There has long been a great and universally-felt want of a History of the World suitable for general use. This want is now being supplied by The National Publeshing Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., Chicago, Ill., St. Louis, Mo., and Dayton, Ohio, who have issued a handsome volume, entitled "Tne Pictorial History of the World," by James D. McCabe, a well-known historical writer. This work will, undoubted ly, take rank as a Standard History. It is the most valuable book that has been published in this country for many years. It published in this country for many years. It contains a separate and admirably written history of every nation of ancient and modern times, and is full of valuable information concerning them, presented in popular style, and in a manner that will enable the reader to cerning them, presented in popular style, and in a manner that will enable the reader to refer instantly to any subject upon which information is desired. The book is a complete treasury of history and there is not a question. treasury of history. and there is not a question that can be asked concerning any historical subject, but an answer to it can be found in this work. The author does not content himself with a mere dry statement of facts. but schetches the life and manners of the varrsous natious of which he treats, in lifelike colors, and psesents to the reader the causes which led to the prosperity and decay of the great powers of tee world. He shows us the various great men—the warriors, states-men, poets, sages, and orators—of ancient and modorn times, and makes them familiar to the reader; he explains the secret motives of their actions, and points out the lessons which their lives teach. A valuable feature of the book is a full History of the late War between Russia and Turkey.

NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION

NOTICE is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, who carried on business at this City of Fredericton under the name and style of MILLER & EDGECOMBE has this day been dissolved by mutual consent, the said Frederick B. Edgecombe retaining the business, who will settle all claims against the partnership, and to whom all debts due said partnership are to be paid. Dated at Fredericton this 1st day of

THE undersigned would take this opportunity to thank the many friends in this city and surrounding country for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the late firm of MILLER & EDGECOMBE during the past seven years. He would also beg to say that the business of the "Albion House" having been assumed by himself, will be carried on in the same place as heretofore, where, under the careful management of R. Davies and G. S. Clarke, those friends may rest assured that their favors will still receive the best attention, as the long experience of those gentlemen in the Dry Goods rade, and especially in connection with the above house, will enable them to guarantee satisfaction to all. He would also state that the branch at St. Mary's Ferry will still be continued under the management of Mr. M.
