OPEN LETTER.

Grand Lake Range, Queen's County, N. B.

March 10th, 1893.

THE GRODER DYSPEPSIA CURE Co., Ltd.

GENTLEMEN:

I am 72 years of age and have had Dyspepsia for several years. I have employed numerous physicians and taken many patent medicines, but all were of no use in my case. I began to grow worse. There was severe distress in my stomach; everything I ate, even the lightest food caused me intense agony. I was almost without hope when I saw a testiwent to St. John and brought me home a bottle of your remedy. I used with the following results; I eat as I wish and have no distress from my food; my appetite is first-class, my food tastes good to me now, I sleep as sound as a of a servant and can do a day's washing without feeling much tired whereas I could not grateful to you, gentlemen, for placing so valuable a remedy upon the market I give all the credit for present state of good health to your medicine.

I am willing to answer any questions concerning the above, for I firmly believe your remedy will cure other sufferers as it has cured me, I conscientiously make this statement without any inducement or reward knowing it to be one of the best medicines in the market for Dyspepsia.

Respectfully yours,

ELEANOR BURKE

Racing English

Story.

The Honorable Tommy Arden had never_known a day's luck since he married the sweetest and the best girl in the world. He had been a sad rake in a quiet fashion, and had lived in the best pos- strange ideas about how to win money sters could remember. Nobody quite knew how he had done it and nobody dressed, always well shaved and brushed somebody, and went everywhere. "Every. where" meant the Empire till closing book, into which he carefully copied the time, afterward one smart dance, and then a flash club-he made a point of never going to a respectable club after book, ate his dinner comfortably, retired dinner.

In the summer he always took a turn in the Row; was seen in the hobby of the opera during one act, was generally to be met at Sandown and Kempton and occasionally at Ranelagh on Sundays, strolled about the lawn at Cowes during the regatta week, and in the off season was never seen, but said he was shooting in the North till I run over to Ostend for a flutter.

On what he lived was known only to in- day's fixtures, nodded his head ominousdividuals separately to whom he said he had the devil's own luck. This did not mean he made a book, or if it did it was false; but the general impression was that he knew the inside of everything; and that if he was not so scrupulous about secrets and would only let his friends stand in oftener he would make their know: fortunes and his own. His own explanation was that he never made a bet un- the youngster did not prevent his friends. less he knew something, and that was when he turned up at the Empire, from how he always won. The result was that saying that Tommy had had a good day his advice was always asked, and when -more especially as to every one who he gave it, always followed. The real had lost or won he said: I could have truth was that the Honorable Tommy had told you as much, only I was bound not ease. never make a bet in his life.

He was truly attached to his wife and very much the same tactics, merely reabandoned everything for her. He was marking over-night, when the results no more seen at music halls and flash were known: If you like to let me stand clubs, and he dined at home and never in a couple of hundreds I will let you went out alone afterward. Everybody know a good thing for Kempton on thought it would all come right, as they Saturday provided you give me your called it, in six months, but it did not, sacred word and honor never to breathe the means by which I was restored to and to the surprise of everybody, Tommy my name as your informant whether it health and manly vigor after years of got shabbier and shabbier in appearance | comes off or not, as I have grave reasons and was seen on omnibuses, and in the which you must not ask me to explain. underground railway and other inexpen-sive and bourgeois places. The result was, his former friends said he had mar- so trifling a condition was readily comried a shrew, and that he would kick plied with. over the traces some day.

The truth was Tommy was in love with | who had consented to pay Tommy two his wife, and she was never so happy as hundred pounds in the event of his tip in his company, and nothing was so re coming off, and had pledged their solemn pellant to him as his old associates and oaths never to divulge his name as their May 20-4m. his old ways. But virtue is its own informant, were duly placed in possesreward and the reward of virtue which sion of the name with the following sage the Honorable Tommy experienced was counsel:

menses, for his commissions for recom- by going to every race meeting, by backliving had not proved very remunerative. win money at racing.

love and the love of her husband said:

But why bother Tommy Darling, to start now. trying to earn the money?

How else can I get it, my dear girl. Oh, why not bet as you used to? They all say you are so clever and have such tion with you.

very best people bet. Horse racing is a horse that started. noble sport, and, though you never confessed it to me, you must have made a lot of money at it.

My dear child, ii can't be done now. I do not know how, or I would go and win you a fortune. How do you bet? I don't bet.

always wanted to know. Does'nt the bookmaker lay against all the horses?

And do you back all the horses? Good heavens! no. If you did that,

how could you win,

Yes: the bookmaker always wins.

win with one of them. understand betting, and I am sure, of all men to whom he has given the straight er than when that was taken.

that you should. give others the benefit of your experience | they all have their turn sooner or later. You know everybody, and I am sure that they would be glad to pay you a commission if they won; which would be have become slightly colder toward him: better than being robbed out of commissions by wine merchants. subject; but, oddly enough, he lay awake that there are always good men coming all night thinking over the last words of on, all of whom he makes it his business his little wife in connection with her to cultivate. sible way for as long as any of the young. by backing all the horses. The next morning he did not refer to the subject but stayed away from business and ocparticularly cared. He was always well | cupied his entire day by making out long lists of his rich racing acquaiutances and up, always dined at the case Royal with compiling elaborate calculations. Toward they may do for you. evening he went out and bought a betting result of his work. This done, he read it all over and smiled- He then closed the to bed early, and slept like a top.

The next day he was out and about betimes; but, instead of once more dunning his customers for the commissions which they owed him, he paid a visit to all the offince through not recognizing or bowstarting-price bootmakers, asking the ing to people, or saying to them what had price of one horse at each place, making best be left unsaid. an entry in his book mysteriously, and chatting with such of the habitues as he was acquainted with. He lunched at told tale or joke. the Cafe Royal, where he met more Where he lived was known to no one. friends, with whom he discussed the ly and smiled knowingly, and when pressed to express an opinion, said, I can't say; and when one young sportsman offered to take a horse against his.

> My dear boy, the first rule of racing is that you can not bet if you know-and I

His virtuous disinclination to take on to say a word to a soul. During all that When he married he gave it all up, week the Honorable Tommy pursued

porting world will readily believe that

Before Saturday came around, all those mending stock brokers, advertisements, ing a horse in every race, and by putting wine merchants, tailors, pictures and your pals on, and thus spoiling the other recognized forms of livelihood by market when you really do know anywhich he had tried to earn a respectable thing good. Now look at me! I always the brokers were put in for two quarters I never go near a meeting unless I know high. rent. During the five days allowed by something, and I never have a sixpence law Tommy had flown about to try and on more than one race whether I win or to get something to eat? Thave seen betcollect the commissions due to him, with lose, and I keep my own counsel. You ter times. Better times? Well, who which to pay the fifty pounds that were are the only man I have given this tip to, hasn't? so expedient to the quieting of his blue- and to be quite frank, the only reason I eyed and brown-haired little wife, who, | do so is because I can not get any morthough sadly troubled had taken his money on without spoiling the market; word for it that it would be all right. His and I am pledged to my informant not to efforts were almost in vain, and he went personally back the horses for more than to see the agent to explain the situation a certain sum, or the bookmakers would and ask for time. He was lucky in only tumble, and if the stable were forestalled My appetite was poor and I could not sleep. seeing a sympathetic clerk who kindly I should never get the office again. It is pointed out to him that he was entitled by not being discreet that fellows spoil monial in the newspaper stating what Groder's by law to an extension of fifteen days. themselves, and if I were to knock the Syrup had done for others. As a last effort In his joy at learning this he confided his betting about it is as likely as not that to regain health, I thought that I would buy position to Mrs. Tommy who, in her own they would pay me out by lumbering me it. Just before Christmas last my son Fred sweet way, believed absolutely in her own on to a wrong 'un next time; and as I have never taken the knock I don't want to some thirty-six of the Honorable Tom. befall him. my Arden's best and most intimate sporting friends. There were six -races child, I do all my own work without the aid luck; I am sure you would win it all in on the following Saturday at Kempton, for which some thirty horses started. It Oh, I have given up all that sort of would be superfluous for the purposes of do it at all before taking Groder's. I do feel thing, and hate it more than I can tell this story to give the names of the horses vou. It is not to be thought of in connect their ages, weights or the names of their riders. All that remains to say is that Oh, nonsense, Tommy, you must not the Honorable Tommy Arden had two let me ruin you; and I am sure all the hundred pounds to nothing on every > Needless to say, only six horses won. With thirty of his friends Tommy has condoled and said something about the luck of the devil. With six of his friends who believe in him as a prophet ever after to be following blindly, he has rejoiced-more especially on the Monday. Don't be silly! How used you to bet? when they each handed him a check for two hundred pounds, making in all one thousand two hundred pounds, with which he payed out the brokers as he had promised the agent.

It is due to his sagacity to say that the Honorable Tommy Arden only plays this Why, the bookmakers lay against all game three times each year. Other men the horses, and he always wins, does'nt would be more greedy. Tommy only makes some four thousand pounds; but he is content with this, as he has the love Well, then, if you follow the same rule and respect of his charming wife who is and back all the horses, you are sure to one of the prettiest and best-dressed women in town. In each year he also My dear child, no woman ever could makes some eighteen fast friends of the women in the world, I have no desire tip which has come off. The others Tommy consoles himself by saying, have But if you won't bet yourself, why not as good a chance as any one else and

There are a few who, after two or three experiences of Tommys straight tips, but Tommy makes no fuss. He pays them out by quietly leaving them out of The Honorable Tommy changed the the next good thing; for the simple reason

What to Cultivate.

An unaffected, low, distinct, silvertoned voice.

The art of pleasing those around you and seeming pleased with them and all

The charm of making little sacrifices quite naturally, as if of no account to yourself.

The habit of making allowances for the opinions, feelings or prejudices of others. An erect carriage, a sound body.

A good memory for faces, and facts connected with them, thus avoiding giving

The art of listening without impatience to prosy talkers, and smiling at the twice

What to Avoid.

or shrill tone of voice.

Extravagances in conversation-such phrases as awfully this, beastly that, hands of time, don't you know, hate for dislike, etc.

Sudden exclamations of annoyance, surprise and joy, such as bother, gracious, how jolly.

Yawning when listening to anyone. Talking on family matters, even to bosom friends.

Attempting any vocal or instrumental piece of music you cannot execute with Watches and Jewelry

Crossing your letters. Making a short, sharp nod with the head, intended to do duty as a bow.

One Honest Man.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GLOBE:

Please inform your readers that I will mail free to all sufferers suffering from Nervous Weakness I was robbed and swindled by quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thanks to Anybody who knows the fashionable heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong. I have nothing to sell and no scheme to extort money from anyone whomsoever, but being desirous to make this certain cure known to all, I wil send free and confidential to anyone full particulars of just how I was cured. Ad-

> MR. EDWARD MARTIN (Teacher), P. O. Pox 143, Petroit Mic

Mrs. Crimsonbeak-The cows are in the corn, John. Mr. Crimsonbeak-All right a perpetual shower of county court sum- The way you chaps lose your money is dear; the corn will soon be in the cows.

JINGLES OF HUMOR.

A Little Yousen se Gathered forLeisure

Clerk (Chicago hotel)-What's your baggage? Guest-One valise, one fire Things had arrived at this pass when I have done so steadily for years; but insurance policy and a repe ten stories

Beg pardon sir; but can't you help me

Cholie had developed a great amount of muscle lately. How do you know? I saw him hold his straw hat without any

I seem to be considerably pushed for cash to-day, muttered Rivers, rejuctantly squaring an account of $5.25 with the wheel-chair man.

She's often accused of having no heart, The fair summer girl so sweet--

But it's a mistake as everyone knows, For dozens are laid at her feet. Johnny-Pa there's Mr. Foot; they say he's a poet. Pa-Sh! Don't mention it; This very excellent advice was given nobody can tell what misfortunes may And yet, said the ice dealer, as he shoved up the price another notch, people think there is no such thing as a cold snap in summer!

Suitor-I have come sir, to ask you to give me your daughter's hand. Paterfamilies-Why sir when I last saw it, it was in your possession.

Let's go into this restaurant and get something to eat. But I'm not hungry, That's no matter; you will be before you get anything.

'Great Caesar' thought the fisherman, Beside the water blue.

I only wish the fish would bite As these mosquitoes do.

Did Travers take his phonograph into a session of the board of lady managers, as he threatened to do? Yes poor fellow and the machine broke.

What a superb face, said one Boston girl to another as they stood before marble head of Minerva. Yes, said the other. What a nose for spectacles!

He-Give me a kiss. She (decidedly) -I won't. He-You shouldn't say I won't to me; you should say I prefer not. She-But that wouldn't be true.

Mr. Sweetly-This picture looks much older than your sister Younger sister-I guess it is, for she's several years young-

The watering-place girl says that when the squeeze is over in Wall street she hopes it will come her way.

Debtor-Don't get scared, the account will be paid in time. Creditor-That's what I'm afraid of.

Wonder if Jatjat Jit Singh's 300 wives were obliged ot take his name and if so, how much they took at a time.

Are Gayhart's promises worth anything? I should say so. Only last week he paid $50 for a broken one.

Mrs. B. Atherton Prop. Fredericton, N. B.

Opp. A. F. Randolph & Sons.

Establishaci

and with a Clear, Healthy Complection

Of course very man wants his wife to be beautiful; but how can she be beautiful if he face and hands are disfigured by rough skin, freckles, tan or eruptions? Nothing will throw such a damper on love as a blemished face. By the use of "GEM CURATIVE SOAP," an article which combines the best known remedies for the cure of all cutaneos diseases, a refined healthy complexion is as-When CEM CURATIVE SOAP is used according to directions the effects are marvellous and gratifying. Time has proven this to be true, as thousands of the most flattering testimonials are on file from customers in England, Scotland, France and Germany, in which countries the Soap is a staple toilet article. For Thirty Days Only

> Write this GEM CURATIVE SOAP sentence

Sample cases postpaid. All goods for the United States free of duty.

GENERATION AFTER GENERATION

And send to with twenty cents for a sample cake of Gem Curative Soap. To the first lady from whom a slip is received will be given a handsome Seal Ski Mantle, valued at $300.00, or its equivalent in cash. less 20 per cent- To the fir Gentlemen from whom is received a similiar slip will be given an 18-karat Gold Watch set with one karat diamonds. Appleton & Tracey's movement, valued at $250.00. In addition to these, we have prepared five thousand sample cakes numebred 1 to 5000. Every number ending with naught (0) will receive a prize valued at not less than $10.00.

> GEM SOAP Co., TORONTO, CANADA

on a piece of

GEO. W. ADAMS, Undertaker.

Queen St., Opposite People's Bank.

COFFINS CASKETS, AND all Styles and Quality at The LOWEST PRICES.

FURNITURE REPAIRED UPHOLSTERED.

99 out of 100

eople at least use Furniture. And many of the Ninety-Nine have ot yet got all the Furniture they need or would like to have.

When you want to buy anything in the Furniture Line, either for every day usr or for ornament, remember to call at the store of

Willard Kitchen & Co..

2 DOORS ABOVE PEOPLE'S BANK.

FURNITURE of all Kinds, PIANOS, ORGANS, and SEWINC

Goods of all the Latest designs and all fresh from the factories. Prompt attention give = to orders by mail.

Fredericton, Sept. 16th, 1893.

ENERGY. EQUITY. ECONOMY.

Before Insuring your Life write for Rates and Plans

DESTRUCTION GENERAL LIFE ASS. CO.

E. R. MACHUM,

Agents Wanted.

HON. C. W. ROSS, Pres.

Man. for Maritime Prov.

ST. JOHN, N. B. H. SUTHERLAND, Man.

Don't Fail to Read This!

WANT SUPPLIED.

Having noticed lately the eagerness of purchasers of Ready-Made Clothing to get a better article than that which is imported from Montreal, I have decided this coming year

To Fill the Bill, I am now showing a line of Custom Made Clothing at Ready Made Prices.

Ask to see the Fifteen Dollar Custom Made Overcoats.

A few suits of Montreal clothing that I havefon hand I will close out BELOW COST. I would also call your attention to the fact that I am closing out my stock of Gents' Furnishings, consisting of :- White and Regetta Shirts, Neckwear, Suspenders, Collars, Cuffs, Caps, Silk Handkerchiefs, etc., consequenty

BARGAINS GREAT Await Purchasers of the above goods at

150 QUEEN STREET.