FREDERICTON, OCTOBER, 1904

THE ELECTION.

Another Dominion election is slated for Nov. 3rd, and a queer lot of spouting will be done by the partisans of the old parties to try and pull the wool over the common people's eyes and get their votes—that is all they want of them.

As a matter of fact, one is little better than the other, and the working man who cannot get a five dollar bill or a ten from one or both parties is a fool to waste his time at the polls.

The only justification that the G. T. P. deal has is that it is less bad than the C. P. R. deal made by the Conservatives and the only thing to incline a Canadian Nationalist to support the party in power is the resentment of dictation from the foreign agent, Dundonald.

As the People's Party has not arrived here in N. B. we would advise the people to let bad enough alone and put the present party back into power.

TRUE LOYALTY

Now that the election contest is on the speakers of both parties will be trailing the "old flag" around as in former years and accusing each other of "disloyalty." This charge has been made generally by the Conservative party, because, forsooth, the Liberal leader is of French extraction and a Catholic, as if all the Conservatives were English and Protestants.

Whatever definition politicians put on the words, true loyalty to true Canadians can have but one meaning—loyalty to Canada and her interests alone, irrespective of every other nation on the face of the globe. When this idea becomes more spread then will we see this country begin to develop on national lines and ultimately take her rightful place among the nations.

HEART TO HEART TALKS

With My Friends and Patrons.

There is not much to say this month. The old routine of work goes on in the mill and I nerve myself to do it effectively. It will be thus seen that I have very little time to devote to my paper, which accounts for the fact that it is not as breezy or original as usual; but I have to attend to that that more readily supplies me with the means of living.

What concerns me most is the approach of winter, when I can get little or no work, but I will have to let that take care of itself.

The remittances for this month are Harry Patterson, 18 Lincoln Street Brockton, Mass. 50 cts. Charles O'Neill City $1.00 H. E. Palmer, Oak Point, Kings Co., 35 cts; Ernest Bell, Taymouth, 35 cts.; Fred Estey, City, 35 cts. I am very thankful to those who have purchased the poem on the Douglas disaster, but did not sell quite so many of them as I did of the others, as I could not get a day off and had to sell evenings. However should anyone else want any I have lots of them left and they can find them on sale at Jas. Clayton's, Phoenix Square, the New 5 and 10 Cent Store and McMurray & Co.'s Bookstore, also the other pieces "The Hanging of George Gae," "The Drowning of Foster and Thompson," and "The Burning of the David Weston." Later remittances are Ahner Smith, Rusiagorn's, $1.00; Mrs. Thomas Murray, Springhill, $1.00; N. Foster Thorne, Managing Director Carleton Sentinel, Woodstock, N. B., $2.00. From the kind letters occasionally received from friend Wallace of The Funeral Director and Bulletin, and this extraordinary token of kindness on the part of Mr. Thorne, it would appear that certain few of our fellow journalists both appreciate and sympathize with us. God bless them, and may they long continue to enjoy the good-luck and prosperity they so richly deserve.

Custom does not make a thing right. Custom may be merely a bad habit.—Galveston News..
