HORRIBLE MONCTON ACCIDENT.

A Little Girl, Eleven Years Old, Has Her Head Crushed in the Cotton Factory.

A horrible accident occurred in the cotton factory at Moncton, this week, by which a little eleven year old girl named Agnes Melancon met her death. She stopped work as usual Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock and went home to supper, returning afterwards for her two sisters and brother, who were employed in the mill and working overtime. It is supposed Agnes was playing on the elevator. When found she was lying down on the elevator, her head wedged in a space not more than two or three inches wide between the elevator and a beam a foot thick. The head was crushed beyond recognition and the tongue hanging out several inches. The horrible nature of the accident may be judged from the fact that the accident stopped the elevator, which had a capacity for raising fifteen hundred pounds. The discovery of the accident was first made by one of the unfortunate child's sisters who gave the alarm, and when the body was released life was altogether extinct, the accident having happened probably some minutes before.

Miss Thompson of the Education Office, is visiting her brother Mr. Sisson Thompson, at Chicago.

Mr. A. McCuskey, the popular commercial man was here this week.

BATHURST SCHOOLS.

The Investigation Likely to Continue for Some Time.

The Bathurst school investigation has now been in progress nearly two weeks, and it will probably be some time yet before the work of getting in the evidence is concluded. Judge Fraser is adjudicating upon the question Solicitor General White, represents the Board of Education, C. N. Skinner and Geo. W. Fowler appear for the complainants, and R. H. Lawlor of Newcastle and N. A. Landry of Bathurst, are taking care of the interests of the Bathurst school trustees. A very large number of people interested in the evidence and on the final outcome of the investigation, was present, including of course, Rev. A. F. Thompson, Rev. J. S. Allen, J. Sellar. The most ample opportunity, the fullest latitude has been given to the complainants for the production of evidence with which to substantiate the charges they have made. Rev. J. S. Allen, J. E. O'Brien, school trustee, Bishop Roger, Rev. Thos. Barry, Geo. W. Mersereau school inspector, Rev. Wm. Varrily, Dr. Inch Chief Superintendent of Education, a number of protestant school children and others, have all been on the stand, have been examined, cross-examined, re-examined, and placed under the most searching examination which the nature of the case and the rules of evidence allow, but thus far the amount of evidence adduced in support of the charges made against the present government, has been very trifling indeed. The principal changes are, of course, in brief, that the Roman Catholic ritual catechism were taught in the schools in that section of the province with the cognizance, and sufferance of the Board of Education, and that the Board has connived at transgressions of the letter and spirit of the school law for some years past. But it is almost needless to say that thus far the complainants have failed to connect the Board of Education or the Provincial Government with a knowledge of any of the alleged violations of the law. It is true that by the evidence of protestant children attending some of the schools on the North Shore, which evidence appears satisfactory and creditable, they have succeeded in proving that in some instances the Roman Catholic catechism was taught in these schools during the hours which are fixed by law for the prosecution of purely school work and education. This state of affairs is regrettable, and we would be among the first to deplore it, and to censure the government which would knowingly encourage or even allow it. But we do not believe, nor is their anything in the evidence submitted to the judge during the progress of the present investigation to lead us to believe, that the Board of Education or the government either knew of these illegal practices being carried on, or suspected their existence. Dr. Inch, the Chief Superintendent of Education was on the stand, and was fully and severely examined upon this question. He is at the head of educational matters in the province; he is a member of the Board of Education; and he has charge of the records of the transactions of the board, not only during the term of his own tenure of the office, but also during the administration of his predecessors, and if any of these things had come to the knowledge of the Board of Education, he would be in a position to know of them, and would have been compelled to state what he knew on the witness stand. Yet, in face of all these facts, the complainants have failed to establish that any complaints of the alleged violations of the law have ever reached the ears of the inspector, the Chief Superintendent, or of any other officials charged with the duty of hearing and investigating such charges. Further, we believe that the complainants will be unable to prove that such complaints have been made, or that the officials in question knew of any such infringements of the law, and this, not because the scope of the enquiry is in any way limited, but because there are no facts on which to found evidence of such complaints. What, then, must the public conclude? Are they to believe that the Board of Education ought to be held guilty because they do not correct violations of the law of which they do not know, and of which no complaint had reached their ears. Surely the people of New Brunswick can take credit for the possession of more common sense than that. Thus far, the government stands acquitted in the eyes of all intelligent people, of the very grave charges which have been laid at their door, and if, at the conclusion of the investigation, the political agitators who are at the bottom of this costly proceeding shall have failed to establish the facts quoted in their statement of grievances, and the government stands vindicated in the eyes of the people, we shall feel justified in asking our readers to give the government all the credit which belongs to them, and to join with all earnest patriotic citizens in suppressing an agitation so wide spread, so bitter and so fatal to the welfare of the country. In conclusion we are able to guarantee that as soon as the grievances thus far proved have been adjudicated upon by the judge in charge should he find that real grievances exist, the government will lose no time in removing whatever is illegal and prejudicial to the rights of any religious body and the successful administration of the law.

It is in contemplation to have a purely Canadian celebration on Dominion Day at Chicago, on an extensive scale, as it may well be, taking into consideration the fact that in Chicago there are some 65,000 Canadians and in the West within easy distance of it there are as many more; many of whom though they may have become naturalized Americans still love and cherish most fondly the memory of their birthplace.

SOME HINTS ABOUT DRIVING.

Particularly Useful to Women—You Should Drive Well.

Whether you drive a single horse or a team the principles are the same; but in driving a pair see to it that each horse does his share of the work and no more. A pair of horses, moreover, unless well driven are sure to get into the habit of wandering over the road.

To drive well you must keep your eye and your mind on the horse. Watch his ears. They will be pricked forward when he is about to shy, droop when he is tired fly back just before he "breaks" into a gallop and before he kicks. Before kicking, too, a horse usually tucks in his tail and hunches his back a little. When you observe any of these indications speak to him sharply and pull up his head.

You must watch the road also. Turn out for stones, so that the horse will not stumble nor the wheels jolt over them avoid the mud hole and places where the going is bad, let the horse slacken speed when the road become heavy, and if you want to make time do it where the ground slightly descends.

It is a common mistake to think that a horse can haul a carriage easily on the level. On such a road he has to be pulling every moment; there is no rest. Whereas, when the road now rises, and now falls, the weight is taken off him at times, and he has a chance to recover his wind and to rest his muscles. As between a level road in a valley and an up-and-down road over the hills, the latter is by far the easier for a horse to travel. When you come to a long level stretch let your horse walk a bit in the middle of it.

Almost everyone knows that for the first few miles, after coming out of the stable, a horse should be driven slowly, and especially if he has just been fed. On a journey is it of the utmost importance to observe this rule. Be careful, however, not to check a young nag too quickly when he comes fresh out of the stable; give him his head, talk to him soothingly and presently he will come down to a moderate pace. If you pull him up at once, you vex him extremely, so much so that he is not unlikely to kick.—Harper's Young People.

er his cure as little short of miraculous.

Messrs. Wight & Co., old and reliable druggists of this town, assure us that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have an enormous sale, which is additional proof that they really are what the manufacturers claim for them.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a perfect blood builder and nerve restorer, curing such diseases as rheumatism, neuralgia, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia, St. Vitus dance, nervous prostration and the tired feeling therefrom, the after effects of a grippé, diseases depending on humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. Pink Pills give a healthy glow to pale and sallow complexions and are a specific for the troubles peculiar to the female system, and in the case of men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of any nature.

These Pills are manufactured by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, of Brockville Ont, and Schenectady, N. Y. and are sold only in boxes bearing the firm's trade mark (printed in red ink) and wrapper, at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50. Bear in mind that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are never sold in bulk or by the dozen or hundred, and any dealer who offers substitutes in this form is trying to defraud you and should be avoided. The public are also cautioned against all other so-called blood builders and nerve tonics, no matter what name may be given them. They are all imitations whose makers hope to reap a pecuniary advantage from the wonderful reputation achieved by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Ask your dealer for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and refuse all imitations.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills may be had of all druggists or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company from either address. The price at which these pills are sold makes a course of treatment comparatively inexpensive as compared with other remedies or medical treatment.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Rescued Their Child from Scrofula.

For Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all other foul humors in the blood of children or adults, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an unequalled remedy. Read this:

Suffering Children

Our girl was a beautiful baby, fair and plump and healthy. But when she was two years old, sores broke out behind her ears and spread rapidly over her head and forehead down to her eyes, and into her neck. We consulted one of the best physicians in Brooklyn, but nothing did her any good. The doctors said it was caused by a scrofula humor in the blood. Her head became offensive to the smell and dreadful to look at. Her general health waned and she would lay in a large chair all day without any life or energy. The sores caused great itching and burning, so that at times we had to restrain her hands to prevent scratching. For 3 years with this terrible humor. Being urged to try Hood's Sarsaparilla we did so. We soon noticed that she had more life and appetite. The medicine seemed to drive out more of the humor for a short time, but it soon began to subside, the itching and burning ceased, and in a few months her head became entirely clear of the sore. She is now perfectly well, has no evidence of the humor, and her skin is clear and healthy. She seems like an entirely different child, in health and general appearance, from what she was before taking
