Laugh and Grow Fat.

We must laugh before we are happy, lest we should die without having laughed.

It is really laughable to hear some people talk and blow about other make of stoves being just as good as the

Moffat Stoves.

We know they never took the trouble to spend 5 minutes to thoroughly examine them and compare points.

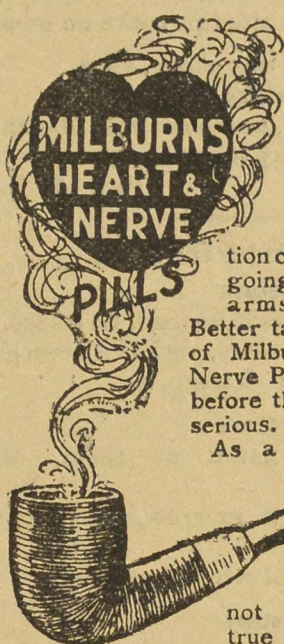

Progression is the order of the day and the Moffat People have taken advantage of the times and produced at a large outlay an up-to-date stove, and it is all right.

Please call and examine them in our ware rooms, the nicest show rooms in the city.

We have just landed another car load, so we can afford to laugh too when you make a comparison,

POLICE PROTECTION.

"'Twas All a Dream, a Vain, Delusive Dream."

Police protection, oh, the thought,
With peace, and bliss and comfort fraught;—
We go to bed—our eyes we close
In calm and undisturbed repose.

We have a system, (some will state)
It's modern and up to date;
A lock-up strong, of bars and stone,
And in it placed a telephone.

Thus, one feels safe, to lay and snore
From thieves and burglars, all secure;

And with our stalwart cops on hand,
This seemed a perfect Beulah land.

But oh! who can describe our grief
When it is learned some daring thief
Got in his work one stormy night
And not a bloomin' cop in sight.

It does seem more than passing strange
That thieves and burglars should range
Along Front street—shop windows break

And from the stores their booty take.

But such has happened—and I say
Our dream of safety passed away;
I must confess it now would seem
'Twas all a vain delusive dream.

Not long ago, a young man approached one of our policemen with a sad tale of misplaced confidence. It seems he hired a team from a local livery stable, intending to take his sweetheart for a "ride-out," one evening, and after they had driven around a short time he stopped in front of a shop and went in to buy her a treat. While he was in the store the young woman drove off and left him to take "Shank's mare" for his part of the journey.

We are glad to see that one of the local Dowieites has "Sand" enough to stand up for her principles. But she must not imagine that the ones who may "reid" her letter takes as much stock in "Dowie the Prophet" as the Great Restorer takes in Dowie's profit,
