

New Exchanges.

GRIPSACK, that bright and breezy monthly, edited by Joseph Knowles, St. John, comes to us in an enlarged and improved form, and richly illustrated. It is now one of the leading monthly journals of Canada.

THE QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE, published at Gagetown, Queens Co., is a large eight page paper, well edited by Jas. A. Stewart. It is out of all proportion, in size to the town, being an eight page paper in a two page town. We wish Mr. Stewart every success. He certainly deserves it for his courage.

Our friend Freddy Stevens has again resurrected The Hartland Advertiser, which is now a neat eight page weekly. We feel the warmest regard for him, and hope that his enterprise will prove successful.

We have an intense hatred for anything savoring of race or creed hatred, but find in the columns of THE GENTILE NEWS of New York, a paper published antagonistic to the Jews, many startling truths which are calculated to set the Gentile world thinking.

BRANN'S ICONOCLAST of Waco, Texas contains as valuable a vocabulary as John O'Driscoll and as withering invective as that of Mrs. Moriarty. It impales on its two-edged sword all antagonists who have the temerity to try a tilt with it and shakes off its back, as a duck does water, the venomous arrows that are daily aimed at it. It is always on the side of Right and justice, and against sham and hypocrisy in high and low life, and we welcome it as a powerful ally.

We thank our esteemed contemporary The Lancaster Argus for copying our poem on Cuba.

Fine Millinery Store.

The splendid millinery store of The Misses Young in their new quarters in the Cameron building, is perhaps one of the finest in the Dominion. They have a fine stand and a magnificent display. It is worth any one's while to pay them a visit.

Edgecombe's Carpet Rooms.

This is a busy place just now, for house-keepers know that at no other place can be had such a variety of Carpets, Oilcloths, Curtains and Curtain Poles to select from. The stock is not only immense, but the prices cannot fail to give satisfaction in every purchase. Mr. Edgecombe is a very large importer of these goods, and buying direct from the manufacturers, enables him to sell at rock bottom prices. It is certainly a great advantage for Fredericton, as well as for outside buyers, to have such a stock from which to make their selections.
