO - CONFESSION OF ONE.

A telephone to the police from Truro this morning says that three of the tramps arrested there yesterday belong to Halifax. They are three of the gang that left Halifax recently. One of them confessed this morning that the gang, including four others not captured, had completed arrangements to burglarize several places in Truro, including the post office and some of the largest business places. The "attack" on Truro was to have been made between 1 and 2 o'clock to-morrow morning. The man who made the confession hails from Pictou. He was in Halifax six weeks. He is an ex-convict. The two others arrested were Aikens and Lawlor. Lawlor's people reside in Halifax. Aikens is an ex-convict, and is well known to the Halifax police. His native place is Yarmouth. Four of the gang escaped; their names are Fox, White, Walsh and Smith. The latter's correct name is Scanlan. He is a brother of Scanlan who shot Clarence Fleming on Albemarle street. Walsh, known as "Commercial Walsh," alias "Tatters," has spent half of his life in prison. Fox and White are also ex-convicts. The confession of the Pictou man implicates the whole gang. It further shows that the gang had decided to quit Truro the morning of the burglary and reappear again on the Dominion Atlantic line, to resume operations there, and then jump back to Pictou county, and then to Antigonish. -Halifax Mail.

REMEDIAL LEGISLATION.

A late Ottawa despatch tells us the report that Mr. Haggart is on a strike gathers currency this morning. Hon. Michael Adams informed me this morning that last evening a member of the cabinet had stated to him that positively remedial legislation would be brought down next week and that another session would be held before dissolution, probably in January.

One of the Manitoba Tory representatives also stated that indirectly he had heard the same announcement. Asked as to the number of Protestant Tories who would probably vote against the government on remedial legislation he said that it would not exceed seventeen or eighteen.

On the other hand the Ontario Tories are talking in a determined way of opposing any such legislation and they do not conceal the fact that they will fight the question to the bitter end. I have just talked with a Conservative Ontario member who was informed by Minister Foster last night that positively the school matter had not been discussed in council yet and would not be until the Manitoba legislature had been officially heard from. "The rumors afloat as to the Government's having decided upon a definite line of action," Mr. Foster said, "were not based upon fact."

DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE TO RESIGN.

LONDON, June 21.—The announcement of the secretary of state of war, Mr. Campbell-Bannerman, that the duke of Cambridge, commander-in-chief of the British forces, would resign Oct. 1, precipitated a discussion in the house of commons today. After stating that the post would not be abandoned, but simply modified, Mr. Campbell-Bannerman added that future commanders-in-chief would be subject to the ordinary rules affecting other staff appointments, and the office would be tenable for the usual terms of years, capable of extension. Continuing, he said that the commander-in-chief would be the principal military adviser of the secretary of state for war, and with the adjutant general, the quartermaster general, the director of artillery and the inspector of forts, each being personally responsible to the secretary of state for war, would form deliberate counsel to advise the secretary.

BLEW HIS BRAINS OUT.

A PLUCKY WOMAN DEFENDS HERSELF FROM AN INSULTER.

AMORY, Mass., June 22.—At Greenwood Springs, a summer resort fifteen miles from here, Bruce Flanagan, proprietor of the hotel, called at the residence of Frank Dean. Finding Mrs. Dean alone he made an improper proposal, so she claims.

She immediately disarmed him of a pistol which he had and blew his brains out. She then secured her husband's shot gun, levelled the muzzle at the dead man's breast, and fired both barrels. Mrs. Dean has not been arrested and probably will not be.

A QUAIN ADVERTISEMENT.

The following quaint advertisement is from a South African paper:

BIRTH.
"It was on Thursday, 0.30 a. m., the fourth of April, 1895, that in the passive retirement of C. M. de Tarnosky family, at Bonne Terre F. e. i. s., a lovely babe named Eliacin Milton Lubomir has drawn his first breath of life, on this earthly world. All generous, christian friends, kindly pray our Heavenly Father, to protect this puny, living spring through time and for eternity."

MONCTON BOYS.

Masters Edward McSweeney and Mayne Archibald, who have been pursuing their studies at St. Joseph's College and at Pictou respectively, have returned home for the summer vacation. The high standing of Moncton boys at the various educational institutions is very gratifying. Percy Crandell was valedictorian of the Normal school graduating class, and the name of James Bruce appears at the head of a number of the class lists at Mount Allison. At the closing exercises at St. Joseph's we learn that Edward McSweeney carried off thirteen premiums, being tie with W. P. McNamara from Boston.

BOLD BANK ROBBERY.

AT TOWER, MINN., June 24.—Information was received here of the robbery of the Bank of Rainy Lake City on the Canadian border, late on Thursday afternoon by two masked men, who after holding up and knocking senseless the cashier after a desperate struggle bound him and robbed the bank of some $30,000, after which they made their escape. Just before the hour for closing Cashier Johnson was alone in the bank when two masked men appeared upon the scene and rushed behind the counter with revolvers in their hands. The cashier made a jump for his gun, but before he could reach it one of the robbers was upon him. Then followed a desperate struggle, during which the masked men shot twice at Cashier Johnson, who was struggling to get away and proceeded to go through the vault, the inner door of which was locked. By this time there was quite a crowd outside the bank. The two robbers hurriedly filled the front part of the safe with powder and touched it off, blowing the safe to pieces and scattering the silver all over the place. The packages of bills were all wrapped up in paper, and for that reason were not in reach. Just as he was within a foot of the drawer where it lay, the second robber dealt him several heavy blows on the head with the butt end of his weapon. Johnson sank to the floor unconscious. The robbers, who still wore their masks, then locked the door, as several persons had been attracted thither. These packages, the contents amounting in all to almost $30,000, the robbers hurriedly stowed away in their pockets and with drawn guns made a dash for the street and rode off. Their boldness staggered the spectators and for a moment no one was capable of making a move. A posse was at once formed and is now scouring the whole country for them.

$2,000 PER DAY AT CARIBOO.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 22.—Particulars were received today of the clean-up at the Cariboo Hydraulic Company's mine in Cariboo. The run was only 172 hours with deficient water supply. The clean-up gives over $14,000, or at the rate of about $2,000 per day. The result caused great satisfaction. Next month the company expects to have the ditch completed, when the water supply will be ample and the mine successful.

The Horseshy Hydraulic Company expects up next week, when large returns are expected.

STEAMER COLINDA GOING TO PIECES.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 22.—The steamer Colinda, reported ashore on Fisher's Island, is fast going to pieces. During the past few days the waves have broken over her in a manner which leaves little doubt of her destruction. She was bound from Fall River to New York with a cargo of empty barrels and bales of coal. Nearly all has been removed by New London tugs, and the remainder is being taken off as rapidly as possible.

PRIZE FIGHTER ARRESTED.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 21.—Young Corbett and Eddie Firce, the two prize fighters who were arrested after engaging in a boxing contest before the Seaside athletic club of Coney Island, on June 17, on charge of taking part in a prize fight, were arraigned in the West Brighton police court today. When the case came up today, Pierce and Young Corbett both pleaded not guilty, and were held in $500 bail to await the action of Kings county court.

THE HAMILTON MILLS STRIKE.

AMESBURY, Mass., June 21.—The strike among the 900 operatives of the Hamilton mills will be one of endurance. The conference between the men, Secretary Cahill, of the Textile League, and Agent Quinn, of the corporation, this afternoon produced no results. The latter would offer no concessions to the strikers. The operatives will hold a meeting to-morrow forenoon, and will probably vote to continue the strike.

VETERANS IN A FATAL QUARREL.

CANTON, Mass., June 22.—Jeremiah Crowley died yesterday from the effects of injuries received in a fight Tuesday evening with I. L. Johnson. Both are members of post 94, Grand Army of Cantou. It is claimed that Johnson had written to the headquarters of the Grand Army of Boston stating that Crowley was a worthless fellow and that he was spending his pension on drink.

HELD UP IN PORTLAND.

PORTLAND, Me., June 21.—This evening a port named Cony was held up by three men while walking down Plum street, evidently for the purpose of robbing him. He defended himself against their attack and was struck a severe blow over the head, inflicting an ugly and dangerous wound. The men failed in their attempt of robbery, but made good their escape.

A BOY MURDERER.

Advices from Jamaica tonight give the particulars of the hanging at Spanish Town, on the 9th inst, of a boy murderer, Alexander Huggins who outraged a little six-year-old girl named Adela Elizabeth Drake, and then killed her for fear she would tell of his crime. He was unrepentant to the end.

CELEBRATES HER 140TH NATAL DAY.

HALIFAX, June 22.—Halifax celebrated her 140th natal day. Business was entirely suspended, and all of the many attractions were well patronized.
