OUR MONTHLY CHAT.

With and About Ourselves and Friends.

Nothing has pained us since the death of our dear mother as the sad intelligence received from our friend William Ryan of Montreal of the death in that city of his good mother, Mrs. Cornelius Ryan.

If ever there was an angel in mortal body, a true Christian wife and mother, a devoted and self-sacrificing friend to the poor, the sick and afflicted and the stranger, she was one. Taking me in a perfect stranger, with only the introduction of a mutual friend this good family showered on us such kindness as it has rarely been our lot to meet even among relations. And though we could only stop for four days they insisted on us to stop a month and we don't believe that they would have kicked if we had stayed for a whole year. But compressed within those four days we received such kindness and attention as it has not often been our lot to receive in ten. Peace to the dear good mother who has gone to receive the reward of a life though short yet well spent and comfort, as only God can give to the stricken family, until the time arrives for them to join her in that better land.

The death of Mr. Wm. Richards the large and successful lumber operator of Boiestown, leaves a gap in the ranks of our business men that will not be easily filled and a large circle of mourning friends, of which the editor of this paper is proud to consider himself one.

We cannot resist the temptation to publish the following interesting letter from our old friend John Hanlon.

N. W. M. P., Maple Creek Asson.
June, 29th, 1901.

DEAR EDITOR:—

I rought I would drop you a few lines to let you know how I am getting along.

I can tell you that there is no place like the West. I was lonesome at first when I struck the country, but now, I would not leave it to stay, for any amount.

We have a good force and it is well kept up by the Government.

I just put down your last months JOURNAL and it was "all right."

A fellow can certainly have a good time out here if he looks after himself.

Well, I am going to tell you something—I was down to Brandon, Man., two weeks ago with a lunatic. (Brandon is where the Asylum for Manitoba and the N. W. T. is), after taking my prisoner over I went back to the town and put up for the night at the Hotel Beaubier (the best hotel,) and got talking with a man by the name of Byrne from New Brunswick, and the first thing he pulled out of his pocket a copy of BUTLER'S JOURNAL. Well, I was certainly surprised, I asked him where he got it and told him I knew you well; and he knows you well also. He comes from St. John.

Well, I suppose you are still kicking. I suppose "O'Flaherty" is still hanging around. Where is he working now. I see you are still "shilling" the "Democrat." I guess you know that "Chuck" Dever is gymnastic instructor in Regina. I saw him when I passed through the other day. He is looking well. I am going to send the JOURNAL down to him. I trust you are doing a good business and guess you are still in the old stand.

I would like to go back to dear old Fredericton on a visit, but would not like to stay, for I am too well satisfied with this life. A fellow has an awful lot of riding to do, and I can tell you, it comes hard on you at first, but you get used to it in time. I am nowhere near any of the Fredericton boys. The eleven that left Fredericton are all scattered over the territories. I tell you, you can soon be separated. Well, I guess I have said enough; I have to go to dinner now. I am on duty on the C. P. R. strike. Well, "so long," I hope to hear from you soon. Good Bye.

From Your Friend.

CONST. J. J. HANLON.

The friends who drop in and give us their renewals and with them words of encouragement and commendation and the new ones who often put their names on our list more than compensate for the very few who are too mean or too narrow to continue their subscriptions.
