Obstinate Coughs and Colds.

The Kind That Stick.

The Kind That Turn To Bronchitis.

The Kind That End In Consumption.

Consumption is, in thousands of cases, nothing more or less than the final result of a neglected cold. Don't give this terrible plague a chance to get a foot-hold on your system.

If you do, nothing will save you. Take hold of a cough or cold immediately by using

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

The first dose will convince you that it will cure you. Miss Hannah F. Fleming, New Germany, N.S., writes:—"I contracted a cold that took such a hold on me that my people thought I was going to die. Hearing how good Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup was, I procured two bottles and they effected a complete cure."

Price 25 cents per bottle. Do not accept substitutes for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Be sure and insist on having the genuine.

Push vs. Pull.

'Tis said the man with lots of "push"
Is sure his ends to gain,
But as I look around, to me
It seems exceeding plain That all the easy, paying jobs
Of which the land is full,
Is captured every time, my lad,
By the man with lots of "pull."

The man with "push" may win his way,

The man with "pull" can't fail,
'Tis thus we find it day by day,
As down life's stream we sail.
A hollow tooth is bound to ache,
We plug it full of wool,
But nothing brings relief so quick
As the man who has the "pull."

Now when a case comes up in court,
The judge and jury wise,
Will listen to the evidence
With closed and dreamy eyes—
Defendant's counsel makes his plea, In tones so rich and full—
And argue wrong is right, and win
If he but has the "pull,"

Just take two men who may commit Exactly the same crime,
One man gets clear, the other one Is forced to do "full time."

Not long ago two murderers faced
The courts of Johnie Bull, While one was hanged, one got ten days
His lawyer had the "pull."

UP TO-DATE

No man has a right to ask another to preform a duty he would not do himself.
