

A Wealthy Cricket Club.

The grounds of the Australian Cricket Club comprising thirteen acres, were given to them by the Government of that colony some twenty years ago free of taxes forever, together with the sum of £5,000 sterling, to be laid out in making the grounds and as a building fund. This formed the nucleus of a club and grounds round which all that is wealthy and fashionable in Melbourne has gathered, so that at the present time the club has a membership of more than 5,000, paying an annual fee of four guineas, to which is added the Governor's annual donation of twenty-five guineas, making a total yearly income from members for alone of over £20,000 sterling (say $20,000). The ground, as observed before, comprises thirteen acres, around three sides of which a beautifully sponging grass terrace runs, twenty yards wide, on which the trees have been planted at distances sufficient to allow their boughs to interlace; seats on this terrace are so arranged that five thousand persons can sit entirely in the shade to witness a match with the greatest ease and comfort. They have a pavilion erected at a cost of seven thousand guineas bath-rooms, racquet court, refreshment rooms for ladies and gentlemen, whilst portions of the field are reserved for archery, lawn tennis, croquet, &c. On special occasions the attendance of visitors has reached as high as twenty-five thousand.

Among Smeer Ali's favorite captains is a certain Hussein a Khyber Khan commanding the cavalry of the military district of Candahar. This Murat of Afghanistan chivalry was once a British soldier. His name in the service was O'Donnell. He served for many years in the 57th Fusiliers, or "Fighting-Bangles," as Dr. Zimmer would prefer calling them. This man was color and pyrrhonian, but lost the rank, and was subsequently promoted to the grade of company-sergeant, but lost that also. Soon after he left the regiment. At that time, now some years ago, O'Donnell, who hails from Nenagh, was a man of forty, noted for his reckless daring and herculean strength. He was the only European in India who distinguished every native wrestler pitted against him, and his throw of a hammer, marked in one of the up-country stations, has not been equalled.

Dean Stanley, preaching in Westminster Abbey for the first time since his return from the United States, remarked that he could not throw off the responsibilities which the past as well as the present had thrown upon us. Our far-reaching lines of ancestry and our wide-spreading dominions, around us like the mountains standing around Jerusalem. There was a vast area of heathen—Blesh of our flesh and blood of our blood—who waited us with a preternatural sensitiveness. All the good or evil of our time might aid in raising or depressing these our brethren. Far more to them than any flattery or consoling would be the examples of honest trade, of pure statesmanship, and of pure religious life and teaching; for they look with respect and regard upon these shores from which they took their reluctant departure, and which they still so dearly love.

A REMARKABLE RESULT.—It makes no difference how many Physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to that and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c., who have no personal knowledge of Boesch's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 doses were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all Druggists.
