EVERYONE GUARANTEED A PRIZE

We have recently distributed many valuable prizes to workers and will send a list of prizes and names of winners to all answering this advertisement.

We want our friends to help us reach a circulation of 200,000 copies a month. We propose to pay every worker well for the work. Some will receive bonanzas. Think what you can do with the $1,400 automobile lecturing through the country. The pianos, piano players and self-playing organs will add greatly to the interest of public meetings or the enjoyment of the home, and mind you, every worker is guaranteed a prize. Do you want more than this?

The price of Wilshire's Magazine is now one dollar a year—cannot be produced for less. We sell yearly subscription cards to workers at 50 cents each. Sell the cards at a profit if you can, but sell them. Our magazine can be sold to many who will not buy other Socialist literature and now is the time for workers to "plug" for all they are worth; the result will count heavily in the coming presidential campaign.

The prizes will be given to those selling the largest number of yearly subscription cards or sending us the largest number of yearly subscriptions before December 1st, 1903. Get busy and get a prize. Everyone sending ten yearly subscriptions or more is guaranteed a prize.

You surely do not want more.

Four cards for $2, ten cards for a fiver and ten cards insures a prize.

How many? Your move! When in New York see me.

IN THE GRASP OF THE DESTROYER

Friends and Acquaintances Who Have Crossed the Dark River Since Our Last Issue.

VALENTINE HARDING,

whose sudden death from drowning was recently reported, was an old acquaintance of the editor, we having known him from a small boy. He was a lively, jovial, good-natured, young man and will be much missed by his former associates. We extend our sincere sympathy to his sorrowing relatives.

MICHAEL BURNS.

An old friend, after a long and useful life, has gone to his reward. He was the father of Mr. Patrick Burns of King street, and a gentleman well known and held in high esteem.

WILLIAM RICHARDS

The prominent lumber operator, after a sickness of about a year, has been removed by the hand of Death. He was very prominent as a business man and had a large circle of friends among all classes, was a gentleman of acknowledged probity and stainless honor, and was universally beloved.

JEREMIAH BELL

Of Mouth of Tay died recently after a short illness. He and his good family were unfailing friends of many years, and his house was one of my homes in that hospitable section at which I was always sure of a welcome. He was a quiet unassuming man, cordial and kind to all with a deep but unobtrusive vein of piety, and what was better lived up to his belief. Among all of our friends, among all the families we have visited in our trade (and we have many friends) there can be none whom we would love and respect while living or mourn when dead more than our friend Jeremiah Bell.

CHARLES CAMPBELL.

The sad death of Mr. Charles Campbell of Stanley which followed so soon upon that of our friend John R. McBean, was written out for publication in the same issue but the exigencies of a small paper like ours crowded it out in the press of so much matter in ahead of it.

All we can now do is to bear testimony with his other friends to the good character of the deceased, and to express our deepest regret for the death of one so young in life, who if not an intimate acquaintance of ours, was the relative of some of our dearest friends.

TOMMY BELYEA.

The sad death of Tommy Belyea will be mourned by all who knew this bright little chap who had seemingly a bright future before him, and it will we hope be a warning for his over-adventurous companions to keep out of danger in the future.

MISS ELLEN FARRELL

Daughter of Mr. James Farrell, Indian Commissioner, died recently at her father's home on King street. She had been a sufferer for some time but bore it all with Christian resignation and fortitude. She was in every way a most estimable young lady, foremost in every good work that came within the range of her sphere and abilities, and very highly esteemed by her large circle of friends. To her bereaved relatives we extend our sincere sympathies, but after all it is only for a little while, for in the glad hereafter there will be a home coming and reunion of hearts that will enable us to forget the sorrows of this terrestrial sphere.

JOHN KELLY.

Another old friend, Mr. John Kelly, has gone over to the silent majority. He and his family have been friends of our for years. He was well known along the river for miles and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends.

The Best Medicine.

Mrs. Alma Goquin, Cape Bald, N. B., says: "I had an attack of Liver Trouble and Indigestion, and decided to try Laxa Liver Pills. They had a better effect than any remedy I ever took."
