LOCAL NEWS.

Vote for Killam and shorter hours. Warden Foster was in town yesterday.

Mr. E. Ryan, of Toronto, is in town on business. Mr. Israel Tarte is registered at the Brunswick.

Miss Trites, of Charlottetown, is in town visiting friends. J. H. McDermott, of Harcourt, is in town.

R. G. Stractan, of Guelph, Ontario, is registered at the Brunswick. John Robertson, of Fredericton, is in the city.

Mr. James W. Patterson of Campbellton, is in town registered at the Royal. Mr. H. N. Chamberlain, of Ottawa is at the Royal.

Thoughtful Christian men will vote to leave the infidel at home. Mr. Davies, of Prince Edward Island, left to-day for Petitediac to attend a political meeting there to-night.

Toole will probably draw on Powell and Bennett after the election is over for a rum bill as he did before. Show Powell by your vote next Saturday that Rum Infidelity and deception will not be endorsed. Vote for Killam.

Mr. Stanfield, manager of the Central Bookstore, returned home yesterday from Truro, where he has been on business. Warden Foster was in town yesterday attending the political meeting.

Mr. E. Powell, of this city, who has been employed by E. Alexander, Campbellton, as book-keeper, arrived home today to spend a short vacation with his parents.

The 74th Batt. Band will meet in full uniforms at the Brunswick Hotel at 18 o'clock for the purpose of being photographed. They will afterwards give a musical entertainment on the lawn.

The city is said to be again full of crazy Powell, election run, and Mr. Fred Summer had to be ordered to keep quiet at the rink last night.

Mrs. William Starkey, of Weldon street, accompanied by Master Sydney Bradbury, went to St. John yesterday morning on a pleasure trip.

$200 for rum, or "swipes," paid by draft on Powell at his last election.

The question of shorter hours must attract the attention of the whole Dominion. The electors know Powell's views. Vote for Killam the working man's friend.

Mr. A. J. Woods, who was for two or three years night clerk at the Brunswick Hotel in this city, but who is now manager of the Waverly Hotel, Campbellton, is in town renewing acquaintances.

Mr. D. C. Fraser, M. P. for Guysborough, who has been here attending the political meeting last night, left to-day for Sackville, where he addresses the voters of that place to-night. He was accompanied by Mr. Fielding.

We do not know how much property the St. Lawrence Lumber Company may have had but if the Masters-Powell method of dealing with it was adopted, the creditors would not be "in it" as the boys say.

An interesting incident is mentioned in connection with Henry M. Stanley taking the oath last week in the house of Commons. After being sworn, he passed the Testament to the member waiting behind him. The latter turned out to be James J. O'Kelly, member of North Roscommon, with whom Mr. Stanley spoke last 20 years ago when they met in Africa. Both members were formerly New York reporters.

MOLASSES FROM THE WEST INDIES.
On Tuesday there was landed on the Muirhead wharf one hundred puncheons of molasses. The molasses was imported direct from the West Indies by Mr. James Morrison, for his large commission trade here.—Chatham World.

LOCAL NEWS

Yesterday afternoon a man by the name of Broxbury, accompanied by his wife were in town looking for their daughter who had run away from home and came to Moncton. They found her with the help of the police, and all returned to Halifax.

One of those interesting events, which involve the blending of two lives, happened last evening at the residence of Mr. John L. Stevens. The groom, who is about to take charge of a Baptist church near Cambridgeport, Mass., commenced life in the printing office of the writer several years ago, afterwards studying for the ministry. As printers do not always develop the religious element to a sufficiently vast extent, we notice the fact for their encouragement. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left by the midnight train for their future home, followed by the best wishes of a host of friends.

VOTE FOR PROTECTION.

Vote for the protection of your homes against infidelity, vote for the protection of labor in its long delayed rights, vote for the protection of Canada's credit, vote for honesty, social well-being, the Christian religion, and every fundamental interest of society by voting for Killam. Moncton proposes to do this. Let her not be ahead of the other communities in this noble county.

Notwithstanding the attitude and anxiety of certain leaders, there is absolutely no question of public policy involved in the present contest that should lead any elector to vote for a dishonest time-server as against a man of known integrity. Such protection as our industries need is provided and will continue, as both parties agree, but there is a kind of valuable protection that Killam's election and Powell's defeat will promote—the protection of honest effort against the rapacity of thieves, the protection of labor in its rights, the protection of social interests of all kinds, including religion, against treachery and unfaithfulness.

If the eight hour system, or the nine hour system, or the twelve hour system, is right and should be generally adopted, the one employer of labor in all Canada in a position to adopt it—to set the example—is the Government—a large and wealthy employer of labor happily without fear of competition. No other employer of labor is in that position.

Reader, if you are a mechanic or laborer of any class, please read this paragraph over a second time and decide for yourself whether it is true or not. If not true, say so by voting for Powell, but, if true, then, in view of all the responsibilities that rest upon you as a citizen and a man, vote for Killam whether you like him or not. It is not Killam you are voting for so much as it is principle and right!

THE EIGHT HOUR MOVEMENT.

A petition sent to Ottawa by the carpenters in the I. C. R. works about four months ago asking for an increase of pay, has been returned with refusal to grant the carpenters their reasonable request. Mr. Powell, the government candidate, being pledged to scab labor men and monopolists will not secure this right. Vote for Killam.

Mr. Foster said last night that Mr. Killam had never adopted the eight hour system. Right Mr. Foster; neither can any other private individual employing labor.

Mr. Killam favors the 8 hour system for government and all other employers of labor, while Powell says laborers are already highly paid. Minister Foster should sanction on condemning the 8 hour movement but he avoided doing so last night. However the electors will do for themselves on Saturday next by voting for Killam.

From the Globe we learn that the matter of the winding up of the St. Lawrence Lumber Company was up yesterday before Judge Tuck in chambers on an application of some Quebec creditors to have some sales by them declared preference sales. The goods were attached at first, the creditors claiming that by the Quebec law the goods became the vendors' again as soon as there was no payment. It seems then the goods were allowed to go to the liquidators, it being understood that they then became a sale to the liquidators. Mr. Fitzpatrick, of Quebec, presented the case for the creditors, and Mr. J. C. Coster contra. Judgment was reserved.

We do not know how much property the St. Lawrence Lumber Company may have had but if the Masters-Powell method of dealing with it was adopted, the creditors would not be "in it" as the boys say.

An interesting incident is mentioned in connection with Henry M. Stanley taking the oath last week in the house of Commons. After being sworn, he passed the Testament to the member waiting behind him. The latter turned out to be James J. O'Kelly, member of North Roscommon, with whom Mr. Stanley spoke last 20 years ago when they met in Africa. Both members were formerly New York reporters.

MARRIAGE.

Married—At the residence of the bride's parents, Moncton, on Wednesday evening, the 21st inst., by the Rev. W. W. Weeks, Rev. Robert Ward Fisher, of Cambridgeport, Mass., to Miss Annie Grace Stevens, youngest daughter of John L. Stevens.

A SERIOUS QUESTION—OUR DUTY IN THE PREMISES.

Reader, why did Mr. Wood insist on having the long-promised Senatorship and causing a special election in consequence?

He had already a seat for another term and why his anxiety to obtain a less useful one?

The only answer is that he feared the verdict of the people on the government's Manitoba and trade policies, and desired to stand from under when the fabric fell.

But why should the government accommodate him? Whatever the cause, the verdict of Westmorland will be heard from ocean shore to ocean shore, and that verdict will determine the policy of the government.

P. Powell will be elected good-bye to Peace in Manitoba; good-bye to local improvements; good-bye to extended or improved trade; good-bye to a future of promise instead of promises; good-bye to the hope of a consolidated, united, and prosperous Dominion.

In Killam's election there will be hope for unity, peace, prosperity and future good, not because it is Killam, but because the voice of the people by Powell's defeat, demands these things.

Make no mistake! The tension of feeling in the West is such that civil war, the shedding of the blood of our brethren may result from our votes on Saturday. Canada or Manitoba must now back down, The Remedial order must be obeyed, withdrawn or enforced. Which shall it be?

It was a stupid blunder to issue it. Let us demand its recall, and the due recognition of provincial rights.

If we would do these things, let us vote for Killam, but if we want the relations of the provinces to each other strained to the breaking point, let us vote for Powell.

NOT TO HIS CREDIT.

The Hon. G. E. Foster, Minister of Finance, scarcely did himself lasting credit in his effort last evening. The statement that he had not looked into the question of location of the railway station is hardly creditable, seeing that lives and property are continually endangered by the means of approach thereto; neither was the argument that Mr. Killam has not always adopted the eight hour system with his employees. Neither Mr. Killam nor any other employer of labor could afford to do work, using eight hours a day, in which he has to sharply compete against others who require ten hours work. No single individual firm could possibly inaugurate the reforms required, but a government, that does not need to compete with other employers of labor, might do so and are therefore rightly expected to do so. Surely Mr. Killam's neglect to adopt 8 hours is no shadow of excuse for the Government, if the change is desirable in the public interests.

"The Moniteur Acadien favors Mr. Powell's candidature in Westmorland, and in a somewhat labored way endeavors to show that his views upon the school question, judging by his votes and speeches in the New Brunswick Legislature, should be satisfactory to the Acadians."

If Mr. Powell's vote or speeches in the Legislature, taken together, and together with his acts, were satisfactory to Acadians, or to any other class of citizens, they must be easily satisfied. Mr. Powell is the most conspicuous example of inconsistency and infidelity in matters human and divine that modern political difference have yet developed.

VOTE FOR KILLAM.

Powell has no faith in God, but a great deal in rum, deception and cash. The electors have no confidence in him, and will say so on Saturday.

The friends of shorter hours should not fail to take advantage of the opportunity to declare their sentiments on Saturday next. An opportunity like this, the opportunity of an election free from other important issues, may not occur again in a life-time. Now let Labor speak or ever after hold its peace.

The fair-minded of all classes are with you, but they expect you to be in earnest and to be consistent, and they have a right to expect it.

PROTECTION.

Protect your business men against scheming lawyers. Protect your young men against the effects of rum advertised in Powell's organ, The Times and now stored in the city for the election campaign.

Protect your churches and christian associations against infidelity. Protect your homes from such sharks as H. A. Powell who has ruined some and you, if you trust him, may not escape.

Remember Powell and what he said about labor being too highly paid. Resent it by voting for Killam.

MARRIAGE.

Married—At the residence of the bride's parents, Moncton, on Wednesday evening, the 21st inst., by the Rev. W. W. Weeks, Rev. Robert Ward Fisher, of Cambridgeport, Mass., to Miss Annie Grace Stevens, youngest daughter of John L. Stevens.
