A Pretty Wedding.

Last Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock a very pretty event took place at the residence of Mr. Wm. F. Fowler, Regent street when his only daughter, Annie P. was united in marriage to Mr. E. B. Fisher, eldest son of Mr. C. H. B. Fisher. Rev. Mr. Weddall tied the knot. Only the immediate friends and relations of the young couple were present. The bride wore white corded silk, trimmed with chiffon, and looked very pretty. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Ethel Hatt, who wore yellow lisse with trimmings of chiffon and baby ribbon. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. W. S. Fisher. The room in which the ceremony took place was elegantly decorated with flowers. The presents were both numerous and costly. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher left by the afternoon train for Toronto followed by pound after pound o rice and the best wishes of numerous friends. The GLOBE extends congratulations.

E4 Fire at Jemseg.

Mr. C. B. Colwell, jr., of Jemseg, Queens county, suffered a severe loss by fire on Wednesday morning. Shortly before 10 o'clock, his little daughtor went into the barn. A few minutes later, Mrs. Colwell heard a noise in the stable. As she pushed open the door of the barn clouds of smoke rolled out, and she was driven back. Suddenly flames burst through The roof and it was impossible to save any of the contents, which included a quantity of hay and grain, setts of single and double harness, 10 head of cattle and a horse. One of the cows broke her halter and escaped, but all the rest of the live stock perished. The barn with all its contents was entirely consumed. It is supposed that the little girl dropped a lighted match in the hay. Mr. Colwell's loss is a heavy one, he having no insurance. Neighbors have very considand propose to give him substantial assistance.
