Swimming.

The Oxford and Cambridge annual races were held lately at the St. George's Baths, London, England, when the light blues won. The events were 60, 240 and 420 yards, and in all the Cantabs registered 11 to their opponents 19 points. A water polo match figured in the programme and resulted in an exciting win for Cambridge by 2 goals to 1. Details: 60 yards (2 lengths)-A. M. Langdon, Oxford, 1; H. W. Allason, Cam-

420 yards-H. W. Allason (Cam.), 1; H. M. King (Cam.), 2. Time, 6.34 2-5 min. The quoit match at Belleville between Wm Todd, of Tatamagouche, N. S., and Frank

Claus, of the Belleville Quoit Club, best out of three games of 61 points each, was won by Claus by 61 to 56. It seems that Frank Ives' recent match with champion John Roberts at English billiards was not a financial success. This is proven by the fact that two other matches between the two, projected for other cities, have been abandoned. Ives is now located in Paris for another long stay.
