What the Gossips have to Remark about

The Trend of Matters Political, Parliamentary or Otherwise.

Some Touch-and-Go notices of all Mention-able Manner of Things.

The absence of the red-coats from our street gives the town a dull appearance, and since the Infantry school have gone into camp at Fern Hill some of our maidens find the evenings quite lonesome and tedious As it will be only for a little while no doubt they will survive. It is said, however, that the domestics of the town are doing their work more satisfactorily since the departure of our troops.

The necessity of the stage in the City Hall being enlarged was never more apparent than on the occasion of the Opera Company's performance here last week-what a pity not to have this trouble remedied. The hall is as well It was rumored Monday and Tuesday that arranged and as comfortable as could be wished for but the stage is a poor one. of course it would cost considerable to do The concert at Morrison's mill, given by the it.
