"Let Your Light So Shine."

Frank went whistling up the hill ;
" Let your light so shine ;"
Dreading neither harm nor ill,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Through the shades of evening damp
Maud came tripping with her lamp,
Doubtless took him for a tramp,
" Let your light so shine."

Down on his devoted back
" Let your light so shine ;"
Came a loud resounding whack,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Breaking glass and screaming oil,
Face besmeared and clothing spoiled,
Cracked his head, his plans all foiled.
" Let your light so shine."

" Peacher " Brady fighting hard
" Let your light so shine ;"
For Maud Steadman's fond regard,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Nearly sacrificed his life
In the dread and awful strife,
From the wounds of a jack-knife,
" Let your light so shine."

" Bonaparte " ran down the track,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Never for once looking back,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Maud, she bravely held the fort,
Helped to carry on the sport
Till brought up before the court,
" Let your light so shine."

Three months in the county jail,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Given next morning without fail,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Having not the wherewithal
To release her from her thrall,
On she marched to Granite Hall,
" Let your light so shine."

Lying there in durance vile
" Let your light so shine ;"
Could'nt even get a " smile,"
" Let your light so shine ;"
Left in solitude to pine
Without whiskey gin or wine
Till some one came and paid her fine,
" Let your light so shine."

Out again to light of day,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Maud proceeded on her way,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Back to fragrant Whitechapel,
Dusky coon and blooming belle,
Fredericton's miniature hell,
" Let your light so shine."

Jud and " Peacher " ran away,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Off to Schoodic one winter day,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Taken up for " bumming chuck "
And beset by worst of luck,
Back for home again they struck,
" Let your light so shine."

In the sample room they lay,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Ida " Pudgy " and Miss May,
" Let your light so shine ;"
'Till arrested by the cops
Who were passing by the shops,
Unexpected on them drops,
" Let your light so shine."

Up before His Honor's court
" Let your light so shine ;"
They afforded lots of sport,
" Let your light so shine ;"
With their soldier hero brave,
Who had come across the wave
Who in vain they tried to save,
" Let your light so shine."

" Fridgem Fradgem " went up stairs,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Tried to get in unawares,
" Let your light so shine ;"
Up into his darling's bed,
Jumped and covered up his head,
Hearing not behind a tread,
" Let your light so shine."

Out again and down the stairs
" Let your light so shine ;"
Never stopped to say his prayers,
" Let your light so shine ;"
With the scuttle ran a race,
Hastily he left the place,
Since, they've never seen his face,
" Let your light so shine."

M-n-z-r H—a " Parent " sought,
" Let your light so shine ;"
And unto an hotel he brought
" Let your light so shine ;"
Into another boarder's room,
Safe as hidden in the tomb,
Till the light dispelled the gloom,
" Let your light so shine."

Dennis thrashed the " colored nig,"
" Let your light so shine ;"
Though he was'nt very big,
" Let your light so shine ;"
And for it received a V.
From the genial turnkey ;
'Twas for this he crossed the sea,
" Let your light so shine."

And my song is nearly done,
" Let your light so shine ;"
I've only written it for fun,
" Let your light so shine ;"
I'll tell you more as time goes by
And I've a chance to keep an eye
On things that's done upon the sly,
" Let your light so shine."
