LOCAL NEWS.

Yesterday was pay day in the I. C. R. shops.

The band boys are expected home from camp this evening.

Mr. A. Dennis, of the New Glasgow Enterprise, and Mrs. Dennis, were in town yesterday.

No. 2 and 4. company of the 74 Batt. will arrive home from camp about 12 o'clock.

The Sussex Record wants a senatorship for Kings county and says Mr. F. E. Morton would be the right man for the place.

Two new letter boxes have been placed at the station for the convenience of the public one box is marked North the other East and West.

The Peticoiac bridge needs the immediate attention of the caretaker, several floor planks are rotting away and several holes are visible.

No. 8.39 and 62 L. O. L. will attend the Free Baptist church to-morrow evening in a body when the Rev. Mr. Deware will preach a sermon on orangeism.

R. B. Smith returned yesterday from attending court at Richibucto. As will be seen in the report elsewhere he was very successful in his efforts on behalf of his clients.

A large fire has been raging in the Coverdale woods for the past three days and has done an immense amount of damage. Several farmers have lost their fences.

Four cars were attached to No. 2 express yesterday to convey the R. E. Sunday school picnic to the point, the picnicers returned at 7.20 after spending a pleasant 1/2 day at the Point.

G. A. Mescott, James Ellery of Montreal, and J. E. Basin, of Chatham, photographers, are in town, and will remain several days taking outside photographs. They are stopping at the Russell House.

Miss Mine A. Read, daughter of Capt. Jos. Read of Hopewell Cape, who graduated this year at the Emerson School of Oratory, Boston, has been appointed teacher of elocution at Acadia college, Wolfville.

The agent of the S. P. C. A. has had an interesting case before Miles G. Jenkins and John McIntyre, magistrates of Kings at Kars. Two boys named Rileri Briggs and Domville Briggs, aged 10 and 12 years, of Belleisle, were arrested for beating two cows so badly that one of them died and the other is so injured that her milk is discolored with blood that she may not recover. The body of the dead animal shows that it had been fearfully abused. The cows were driven over a bank and after they went over were beaten. The boys when arrested admitted that they had committed the offence, but alleged that they were acting under the direction of their mother, and indeed it seems to be acknowledged that Mrs. Briggs was the instigator. The cows belonged to James Jones, who laid the information. The examination before the justices named on the 27th resulted in a postponement until the 9th of July, but as the material facts were admitted the postponement was rather to see if any mitigating circumstances could be presented. The trial excited great interest.

LOCAL NEWS:

The Moncton syndicate which is prospecting at Point Wolfe, A. Co., appear to have struck it rich if the ore recently tested is a fair sample of what is to be found there. R. M. Dryden, who has charge of the operations there, has had some of the ore sent to Halifax to be tested. The analysis shows to the ton as follows: Gold, $28.85; silver, $1.50; copper, 33 per cent.; making a total of $50. If these figures are correct the property is a bonanza.

Men live to die, but there is one man in this town who dyes to live. I will tell you where this man can be seen. Take a walk down Main street, go into the old McCarthy building opposite Higgins' shoe store and have a look around. There you will find this man at work dyeing in order that the citizens of Moncton may live, dress better and have more money, by having their old clothes dyed, cleaned, and made to look as well as when new. Send in your dress suits and have them cleaned and pressed for the 12th, as it only costs one dollar.

The Moncton Athletic association refused to have the sports take place there unless bicycle races were held. The question is now, what is the M. P. A. A. going to do about it? How many maritime championships will there be? The C. W. A. controls bicycle racing in Canada from the Atlantic to the Pacific, has the proper right to run off the real championships. Now that its membership has increased to such an extent that the provinces have been divided into districts, it is most likely that the C. W. A. will see that its interests will not be jeopardized in any way. While the M. P. A. A. will be able to hold bicycle races if they desire to they certainly cannot call them championships.—St. John Sun.

AT CAMP.

SPECIAL TO THE LEADER.

SUSSEX, July 6.—The camp is drawing to a close and everything has gone along splendidly. Under efficient officers the men have attained a good drill standard. Thursday evening the 74th Batt. band gave a concert on the grounds at the request of Adjutant Langstroff and was afterwards entertained in the officers mess. Bandmaster Stewart proposed a toast to that gentleman, the band singing He's a jolly good fellow. Directly after the R. A. C. I. Minstrels gave an open air concert, a temporary stage being erected for the purpose. Captain Chipman was master of ceremonies. A large crowd was present at both entertainments. An orchestra was furnished by members of the 74th and school bands. Yesterday was the last day of camp and in the afternoon a general review of cavalry and infantry troops took place under direction of Colonel Maunsel, D. A. G., and Col. Gordon. The three bands amalgamated and furnished music for the occasion. Col. Maunsel pronounced himself as very highly pleased at the progress the men had made while in camp. Those who had won distinction at target practise were called out before the battalions and presented with their prizes. Sergt. James Clark, of Moncton, made the highest points of any in the brigade and consequently took the highest cash prize.

During camp the 74th Batt. Band carried off all the honors for music. At the request of some prominent citizens of Sussex they played on the square in that place, the place being thronged, and were highly applauded. Adjutant Langstroff said he has attended many camps and heard various bands in those camps, but could justly pronounce the 74th to be the best and most willing band that has ever been under his control as an officer. The battalion at the close of the review marched back to their respective places and were addressed by their respective officers in command and broke up with three cheers for the Queen, Col. Bear and the Adjutant of the 74th Batt. band playing He's a jolly good fellow.

One thing noticeable in this camp is the mutual respect shown by officers and men to each other, all absence of domineering severity by officers to the men under them. A report is in circulation of an epidemic among the horses. This, however, is not so to any great extent, only a few horses being laid up. Camp breaks up at seven o'clock to-day, when the soldiers will leave for their respective homes; the Infantry School and 74th Batt. Bands will amalgamate and give a grand send off.

KENT CO. COURT.

RICHIBUCTO, July 4.—The July term of the county court opened here on Tuesday, Judge Wells presiding.

There was only one case for trial, that of Geo. W. Robertson vs. Albert C. Storer. It was an action brought for board and lodging and ten dollars supplied to debt. The defence was: 1. A general denial. 2. That the board and lodging were supplied on the credit of defendant's father. 3. Set off of $165.60 and a balance claimed by defendant. The case was thoroughly contested on all the grounds and resulted in a decision in favor of defendant for $153.60, the amount of his set off less the money due to him with interest. J. D. Phinney, Q. C., counsel and W. D. Carter attorney for plaintiff; R. Barry Smith counsel and C. J. Sayre attorney for defendant.

SPORTING NEWS.

THE RING.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 3.—At exactly at 8.15 o'clock this evening, the jury in the case of the people against Robert Fitzsimmons returned a verdict of not guilty, after having been out about three hours and forty-five minutes. The announcement by the foreman of the jury was greeted with rousing cheers from the people, who filled the courtroom, and the gavel of Judge Boss was powerless to quiet the enthusiasm. Fitzsimmons was congratulated by hundreds, and immediately sent a messenger boy with a telegram for Lis wife announcing his acquittal. After shaking hands with all of the jurors and with Judge Ross, Fitzsimmons went immediately to his hotel, and left for New York at 1.20, accompanied by Martin Julian, his brother-in-law, and Fred C. House, one of his attorneys.
