DR. WOOD'S

NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Stops the irritating cough, loosens the phlegm, soothes the inflamed tissues of the lungs and bronchial tubes, and produces a quick and permanent cure in all cases of Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Hoarseness, Sore Throat and the first stages of Consumption.

Mrs. Norma Swanston, Cargill, Ont., writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I had a very bad cold, could not sleep at night for the coughing and bad pains in my chest and lungs. I only used half a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and was perfectly well again."

Price 25 cents a bottle.

The Editor Remembered.

We return our sincere thanks to our good friend and subscriber Geo. E. Baxter, Andover, N. B., for three fine fowls sent express paid which are a valuable addition to the editor's scanty fare. We can stand as much of that sort of thing in birds or beasts, or produce of any kind as our friends and subscribers desire to indulge in. Who will be next?

The November Number of Wilshire's Magazine, New York, is, as usual, bright and up to date. Its leading features are some highly interesting interviews with three of the day's most talked of men—John Mitchell, Mark Hanna and Tom Johnson. Current Events and the editor's experience as an International Office Seeker are written up with that combination of wit and philosophy which distinguishes Wilshire's writings. There is a study of the Trusts, by Joel Benton, and an able discussion of The Death and Renascence of the Democratic Party, by Charles Ferguson. J. Stitt Wilson gives An Economic Exposition, and Daniel B. Strong writes convincingly on the effect of Competition on Wages. Rev. A. L. Byron-Curtis, in Society and Religion, holds that society should be founded on the basis of the New Commandment "that ye love one another." Literature and the drama receive attention in a criticism of Pinero's new play, "Iris," and a Study of Walt Whitman by Louville H. Dyer, and Art as Affected by Economics is discussed ably by A. M. Simons. And to complete the round, Bernarr Macfadden describes some Exercises for Physical Strength.

A Terrible Cough.

Mrs. Thos. Carter, Northport, Ont., says: I caught a serve cold which settled on my throat and lungs and my friends thought it would send me to my grave, when other remedies failed, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup completely cured me.
