

MY POSITION

It takes great LOVE to stir a human heart
 To live beyond the others and apart,
 A love that is not shallow, is not small;
 Is not for one or two, but for them all.
 Love that can wound love for its higher need;
 Love that can I ave love, though the heart may bleed:
 Love that can lose love, family and friend;
 Yet steadfastly live loving to the end.
 A love that asks no answer, that can live Moved by one burning deathless force to give.

THE GREAT RESTORATION.

BY HERBERT N. CASSON.

The Great Restoration ts coming,
 When privilege goes to its fall;
 The few shall give back to the many
 The wealth that belongs to us all.
 The land that no human fashioned
 Each new generation snall share;
 No man will reign over an acre
 Unless he is laboring there.
 The cities the centuries builded
 Shall to their own people belong:
 The gain of their streets shall be social,
 Not seized by the sons of the strong.
 Inventions, produced by the ages,
 Shall then be as free as the sun;
 And no man shall claim to be master
 Of what his own hands have not done.
 And then, in that Great Restoration,
 No robbed and no robbers we'll see;
 At last, the republic we cherish
 Shall truly be happy and free.

Laugh and Grow Fat.

We must laugh before we are happy, lest we should die without having laughed.

It is really laughable to hear some people talk and blow about other make of stoves being just just as good as the Moffat Stoves.

We know they never took the trouble to spend 5 minutes to thoroughly examine them and compare points.

Progression is the order of the day and the Moffat People have taken advantage of the times and produced at a large outlay an up-to-date stove, and it is all right.

Please call and examine them
 in our ware rooms, the nicest show rooms in the city.

We have just landed another car load, so we can afford to laugh too when you make a comparison.
