My answer is.- Certainly the great majority even of the readers of my little paper care nothing for me and it is not for their interest that I write these remarks, but that they interest and form a sort of safety-valve for my pent up feelings and attract those who are interested in me and will be read and commented on after I have passed away from the companionship of earthly things. My paper and my fortunes are not of sufficient importance to either be helped or hindered by these avowals, and I shall continue them unto the last which can not now be a great way off.

Well, as to conditions myself and wife have neither been very well since the opening of the New Year. My wife much the worse, as I have been able to get around and do my work, while she has had to have attendance. My salary barely suffices for our needs on account of the terrible extortionate prices now charged for every thing that enters into the cost of living.

A few of our good friends still remembered us at Christmas, and subscriptions and gifts of from one to two and a half dollars have reached me from subscribers both in the city and from friends outside to about the amount of a dozen dollars. For this I am sincerely thankful, but I cannot help contrasting it with the early Christmases of my first settlement in this city when numerous friends both in town and country sent turkeys, vegetables, wood and provisions of all kinds that about tided us out the rest of the winter. It is true that I earn more now, but I have a larger family and have all to do now as my wife is not able to help me as formerly, then my health is poor, when it was then good. I am not at all complaining, but I just make these statements to prove my contentions that the days are getting colder and harder.

As for my family, the two children John and Nelda aged respectively 9 and 7 are going to school and making satisfactory progress. They are the cause of much worry and expense, but it is to be hoped they will live to make it up. If not while their grandfather and grandmother are living then afterwards.

The hens, (be careful in spelling their names as I have selected the best native and classic names I could find for them) now comprise Iphigenia, Desdemonia, Clitmenestra, Boodicea, Brunhilda Susiwassis Madamkeswick, Becky, Guimack, Cleopatra, Minerva and Astarte, with Peter the rooster Poor old

NORWAY PINE SYRUP.

A cold, if neglected, will sooner or later develop into some sort of lung trouble, so we would advise you that on the first sign of a cold or cough you get rid of it immediately. For this purpose we know of nothing better than Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. This preparation has been on the market for the past twenty-five years, and those who have used it have nothing but words of praise for its efficacy.

Mrs. H. N. Gill, Truro, N.S., writes: "Last January, 1913, I developed an awful cold, and it hung on to me for so long I was afraid it would turn into consumption. I would go to bed nights, and could not get any sleep at all for the choking feeling in my throat and lungs, and sometimes I would cough till I would turn black in the face. A friend came to see me, and told me of your remedy, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I got a bottle of it, and after I had taken it I could see a great change for the better, so I got another, and when I had taken the two bottles my cough was all gone, and I have never had an attack of it since, and that is now a year ago."

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; and price, 25c and 50c.

It is manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Kerenhappuck was sick all the fall and the woman at our house put an end to her sufferings last week.

The dear cat, Amaryllis, Esmeralda, is about the same. This is about all I have to say of ourselves this time.

CORRESPONDENCE

Dear Sir :

I wish to call your attention and that of the public to the bigamy case against one Norman Langille of Moncton, who is now serving a six months term in Halifax for the above crime. Now, Mr. Editor, this Annie Parks mentioned as wife No. 1 is just as guilty of bigamy as Langille, for she is now living in our fair city as the wife of a well known citizen of the West end. Now, Mr. Editor, is she not a bigamist, and should she not be punished? Will sign myself as one who believes in justice.

M. L. B.

Slight Suggestions.

The British papers comment upon the fact of the United States not protesting when Germany violated the neutrality of Belgium with good reason, adding the sarcastic taunt that they would protest in the interests of commerce in which they were personally interested but not in the interests of humanity against the crushing of a weak and offensive nation. This is all very true and is just what the United States or any great nation would do.
