Death of Mrs. James Dever.

The news of Mrs. James Dever's death yesterday afternoon gave the whole community a shock. She was a young woman, only thirty-five years of age strong and healthy in appearance, and one of the last who would have been selected as the occupant of an early grave; but she was cut off almost before she had time to bid her loved ones good bye. A few days before her death nothing serious was looked for or expected. The end came almost without warning. Mrs. Dever was the daughter of the late Edward Seery, and sister of Dr. Seery, Wm. E. Seery, and Mrs. P. Dever of this city. She has also two sisters here unmarried, She leaves four children, one boy and three girls, the youngest an in- bonds of matrimony by the Rev. F. C.
