T. W. Sansom,

The old W. T. Estey Stand, West End

Nova Scotia.

The Tories' hope has gone at last,
Nova Scotia;
And withered in the autumn blast,
Nova Scotia;
From Louisburg to Halifax
You'll plainly see the Liberals' tracks
And see the blood upon their axe;
Nova Scotia.

They also got it in the neck
Nova Scotia.
From B. Columbia and Quebec,
Nova Scotia;
They've rolled up a majority
From east to west, from sea to sea,
For Laurier and Liberty,
Nova Scotia.

The winds the message bear along,
Nova Scotia;
And this the "Borden" of their song,
Nova Scotia—
"Liberal rule is good enough,
The people's sick of Tory bluff;
You've surely put them 'on the rough,'"
Nova Scotia.

How the Tories fume and fret,
Nova Scotia;
Little hope from you they'll get,
Nova Scotia—
Things will go on much the same,
Canada maintain her claim
And always block the Tory game,
Nova Scotia.

Let the noble work proceed,
Nova Scotia—
You'll not fail us in our need,
Nova Scotia.
Sacred keep the solemn vow
Made of old by Joseph Howe,
"Tyranny we'll not allow,"
Nova Scotia.

Nail your colors to the mast,
Nova Scotia—
To your principles hold fast,
Nova Scotia;
Always for the public good,
Justice, right and brotherhood.
Stand as in the past you've stood,
Nova Scotia.
Never let the Mayflower flag
Nova Scotia,
In the dust and ashes drag,
Nova Scotia,
Keep the freedom you have won
And passed on from sire to son,
In the teeth of sword and gun,
Nova Scotia.
