

A PRIZE PUZZLE.
NO PRIZES FOR STUPID PEOPLE.

(In the above Sketch Six Faces are to be Found.)
The proprietors of THE LADIES HOME MONTHLY will give a first-class Upright Piano, of the very best make (valued at $200) to the person who can first find the six faces. A reward of a Safety Bicycle (valued at $15) for the second correct answer. A fine Oak Bedroom Set (valued at $50) for the third correct answer. A Solid Gold Watch for each of the next two correct answers. A Ten Dollar Gold Piece for the next three correct answers.
Every contestant is to cut out the Faces, and make a cross with a lead pencil on the six faces and send same in with ten three-cent postage stamps or 20 cents in silver for three months subscription to THE LADIES HOME MONTHLY, which is the best ladies publication in Canada.
We will give the last ten correct answers received each a handsome Table Lamp, and a valuable prize will also be given to every person who is able to answer the Faces correctly until fifty prizes have been awarded.
The envelope which contains correct answer bearing first postmark will receive first reward, and the remainder in order as received. Every prize in this competition will be faithfully awarded. Our "made" faces are made by reliable publishers.
Be sure and answer to-day and enclose 20 cents, and you may receive a valuable prize for your trouble. Address: "Ladies Home Monthly, 192 King St., West, Toronto, Canada."

Parsons' Pills

These pills were a wonderful discovery. Unlike any others, One Pills. Easy. Children take them easily. The most delicate women use them. In fact all ladies can obtain very great benefit from the use of Parsons' Pills. One box sent post paid for 25 cts., or five boxes for $1 in stamps. 30 Pills in every box. We pay duty to Canada.

The circular around each box explains the symptoms. Also how to cure a great variety of diseases. This information alone is worth ten times the cost. A handsome illustrated pamphlet sent free contains valuable information. Send for it. Dr. L. S. Johnson & Co., 22 Custom House Street, Boston, Mass. "Best Liver Pill Known."

Notes and Suggestions of Practical Utility

FOR THE FARM, FIELD, GARDEN AND DAIRY.

Cleanings of Interest for Our Country Readers.

Venture with reason.
Ventilation but no drafts.
Ducks are profitable birds.
Use pure salt and no other.
Poor feed makes poor pork.
Experience is the best guide.
Never go into a thing blindly.
Wind-brakers are a good thing.
Small-boned hogs mature early.
Fine fowls always find a market.
Freezing kills the vitality of eggs.
Is poverty a curse or a misfortune?
Man needs but little, but wants much.
False comparisons are often deceptive.
Is it good for a rich man to be richer?
The hen house cannot be kept too clean.
Too much dry feed causes constipation.
The better the care the better the result.
Sunshine is more valuable than carpets.
Every farmer should grow his own meat.
He who never doubts never progresses.
Sour cream is cream so far gone in decay.
Butter with a good natural color is best.
The first in market gets the best chance.
The more microbes, the worse the product.
A microscopic view is always a narrow one.
Slops are not usually improved by watering.
Sweet pork does not come out of a foul pen.
Clay soils are said to produce the best wool.
The best wool is natural to a cold climate.
Quiet and comfort in the dairy are necessary.
Eggs for hatching should be daily turned over.
One ought to be ashamed not to do his duty.
Too high feeding makes weak-legged chickens.
The best capital in business is business habits.
The better the quarters the less the food needed.
Most animals will eat more than is good for them.
Monsters in size generally come from crossing.
Hens bring good returns from a small investment.
Cheese should be both palatable and digestible.
Be able to judge for yourself of what you are doing.
Good butter cannot be made without good milk.
What reward do you get for your labor this year?
Don't sacrifice future comfort to present indulgence.
It is better to feed ruminating animals twice a day.
Bad management is the worst enemy of the dairy men.
Washing manure is not an evidence of clean farming.
The rounds in the ladder of progress are made of doubts.
A bushel of corn ought to make ten pounds of pork.
Don't sell your hogs just as they are ready to fatten.
Two imperfect animals cannot produce perfect offspring.
The quicker a sheep is dressed the sweeter the meat.
It does not always require a microscope to see small things.
A good paper is indispensable in the education of a family.
A stripper's milk contains smaller and harder fat globules.
Cold cream absorbs impurities from the warm atmosphere.
The real business of life is education; all else is incidental.
Uncleanliness is a common defect in stables and dairies.
There is profit in a few choice animals; loss in many poor ones.
Without the right temperature in the dairy nothing is right.
Throw the dead thing out of education and teach only the live.
Milking qualities often depend on breeding but more on feeding.
The intellects of the farmers as well as the soil, need cultivation.
Never experiment beyond your ability to sustain the loss if you lose.
Dairying furnishes a steady income, which is not a bad feature.
Keep scraps and crumbs and feed them at the regular feeding time.

Hens as well as other kinds of stock are affected by fright and fear.

"Shall we know each other there?" That is more than we do here.

Animals designed for market should always be in market condition.

Do you know for a certainty whether you are making a profit or not?

Digestion and assimilation are both necessary to a thriving condition.

Teach the child all about the things with which he comes in daily contact.

Stating half the facts and omitting the rest, is half lying by omission.

Large fat globules for butter, small ones for cheese and in milk for market.

Good judgment in buying is often offset by poor judgment in keeping a cow.

If you have not a full supply of pure water, dig a well and get a windmill.

There must be no neglected or weak point in the process of butter making.

No one can escape taxation. He pays it on everything he buys, if not directly.

Men adhere the most tenaciously to those things which are least reasonable.

We shall not have well cultivated farms until we have well cultivated intellects.

It is a good cow that makes her weight in butter during the year. Some have done it.

When there is a decrease in the flow of milk there is something wrong with the cow.

Home education should teach all there is about home, and this is a broad education.

The Texas Sittings say: "If you are afraid of losing your bait, don't go fishing."

All raw material should be manufactured as near as possible to the place of production.
