

SECRETARY CROSS ON PUBLIC AFFAIRS.

On the 18th inst. Mr. Cross was entertained at a banquet at Southport. In acknowledging the toast of "Her Majesty's Ministers" Mr. Cross referred to various matters of public interest, including the commercial depression, which he attributed largely to not only the tax on the importation of goods, but also to the development of local taxation, which he considered rapid enough to make people feel uneasy if they examine the question. With reference to the Imperial expenditure, Mr. Cross pointed out that nearly two millions of the increase so much talked of is simply taking money from one pocket and putting it in another, this being devoted to the relief of local taxation. Mr. Cross also repudiated the charge of the expenditure of special departments, and showed that here also there were two sides to the story. Then he disposed of the carrying criticisms on the Berlin Treaty, the Anglo-Turkish Convention, and the acquisition of Cyprus, which he does not believe will be an expense to this country. He gave an assurance that the Government would do all in their power to promote the proper administration of Armenia. Turning to the Afghan trouble, he said if the Ameer is no longer strong, no longer independent, and no longer friendly, it is time to inquire how this can be met, and what is to be done. There must be no doubt about our position. Having disposed of the "Imperialism" question, Mr. Cross referred to the state of parties as affected by the elections, and thought the loss of two votes in each of the three years no great evidence of the loss of popularity.

One of the latest additions to the arsenal of the toad is now the rage in England. This is called the toad-egg. "Of course," says the World, "it is no way resembles the dressing-gown of utility; it is of elaborate design and infinite cost. It is worn for about an hour in the day; and yet, in a country-house visit of a week, the same must on no account be exhibited more than twice. If, indeed, so much may be allowed. It is absolutely useless and utterly ridiculous; but this is not the worst that may be said about it. It is, to all intents and purposes, a deodorant; and so great is the force of association, that the conversation is exceedingly apt, may almost certain, to become deodorant as well."

On Halloween the City of London appeared in the office of the Queen's memorial and out of a fog with a hatched and another with a bill-book and counted out six horse-shoes and sixty-one nails, which the Remembrance received, saying, "Good number. This is the number by Grand Serjeant of the Moors in the County of Salop and of 'The Forge' in the Parish of St. Clement Danes. There are two other similar tenures in England. On the anniversary of the battle of Blenheim the Duke of Marlborough brings the Queen a flag in respect of Blenheim Palace and the Duke of Wellington brings one on the anniversary of the battle of Waterloo for Strathfield Salve."

Major John Bellamy, of the 2nd Batt. of the 17th Regiment, has shot himself at the Shorncliffe camp. He had been in a very depressed state of mind for several weeks, and was about to go on sick leave. The deceased officer greatly interested himself in the Yelverton case. Mrs. Longworth Yelverton being a relation of his. It is stated that he spent the whole of his fortune in defending the case on her behalf, and that he was left almost penniless, depending upon his pay. His body was found lying on the floor of his quarters. Deceased was a favorite with the men, and greatly respected by his brother officers. He had been over thirty years in the service.

A young gentleman of Shrewsbury, near Manchester, offered, with his mother's consent, to help a pupil teacher with her lessons in the morning. He said she would not be awake early enough, and she offered to tie a string to her foot and let the string hang out of the window, so that if she overslept herself he might pull it. He was up the earlier and pulled the cord, and the Rev. T. E. Heygate, holding that this was an act of impropriety, refused him the sacrament. The Bishop of Lichfield declined to interfere, as it does not seem that the case admits of any authoritative decision.

A gentleman in Montreal, whose knowledge of the subject constitutes him an authority in matters of painting and sculpture, says that Her Highness is an artist of such caliber as to be deemed of the highest rank, and that her talents would earn for her great distinction in the world of art, and would bear her on to fortune. He has examined many of her subjects, and, in water colors especially, pronounces them among the finest from the brush of modern artists. All lovers of the fine arts will be delighted to know this, and we are certain that her advent among us will lend a helping hand to secure for the fine arts the place which should be given them in our Dominion.

The Duke of Argyll, says the Times, has written a work on the Eastern Question, dealing exhaustively with the whole matter, and that, after critically examining the policy by which it has been guided throughout, he brings a serious indictment against the present Government. The work, which will be published in a few days, will be entitled "Diplomatic History of the Eastern Question, from the Treaty of Paris to the Treaty of Berlin."

The total population of Queensland, Australia, last year, was 203,084, of whom 124,924 were males. Queensland covers an area as large as Europe, less Russia, Germany, Austria, and Scandinavia. The immigration to it has been mainly at the cost of the Government. The present Governor is brother to Lord Cardigan. He resides at Brisbane, the capital, and has a salary of $20,000 a year, with furnished house and allowances worth about $2,500 more.

A REMARKABLE RESULT.—It makes no reference how many Phlegmas, or how much medicine you have tried, it shows an established fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Coughs settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, and other diseases. The immigration to it has been mainly at the cost of the Government. The present Governor is brother to Lord Cardigan. He resides at Brisbane, the capital, and has a salary of $20,000 a year, with furnished house and allowances worth about $2,500 more.

IMPURETIES OF THE BLOOD.—The decided alterative action of Robinson's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Lacto-Phosphate of Lime, renders it a remarkable degree as a food purifier well worthy of the trial of those suffering from a diseased condition of the circulating fluid. The unsightly blotches, pustules and pimples that disfigure the face and neck, as well as other portions of the body, of so many persons, are indications of a diseased state of the blood induced, as well as associated with, depraved nutrition, feeble digestion and imperfect assimilation. The continued use of the Phlegmas Emulsion invariably cleanses the blood from all these impurities and restores the system to a state of healthfulness that is manifested in increased constitutional vigor, mental activity, and lightness and buoyancy of spirits.
