

Personal Paragraphs.

Chiefly Concerning Ourselves and Friends.

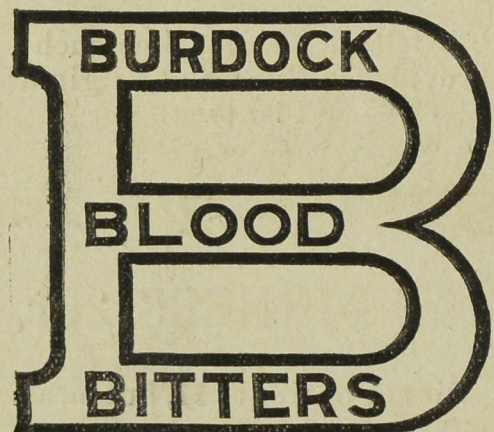

We extend our thanks to our old and tried friend Dr. O. E. Morehouse, for a fine turkey, which graced our board on Christmas day, and to which we did ample justice. May the good doctor never want for all the necessities, luxuries and blessings of life, and be amply blessed in basket and in store, is the sincere wish of his true and life-long friend. THE EDITOR.

Accompanying a present of three bottles of that excellent medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters comes a friendly note from the gentleman and kind hearted proprietors, T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, wishing for us and ours the compliments of the season, and happiness and prosperity for the present year. We heartily reciprocate, and wish such good gentlemen the prosperity that their kindness deserves, and would here assure them of the efficacy of their medicine, little more than half a bottle having driven out a humor of several year's standing.

Mr. Henry Harvey Stuart who has taught the last two terms at Benton, intends teaching the next term at McAdam Junction. Mr. Stuart is an able and painstaking teacher, and we wish him success in his new field.

We extend our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey True recently united in the bonds of wedlock. We trust they will remain True to each other through life. That the hand of sorrow may never Blanche their cheeks, and that the Harve(y)st of love may be abundant.
